RELATIVES OF MRS. H. L. SMITH KILLED IN CAR WRECK AT HICKORY

Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Smith left Thursday evening for Hickory, N. C., in response to a telegram notifying Mrs. Smith that her sister, 16 years of age and Mrs. Smith's uncle's small child were killed in an automobile wreck near Hickory, N. C., some time Thursday. The small child was killed outright and the girl lived only a few hours. Whether or not the other occupant of the car was injured and other details of the wreck could not be learned Friday. A full account of the accident will appear in a later issue of this paper.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my many friends for all their kindness and service during the death of my brother, Dr. O. V. Burnett, of Mars Hill. He and myself have practiced medicine on Laurel for the past twenty-five years and can truthfully say that we never were among kinder or more truthful people during all our practice. At many times he would neglect his practice at Mars Hill and go through rain and snow and other hardships to Laurel and attend their sick there, as he considered them among the best friends he had, and I am sure that the people in question will continue to be so, and give justice to both parties, until the end. With best wishes and kindest regards for the people on Laurel and at Mars Hill, T. E. BURNETT.

GIVES LODGE DEAD SEA GAVEL FROM JERUSALEM

Cambridge Springs, Pa.—Gavels, Masonic and otherwise, have been made from many unique or historical materials, such as wood from famous buildings and trees, stone from historic spots or crumbling relics and the like. One of the most interesting of these gavels has been presented to Covenant Blue Lodge of Masons here. Mr. A. L. Goldston recently presented this lodge with a beautiful gavel, the head of which is made of a rock taken from the bottom of the Dead Sea. A reproduction of the tower of David is inscribed on one side of the head while the other depicts the presentation to Covenant Lodge. It was made by the students of the technical school school at Jerusalem.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our many friends for their many acts of kindness during the sickness and death of our little son, Riley Marshall Rogers, also Dr. Sams for being so faithful to come when we called for him.

MR. and MRS. J. N. ROGERS, Marshall, N. C., R. F. D. No. 1

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson of R. F. D. No. 5, wishes to thank their many friends for their many acts of kindness and attention paid them during their father's illness and death, and especially Dr. Sams for his untiring efforts. We all appreciated the many beautiful floral offerings.

MARSHILL WINS FROM WEAVER 6-0

End Run by Gramham in Third Period is Only Scoring

Mars Hill, Nov. 26.—Mars Hill won the annual Thanksgiving Day football game from Weaver College here today, 6 to 0, a long end run by Gramham in the third period carrying the ball over Weaver's last chalk mark for the only scoring of the game. A large holiday crowd saw the contest staged annually between the two rivals.

Three attempts at field goals, two by Mars Hill, were made during the first three periods after both teams had been unable to thrust through the lines or any appreciable gains. In the first half Weaver had a slight edge, but with the rain that fell during the second half gave the advantage to Mars Hill with its heavier team.

The rain made the field a sea of mud and numerous fumbles marred the otherwise interesting contest. Both elevens have trouble keeping their hands on the ball, and were forced to almost resort to straight football in place of aerial attacks at which both are rather proficient.

After coming down the field with a series of line bucks and end runs, Gramham got away from Weaver's end to carry the ball 20 yards and across the goal line for the winning touch-down. Ward failed in his attempt to add the extra point.

Lyda, on the offense, and Carpenter on the defense were the outstanding stars for Weaver, while Tripp, Edwards and Gramham featured for Mars Hill.

The line-up and summary: Weaver: Jordan, L. e.; Kinberly, l. t.; Carpenter, l. g.; Croy, c.; Weaver, r. g.; Bartlett, r. t.; Hampton, r. e.; Lyda, q. b.; Dean, l. h.; Tuttle, r. h.; Hayes, f. b.; Mars Hill: Ward, l. e.; Owen, l. t.; Baber, l. g.; Carter, c.; Dockery, r. g.; Satterfield, r. t.; Myers, r. e.; Cook, q. b.; Gramham, l. h.; Edwards, r. h.; Winecoff, f. b. PRINCE OF WALES NOW HEADS MASONIC LODGE

London, Eng.—Two members of the royal house are taking active posts in Masonry, according to recent announcements. The Prince of Wales, Past Senior Grand Warden of the United Grand Lodge of England, has just been installed as Worshipful Master of Magdalen Lodge for the ensuing year. Magdalen was the college at which the Prince studied during his time at Oxford and the institution celebrates its jubilee this year.

The Viscount Lascelles, present Senior Grand Warden, is to be the first Master of a lodge shortly to be consecrated at Wetherby, Yorkshire.

It is well in making a cross-examination to be reasonably sure of the answer before asking a question. Otherwise there may result the predicament of the man whose little daughter was asked by a visitor which member of the family she liked best. "Mother," said the child, their many friends for their "Who next?" "Little sister." "Who next?" "Auntie." The father, who was sitting in a mother's illness and death, and especially Dr. Sams for his untiring efforts. We all appreciated the many beautiful floral offerings.

ON MY CONDUCT WITH THE LADIES

By EDGAR A. GUEST

I am not blind to beauty but I'm married, lovely charmer, so Although my eyes I do not shut My rapture I don't plainly show.

Out in the open I will chat In tones which everyone may hear, I will be courteous and all that, But I'll not whisper in your ear!

You are a vision fair to see; There's beauty in your neck and arms, But with you, lady, I won't sit Behind a sheltering bank of palms.

Those radiant charms I recognize, You are a vision fair to see; But I'm a married man and wise, I know your charms are not for me.

Is my wife jealous? I can't say. In me she takes a little pride, But this I'll venture, anyway, I think she could be if she tried.

LARGE STILL CAPTURED

On Monday morning, November 23, a large copper still was taken near the Tennessee line, below Hot Springs.

The raid was led by Federal prohibition officer C. N. Jarvis of Mars Hill. He was assisted by Chief of Police Ramsey of Hot Springs and F. C. Haynie of Mars Hill.

When the officers approached the still was in operation. Three men were at the still, and were arrested and taken to Marshall and put in jail.

The officers estimated that there was enough beer to make two hundred gallons of whiskey. This was destroyed and also seventeen large fermenters, two hundred fruit jars and several kegs.

This was the largest still that has been taken in Madison County for several years.

The people of Mars Hill are pleased with the work Mr. Jarvis is doing. He has been very successful in the work, and is surely doing his very best to enforce the prohibition law.

Cost Frocks Rival the Two-Piece Mode

Cost frocks and other tailored models are usurping the place of the plain two-piece suits in the regard of many women. If one requires a variety plain street dress it may be found, and an example of it is pictured here.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT'S COLUMN

Edited by O. S. DILLARD

It was a source of regret that we were unable to give our regular weekly school news to the press last week, but unforeseen things happened that prevented getting it ready for the press. We hope that it will be possible to get this report in every week AS THROUGH IT we hope to acquaint the readers of the RECORD of what the school system is doing in the County.

The County Board of Education met in call session on the 16th inst. to consider applications for loans from the Special Building Fund which the last session of the legislature provided to be loaned to the counties for the purpose of building school houses. The first action of the Board was to approve and recommend a county wide plan of school organization for the entire county. Applications were approved for a new school building at Marshall, one at Middle Fork and one at Spring Creek, one in Number Fourteen Township, near Center and an addition to the Mars Hill Building which is already overcrowded. With buildings such as the Board recommends for these places, Madison County would begin to take rank with other parts of the state.

The following resolution was prepared by the Board and presented to the Commissioners for their indorsement:

"Whereas, the laws of North Carolina have defined the High Schools as a part of the public school system of the state, and whereas, the State Board of Education and the courts have interpreted this to mean that the County Boards of Education MUST provide adequate high school instruction for all the children of the County; And, whereas, A great number of the children of Madison are without such advantages, and, whereas, the wealth of a great number of these districts is such that the districts are unable to provide suitable buildings and equipment for high school instruction or the six months' term, without a tax rate that would be exorbitant and prohibitive thus making it impossible for children in said districts to get advantages of high schools:

THEREFORE: BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS OF MADISON COUNTY, THAT It is the sense of this Board that the building of school houses and equipping same is a matter of county obligation rather than a district;

That funds be provided to erect and equip a sufficient number of high schools as will meet the requirements of the law governing same, upon the recommendation of the County Board of Education.

of Madison County. 3. in order to make the burdens fair and equitable, that all notes, bonds, etc. Herefore made and executed by the local districts, be assumed by the Board of County Commissioners that levies be included each year in the annual school budget presented by the Board of Education to care for meet these obligations as they become due, as is provided in sec. 175 b of the Public School laws of 1925.

4th. That we approve applications for loans from the Special Building Fund, indorsed by the County Board of Education, for the purpose of carrying out the spirit of the law and this resolution, and that levies to care for same be made in the school budget presented annually to the commissioners for their approval.

5th. That copies of these resolutions be signed by the Chairman and secretary and entered upon the minutes of the Board of Commissioners and a copy given to the Board of Education or its records."

After much discussion, Board of Commissioners postponed action on the matter until further time for study. The Board then adjourned to meet on Thursday, November 19th, for final action.

The Board of Commissioners met on Thursday, and voted these resolutions down, and refused to approve any of the applications or loans on the basis of the county unit plan.

The County Board of Education has presented a plan to the county commissioners that is fair and just. It has presented a plan that will provide for all the children of the county. It has presented the only plan that will do for this. In no other way can the proper districts of the county ever have schools except at the expense of the county.

The Board of Education maintains this position that the children of one section of the county has the same right to adequate elementary high school advantages as another. It further maintains that no one district or township has the right to draw a line around the corporate wealth of the county, and say that we will use this wealth of the county, and say that we will use this wealth for the benefit of a few of the children of the county, regardless of whether it benefits all the children it should.

The Board of Education has mapped out a plan. The responsibility of the future education of the county rests upon the shoulders of the County Commissioners. We believe that after more fully considering the matter that they will measure up to the office they occupy.
