BEGGED TO BE PUT IN JAIL

A half-witted youth was in Marshall this week begging to be admitted to the county jail. He was told by officers that he could not get into jail unless he had committed some offense. Whereupon he asserted that unless he was admitted to the jail, he would break into somebody's store so that he would be put in.

It turned out to be a youth who was guilty a few years ago of breaking into some buildings in Marshall and, being only half-witted, he was sent to Morganton, where he had been all this time. It seems that he had run away from the authorities at Morganton and had wandered back to his native county. Not finding it pleasant for him here, he was seeking a place to stay where he had stayed before.

NOTICE TO BAPTISTS

Every church in the French Broad Association has been requested to do as much as possible on the Seventy-five Million program by November 30.

Every church is also urged to make the canvass on the 1925 program the first week in December and have it in when the State Convention meets in Raleigh December 9-12.

We are trusting that each church will have a good representation in our Fifth Sunday Meeting at Long Branch church.

G. P. LANIER.

REV. FERDIE L. HIPPS BACK IN THE COUNTY

Rev. Ferdie L. Hipps, a student at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, Ky., has returned to his native County to spend some time with his people near Spring Creek. Rev. Mr. Hipps has been chosen as Director for the Association to finish the Seventy-five Million Campaign and to launch the 1925 program.

UNION THANKS-GIVING SERVICE

The Union Thanksgiving meeting in Marshall will be held in the Methodist church at 10:00 o'clock A. M. Rev. Westley M. Hyde of Walnut will preach the sermon.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Important

Everybody Invited

The Annual Praise service of the Ladies' Missionary Society will be held Wednesday, November 26, 1924, at 7:00 P. M. at the church. Mr. Hadley, of Dorland Bell School, at Hot Springs, returned missionary from China, will be the speaker of the evening. A social hour with refreshments will complete the evening's program. A special invitation is sent to the missionary societies and members of the other churches. A good program with special music has been planned. Let everybody come.

"What does it mean, Tommy?" the Sunday-school teacher asked, "when it says they rest their clothes?"

"I suppose they couldn't afford to buy them," replied Tommy.

FOREST FIRES IN MOUNTAIN AREA PROVING COSTLY

Total of 56 Reported from Nine Counties in Three Weeks.

(From Asheville Citizen)

A total of 56 forest fires have damaged over 10,000 acres of land in the nine mountain counties of the State during the past three weeks, it was announced yesterday by Carl L. Pearson, North Carolina District Forester. Reports have been received from the nine counties in the district that are co-operating with the forest service. The nine counties are Buncombe, Swain, Cherokee, Haywood, Clay, Henderson, Transylvania, Polk and Madison.

Lack of rain has made the forests unusually dry. Several of the forest fires in the nine counties are still burning and the only relief hoped for is rain. None of the present fires are large it is stated. Forces of men have been at work fighting the fires and their efforts have helped check the spread of flames over large areas.

Swain County is perhaps the hardest hit of all the nine counties reporting fires to the District Forester. Eleven fires spreading over a total of 5,400 acres have been reported from Swain County.

Buncombe county has had eight fires, none of which have been very large. The largest of the eight was the one in the vicinity of Mount Meadows Inn. Altogether the damaged area in this county is estimated to cover 480 acres.

Cherokee County has had 10 fires, covering 800 acres; Haywood 12 fires, covering about 3,300 acres; Clay, four fires, covering 600 acres; Henderson three fires, covering 250 acres; Transylvania three fires, covering 900 acres; Polk four fires, covering 40 acres; and Madison one fire, covering 180 acres.

The fires this year are reported as being worse than last year. Some wardens claim they have seen worse than they have seen in a number of years. The damage has been done to second-growth principally.

LITTLE ONE HAS A WORD

"I am the Future, for in me there lies
What through the ages our land shall be;
Yet what I am is what you are to be—
I am the question to which you make replies."

The helplessness of the child makes a universal and powerful appeal. Only the heart in which the spirit of the Master does not dwell is untouched by this appeal. If you want to know whether your heart is in the right place, seriously inquire of yourself how near you can approach in a Christian, spirit a fatherless and homeless little child. Have you ever felt the thrill and warmth of heart that comes from the weak hand of the little child angnles into yours on a dark night, or in a strange place? If you have, this message will appeal to you. If not, it is "sweetness wasted on the desert air."

When the Good Master wanted to teach men a lesson in trust and in and in child-like innocence, He set a little child in their midst and said: "Inasmuch as ye do it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." On many occasions during His ministry among men the Master referred tenderly to the care and protection of children. Shall we, then, offer an apology for bringing again the needs of the fatherless and motherless children of North Carolina to the attention of the people at Thanksgiving?

The farmer plants his seed for the harvest he expects to realize. The orphan homes of the State are planning for a harvest of the race. Shall we give to growing children that degree of care and attention the farmer spends upon the plants from which he expects an abundant yield of golden grain? Shall we have a part in building for the future? Shall we grow patriots for the coming years?

In order that more adequate equipment and support may be provided for our patriot-making agencies, the orphan homes, the "One-Day-for-the-Orphan" movement was started, calling upon all our people to add to the stream of regular contributions a special Thanksgiving offering equal to a day's income. Hitherto, this request has met with a generos response. It has enticed our people of all creeds and classes in beautiful cooperation for the support of a needed civic and Christian philanthropy.

The need of the orphan homes is still urgent, and every citizen of the State is asked to cooperate. In the movement to save from degeneracy and help train for good citizenship the most exposed children in the world.

How can you do this? How can you so give that your charity will reach directly to the homeless orphan?

A list of these splendid institutions appears on the last page of this pamphlet. Every one of them is worthy of your support. You are asked to forward to one of these a special Thanksgiving offering. A day's wage, or the income of a day, is suggested—more if you can, less if you can do no better.

And, remember, you are asked to do this in the name of Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." It is for His unfortunates this appeal is made. To the liberal giver it will bring happiness and contentment; and the liberal contributor is the individual who gives in the right spirit, be it much or little. "For God loveth a cheerful giver."

Winter, with its cold, its sufferings, and its privations for many, is approaching. Can we allow a single orphan child in our great Commonwealth to lack for food, for clothes, or for knowledge that will enable that child to become a useful citizen, and that will direct its steps into the ways of pleasantness and peace?

Raymond Robbins once said, "The greatest hope for the world lies in the fact that there is a new generation born three times in every century." Three times in every hundred years God gives us a new generation of children to teach and to lead into the paths and the ways of His family. And we are admonished to "train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

Let us take God at His word and train up the new generation to be true and honest and worthy men and women. Then we may confidently hope for and have reason to expect that the boys and girls of Today will become the splendid men and women so necessary for Tomorrow. You can help by entering into the spirit of this message, from the North Carolina Orphan Association, which asks you to help gladden the lives of hundreds of fatherless and motherless children now under the fostering care of the fine orphan homes located in various sections of our progressive State.

Make your offering on or about Thanksgiving Day. Make it on the basis of your earning capacity of a single day. Make it through your church, or lodge, or send it direct to the orphanage of your choice. Make it, remembering that thousands of others are with you in this movement.

Make it, if you will, with the prayer that our orphan children may be led into the larger life here and the life eternal hereafter. Make it with the wish that the next Thanksgiving Day may be the gladdest and best ever observed in North Carolina.

Mountain View Is Defeated By Mars Hill Eleven, 13-0

Visitors Playing First Year of Football Put Up Creditable Showing Against Roberts' Team

(By HOD ELLER.)

The Mountain View Academy football team of North Wilkesboro journeying on their first trip to the Western section of the State met defeat at the hands of Mars Hill College on the latter's field yesterday afternoon, 13-0.

The entire squad consisting of 14 players was playing its first year of football and put up a very creditable showing and held Mars Hill scoreless until the final minute of play in the first half when the visitors fumbled a punt on their 10-yard line, Stoupe recovering the ball. A hip plunge netted five yards and an end run by Furgus placed the ball across for the first score of the game. The attempt for the extra point by Reems failed.

The final touchdown came in the last quarter when Sams blocked a punt and ran 20-yards for the goal. Sams placing the ball between the posts for the extra point. Bell and Howard played a stellar game for the visitors while Sams Owens and Stoupe starred for the locals.

TALK HAPPINESS

Talk happiness. The world is sad enough.

Without your woe. No path is wholly rough.

Look for the places that are smooth and clear.

And speak of them to rest the weary ear.

Of earth; so hurt by one continuous strain

Of moral discontent and grief and pain.

Talk faith. The world is better off without.

Your uttered ignorance and morbid doubt

If you have faith in God, or man, or self.

Say so; if not push back upon the shell

Of silence all your thoughts till faith shall come;

No one will grieve because your lips are dumb.

Talk health. The dreary, never-ending tale

Of mortal maladies is worn and stale

You cannot charm, or interest, or ease

By harping on that minor chord disease.

And you are well, or all is well with you,

And God shall hear your words, and make them true.

American Honored by 23 Foreign Nations

CHARLES V. VICKREY
For several years general secretary of the Near East Relief in America, Mr. Vickrey has been honored by election to the presidency of the International Near East Association, composed of representatives of 23 nations. The organization is sponsoring the international observance of Golden Rule Sunday on December 7 on behalf of the refugee orphans of Bible Lands.

Changes Effected on Hendersonville Daily Newspaper

HENDERSONVILLE, N. C., Nov. 8.—Several changes in the editorial and business departments of the Hendersonville Daily Times, a newspaper recently begun here, was reported this afternoon.

Morris A. Bealls, managing editor and later general manager of the paper, has resigned. Reasons for his resignation were not announced. Henry Adkin remains on the news desk with L. J. Penny, formerly with the News here and later with Laurel Park Estates becomes managing editor. It was reported that in an attempt to curtail the management had decided to discontinue the service of one of its advertisement so-licitors and a reporter. It was said that the size of the paper be reduced.

Relief Work Heroine Back From Near East

DR. MABEL ELLIOTT
Five times decorated by foreign governments for heroic services during four years of relief work in the Near East, this "modern Florence Nightingale" has returned to America to aid in the campaign for funds, which centers in the observance of Golden Rule Day for the refugee orphans of the Near East on December 7. Her recent book, "Beginning Again at Ararat," is being used as a textbook on the Near East in schools and colleges.

FROM HOT SPRINGS

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM THE WELL KNOWN RESORT TOWN

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Public School of Hot Springs gave a very interesting entertainment on Halloween at the school house, realizing forty dollars to be applied on a Library for the school. This is a splendid organization, having a membership near fifty—of wide awake workers, and it does seem a shame that we can't have a nice school building so that we would have something to work for. The entertainment consisted of a cake walk, kissing contest, fishing pond, fortune telling, apple-bobbing, grab bags, and finally closed with an old-fashioned square dance. We feel that this Parent-Teachers Association is bringing the people of Hot Springs nearer together.

Again, we had a great boost when Hot Springs school took four out of the six prizes at County Commencement. The winners were: De Etta Almon, George Lippard, Edith Downs and Tom Davis.

We feel that the teachers deserve great credit in training the winners, since they had such a short time.

Mrs. Chas. Burgin and Mrs. Harry Hill entertained for Mrs. L. H. Watkins with a baby shower. It was carried out in beautiful form. The house was decorated with pot plants and cut flowers. Mrs. Ellerson presided at the tea table and Mrs. Zimmerman poured coffee. Those present were: Mesdames Ruffy, Jared, Ellerson, Zimmerman, Downs, Plemmons, Davis, Smith, Stamey, Grubb and Miss Mary Roberson.

We hear a rumor that we are soon to have a sanatorium built on the old Hotel site. We hope in the near future that this will prove to be more than a mere rumor.

The stork in winging his flight over Hot Springs, left with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lewis a fine big boy, Jerome Ebba. Mother and son doing fine.

We are delighted with our new Methodist pastor, Mr. Newton. He has shown a very willing spirit of wanting to do something for us here. He has visited our public school and became acquainted with a great many of our town people.

Hot Springs has been "hit hard" by serious accidents, all of which have been related through the paper.

Mr. Chas. Burgin and daughter, Miss Alene Burgin, visited her son who is attending school at Berea College. They report very favorably of the school.

Mrs. B. M. Safford was in Marshall this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Davis are making a dying effort to win a car in the Times Contest.

Mrs. Fannie E. Lance is in Asheville with her daughter, Mrs. D. V. Ebba, who underwent an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Duckett, daughter Miss Beulah, and Mrs. Warren

Davis spent Wednesday in Asheville. Mrs. Sarah R. Baker left yesterday to visit her daughter, Miss Peggy who is physical director in Sullens College at Bristol, Va.

Mrs. G. C. Buquo spent the past week in Asheville.

Mr. J. D. Hensley was in Asheville this week and purchased a large amount of building material. Mr. Hensley is the mayor of Hot Springs, and is building a new home on "Mountain Heights."

Mrs. Thomas Friebes is in Knoxville visiting her sister, Mrs. Wrinkle. Mrs. John Gentry is visiting in Sunburst.

Mr. H. R. Lallande from Knoxville spent the week-end with the Buquos.

KU KLUX ATTEND CHURCH IN BODY

Thursday night of this week at the Free Will Baptist church in Marshall, where revival services are in progress under the preaching of Rev. Mr. Ledford of Tennessee, as the service was about half over, a body of members of the Ku Klux organization went into the church, creating some little excitement in the congregation. These masked men, eleven in number, walked up to the pulpit and handed the preacher a letter with a purse of $15. The minister passed the letter over to Dr. Sams to read, which he did publicly. In the letter a warning was worded to the people of the community not inclined to do the right thing that serious consequences may follow if they do not desist from their misconduct. The young people who had disturbed the services were given a warning, and the statement made that if any of them happened to be indicted at the next term of court that they need not blame anybody for reporting the matter to the grand jury but the Ku Klux organization.

WORLD WAR VETERANS FILE YOUR BONUS APPLICATIONS.

Men who served with the Military or Naval Forces during the WORLD WAR for a period of sixty days or more is entitled to receive benefits under the Adjusted Compensation Act passed by Congress last Spring.

In a recent statement circulated by the War Department it was shown that up to the present time only about One Million Four Hundred Thousand applications have been received out of a possible Five Million, and that applications are coming in so slowly at this time that it may be necessary for the Department to cut down the working forces that were organized to handle these claims.

By a recent ruling of the Comptroller of the Treasury, the beneficiaries of a Veteran, who has filed his application and may die before receiving his Insurance certificate, will receive the full amount of his insurance. But if the Veteran has not filed his application and should die his beneficiaries will receive only his Adjusted Service Credit, or about one-third of the amount that they would receive had the application been properly filed by the Veteran himself. From this ruling it will be seen that it is to the interest of the Service Man himself to file his application immediately.

Mr. C. E. Rector has a supply of blank applications, and will be glad to aid anyone that may need help in filling them in, without charge. He may be found around his office in Marshall any week day. Always be sure to bring your discharge certificate with you.

125 GALLONS LIQUOR CAPTURED

The report we gave last week as to the capture by the Sheriff, Deputy, and Revenue officer of 60 gallons of liquor, 3 cars and six people was only a part of that story, as we understand from the Sheriff this week. What we said was true, but the amount of liquor taken was 125 gallons instead of 60. The people gave bond for appearance at court and were released from jail.
