From BETHEL

Mr. and Mrs. Zeb Ledford's little son, Roy, died with diphtheria Sunday, Sept. 20. The bereaved have our greatest sympathy.

The Sunday school at Bethel is along nicely. We are having a very large attendance and are visited by Meadow Fork folks often.

Mrs. H. B. Woody and Miss Emma Haynes visited Mrs. Elsie Parker Friday.

Miss Mae Woody is very sick at this writing.

Misses Grace Ledford and Eloise Price and Mr. Rufus Clark of Spring Creek passed through this section today in a truck.

Mr. Leo Keener is a Sunday caller at the home of Mr. Harrison Brown.

Messrs. Rickman Flemming and Carl Stamey are callers at the home of Mr. J. N. Parker.

Misses Mae and Gertie Woody took dinner with their cousins, Misses Carolina and Maggie J. Parker, Sunday.

Misses Ruby Brown, Mayme Hickam, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Brown took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Berry Brown Sunday.

Mrs. Melvin Wyatt and children visited Mrs. Robert Kent Sunday.

The people of Bethel had singing Sunday afternoon and they were visited by Mr. Robert Pinkerton and his singing choir, which was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Rainey and Mr. Charlie Rainey. The other visitors were Messrs. Leo Keener, Carl Stamey, Charlie Taylor, Rickman Flemming and Miss Lola Garmon.

Miss Nettie Brown took dinner with Mrs. Sanford Blankenship Sunday.

Missal for dinner.

Met again at 2 P. M. A male quartette. Prayer by Bro. Malley Rice. Shoal Hill represented by Malley Rice.

The next meeting will be held with the Red Hill Church beginning Saturday before the 5th Sunday in November.

Song—a quartette. Some testimonials. Closing song, and one profession.

REV. B. E. GUTHRIE, Mod.
MALLEY RICE, Clerk.

From WHITE ROCK

Dr. Humphrey gave the school a very interesting talk Tuesday morning.

Mr. Luther Tweed, who has had the post office at White Rock for a few years, has resigned and Mr. Major Tweed has been appointed.

Mr. Charlie Gunter is holding meeting at Brigmon Chapel.

The funeral of Mr. Rufus Tweed will be held at the Tweed cemetery Sunday, Sept. 20.

Mr. Arthur Stanton's barn was burned Friday night.

Mrs. Fred White, of Atlanta, Ga., has been visiting Mrs. E. L. Thomas, of Big Laurel.

There is prayer meeting at White Rock every Wednesday evening. Everybody is invited to come.

Mr. Otis Chandley is having a nice new home built.

Mr. S. M. Wallin and son, James, and Mr. Carl Whitt, of Stocksville, have been visiting Mrs. Wallin's sister, Mrs. Jackie Gentry.

Miss Roxie Tweed, Mr. Roy Franklin, Miss Geneva Byrd and Mr. Junior Tweed attended the baptizing at Belva Sunday P. M.

Miss Lela Tilery spent the week-end at her home near Mars Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Wallin expect to get moved to their new home some time this week.

prayer. I give God all the glory, praise His holy name!

This was not a denominational meeting, though the preacher belongs to the Baptist church. Most all the preachers from the surrounding churches came and helped in the meeting. Five different denominations were represented. 73 or more professed faith in Christ, besides a lot of renewals, backsliders, and cold hearted Christians being blest, coming back to God.

We had the old time mourners bench. They came by the way of the cross, prayed through to victory. It was inspiring to see so many old men and women and middle aged men shouting praises to God, some grey-headed. The best of all is that some drunkards and bootleggers were among the brightest converts. This has been a special time for fathers and mothers to get saved, only a few children in the bunch.

There have been men saved in this meeting who have never been known to be moved before.

The baptizing was a touching scene, some shouting glory to God as they came from the water. 3 preachers, one Methodist and 2 Baptists, did the baptizing, all in the water at once. I did not get the exact number that were baptized.

One hundred and twenty-nine or thirty dollars was given to the preacher for his services. He came here to preach without a single promise of finance. We also hired a pianist. All the churches together furnished a splendid singing choir.

Many good wishes to the Record.

PROPER RELATIONS

God deals with us as we deal with other people. As we treat others so we treat God. The way we treat others is the way we treat God. The spirit of pure religion is manifested, or fails to be manifested, largely in our dealings with another. Of course it embraces more than this. It embraces an active and living faith in God. How important then are our relations, being called to glory and virtue.

We cannot afford to hold anger, malice or grudge against others. Jesus said, "If ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Heavenly Father forgive you your trespasses." It is a law of the Gospel that those who have been mercifully forgiven, will minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God. We cannot afford to hold these things from the standpoint of the immediate coming of Christ, and the assurance of a clear title to those mansions over there.

We cannot afford it, from the standpoint of our own personal happiness. Ask any social leader, Christian, or not, and he will very likely say that the secret of happiness is to do good unto others. It is a chip from the great mountain of truth. The Bible expresses the same truth when it says, "Let him refrain his tongue from evil and his lips that they speak no guile. Let him eschew evil and do good. Let him seek peace and pursue it."—I Peter 3—10, 11, 12, read 12th verse also.

The true Christian spirit is kindness, sympathy, loving, believing, courageous, helpful, hopeful, toleration of all that is good, a firm no to all that is questionable or bad, meekness, temperance and faith. But the opposite spirit, alas! is too often experienced which are the fruits of the evil one. These are malice, unkindness, even unkind thoughts are a sin, when allowed to stay in our hearts, fretfulness, quarrelsomeness, hardness, complaining, carelessness, unbelief, neglect.
"Be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you."—Ephesians 4—32.
By WELZIE ODELL RAY.

From BULL CREEK

Our Sunday school proves to be some better now. Rev. A. P. Sprinkle was to preach to us last Sunday evening, but he failed to fill his appointment. Rev. Jesse Corn made a wonderful talk in the absence of Rev. Mr. Sprinkle.

Our home prayer meetings have "died out." We have hopes of them starting again this winter or fall.
Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Fisher were the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hunter.

Mr. N. K. Carson spent the week-end in Asheville with relatives.

Miss Erelene Merrell was the guest of Miss Daisy Phillips for lunch Sunday.

Mr. Chauncey Metcalf and Miss Ella Callahan, Mr. Roland Silver and Miss Myrtle Merrill, Miss Texa Hunter, Misses Laura and Evelyn Silver were the afternoon callers of Miss Aria Merrill Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Silver were

THE SOUTHERN SERVES THE SOUTH

Making a freight car do a bigger day's work keeps rates down

Freight rates are much lower today in comparison with the prices of goods than before the war.

The large sums we have spent for improvements enable us, with the loyal cooperation of our employees, to haul heavier trains, with a larger load per car, and at a greater rate of speed.*

With the assistance of our shippers, we have also reduced delays in loading and unloading our freight cars.

All of these things help us to reduce our costs per unit of traffic, and this greater efficiency directly benefits our shippers through better service and moderate rates.

*The average freight train load on the Southern in 1924 was 45% greater than in 1914.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT THURMOND

We have just closed one of the most powerful meetings I have ever witnessed.

Rev. J. L. Riddle of Winston-Salem answered the call: "Come over into Macedonia and help us." He came with his tent and held a 3 weeks meeting, preaching only at night. Giving 3 services each Sunday for 3 Sundays, 28 services in all. There has been the greatest religious awakening that has been witnessed in this country in many years. The tent was crowded to overflowing most every night. Crowds estimated at four and five hundred people. Folks came from all the different churches around. It seemed so strange to them that there should be such religious interest among the people of Thurmond, when there was no church.

I am glad to say that it is the result of our little Sunday school there. Also a direct answer to our prayers. We were praying earnestly that the Lord would give us a great meeting. Everybody is saying that the meeting is providential, and in answer to
