

FINE MEETING AT GRAND VIEW

The fifth Sunday meeting held at Grand View Church Saturday, May 29, proved to be a splendid gathering. Brother L. J. Ammons, the Moderator of the meeting, was present and as usual, held the speakers pretty closely to the program. After the devotional exercises, which were to be led by Rev. Cecil Reece, "The Problems of the French Broad Association" were ably discussed by President R. L. Moore of Mars Hill College. His speech was a vigorous "call to action." L. C. Roberts, the beloved pastor of the church, in his usual earnest manner, discussed "The Things That Hinder the Lord's Kingdom." In the absence of Miss Alma Williams, her father, Rev. Mr. Williams, discussed the B. Y. P. U. what the organization stands for—its object and purpose. "What We Teach in the B. Y. P. U." was well spoken to by Mr. Burnett, a graduate of the past session at Mars Hill and son of one of the prominent members of Grand View. Miss Lizzie Jarvis, who was to have spoken on this, was not present.

REV. A. D. KINNETT
now preaching at the Marshall Baptist church every morning at 10 o'clock and every evening at 8:00 o'clock. Beginning last Monday evening, his congregation has steadily increased every service and he is proving to be a very interesting speaker.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

Ladies and Gentlemen:
I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the action of the Republican Primary of June 5, 1926.

GARRETT BUCKNER

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER TO THE VOTERS OF MADISON COUNTY

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the action of the Republican Primary of June 5, 1926.

If nominated and elected, I promise to serve the people to the very best of my ability.

Thanking you for your support, I am
Yours to serve,
JOHN E. BRYAN

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER TO THE VOTERS OF MADISON COUNTY

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Commissioner, subject to the action of the Republican Primary of June 5, 1926.

If nominated and elected, I promise to serve the people to the best of my ability.

Thanking you for your support, I am

Yours to serve,

LUTHER J. LUNSFORD,
Barnard, N. C.

FOR TAX COLLECTOR

TO THE VOTERS OF MADISON COUNTY

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Tax Collector, subject to the action of the Republican Primary of June 5, 1926.

GROVER C. REDMON

Following this an intermission of a- Get into the Every Day Life of Our Boys and Girls." We regret we were unable to attend the Sunday meeting and have no report of it but we suppose it was carried out as printed on the ground" was much enjoyed.

In the afternoon, after devotional exercises, H. L. Story, at the request of the Moderator, mentioned some "marks of an efficient church." Rev. W. H. Hooker then very ably presented his topic, "How We May Realize the Leading of the Holy Spirit." Rev. Phil Elliott of Mars Hill and a former beloved pastor at Marshall, spoke very effectively on the subject. "Tow To aid." So Brown took a course in first Is he good at it? "A little hasty sometimes. A man throw a glass of water in his face."

What a laborious amount of brain work was saved by the little darky who, having listened to a long tirade against himself, replied: "All 'em 'ings you say I is, you is 'em—Ex.

TO THE VOTERS GENTLEMEN AND LADIES:

On June the 5th, please remember the widow, who is without relatives. No father, mother, brother, sister, nor grand-parents. All are dead.

No one to look to for support.

Without income, without means of support.

Read my sworn statement about the insurance, and other things mentioned in circular.

When all my obligations are paid I will have something like $300.00 of the insurance money.

I only ask for the office this term. It will mean more to me than six terms after this.

If elected to the office of Tax Collector, I shall give it my undivided attention throughout the entire term, the last day as well as the first. You will find me always, as nearly so as possible, in my office, thereby causing the people no delay when they come in to pay their tax.

When you vote for me you are doing that much toward keeping a boy in school.

Place your own wife or mother in my place, if they were left as I have been.

I thank you for your vote in advance.

MRS. ANNIE MAY WHITE

FOR SOLICITOR

19TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

I will appreciate your support in the primary of June 5, 1926, for the nomination of Solicitor of the 19th Judicial District. If nominated and elected will do my utmost to perform duties of this responsible office.

R. M. WELLS

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

After being requested by so many of my friends from different sections of the County, I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Commissioner subject to the Republican primary to be held June 5th, 1926. If nominated and elected I will endeavor, to the very best of my ability to serve the people of all sections of the County.

I have had four years' experience as County Commissioner and 2 years of that time as Chairman. I believe that I understand the details of the office and know how the business of the office should be handled.

Thanking you all for your support in the past and asking for your vote and influence in the coming Primary,

I am,

Yours to serve,

JONAS C. CHANDLER

FOR SOLICITOR

ELLIS C. JONES, solicits again your support for Solicitor in the Democratic Primary, June 5th. He ran second highest among four candidates four years ago and could have called a second primary, but withdrew in the interest of party harmony. His friends believe he is entitled to the nomination this time.

Mr. Jones fought your battles on the fields of France. When you cast your vote, think of the time he lost and the suffering he endured during the World War.

He is a young man of high character—a graduate of Mars Hill College—Madison County's great light-house to the World. He is also a graduate of Wake Forest College; studied law at this great institution and is a worthy son of this institution.

Mr. Jones married a Madison County girl. The people of Madison County have always been loyal to her sons and daughters. Frequent change in office and keeping an office close to the people is the hope of a Democracy.

Vote for Ellis C. Jones in the Democratic Primary, June 5th. Every Democrat is urged to go to the polls.

ELLIS C. JONES Campaign Committee

FOR SHERIFF

TO THE VOTERS OF MADISON COUNTY:

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Madison County, subject to the Republican primary to be held June 5, 1926. If nominated and elected I will endeavor, by the help and cooperation of the good people of the county, to enforce the laws and execute the duties of this office in a fair and impartial manner. Thanking you for your support in the past and asking for your vote and influence in the coming Primary.

WILLARD C. RESTOR