FLIES FROM NEW YORK TO PARIS, FRANCE

LINDBERGH, AMERICAN AVIATOR, SWATHED IN GLORY OF WORLD OVER DARING FEAT

3800 MILES OVER THE AT- LANTIC OCEAN IN 33 1/2 HOURS WITHOUT A STOP

JUST 25 YEARS OLD. HIS MOTHER A WIDOW OF A CONGRESSMAN AND TEACHER OF CHEMISTRY IN HIGH SCHOOL

Captain Charles Lindbergh, a modest 25-year old boy brought down the glory of the world upon himself last week by flying all alone across the Atlantic Ocean from New York to Paris—a distance of about 3800 miles, making the entire flight without a stop in 33 1-2 hours. The story of this daring bird of the air and the glory of his success has made the most thrilling story carried by the press in the history of the world. While others no doubt in the future will fly farther and faster, their glory will be second or common place to that of Lindbergh. He left New York last Friday at 7:52 A. M., and arrived in Paris Saturday night. The French people and notables of all nations showered congratulations and honors upon him. Arriving safe, his first thought was of his mother and asked that she be cabled at once, and her first thought was of his comfort and asked that he rest. After ten hours of sleep and rest he phoned his mother that he was safely there and feeling fine. Besides the glory of the feat he and his mother have been proffered fabulous sums of money as movie stars and in various ways. Fortune smiled upon them in glory and in wealth, but she modestly teaches on, giving her son all the glory. This event has meant much in reviving good feeling between the French and American people.

From CARMEN

A number of our Carmen young people had a part in the Health Program held at Laurel Hospital last Thursday afternoon, May 12th. The occasion was National Hospital Day and a large number of Laurel people were there to witness the very interesting and instructive program. Those who took part on the program were: Flossie King, Mamie Hensley, Anna May Shelton, Jemima Cutshall, Ralph Hensley, John D. Shelton, and James Dewey Shelton, Junior.

Besides songs, recitations and plays by the children of White Rock and vicinity, letters were read from Dr. Packard, formerly of Laurel Hospital, also one from Dr. Locke—at present in charge, but at this time attending a Doctors Convention in New York. Both sent greetings and best wishes to the Laurel people.

An interesting feature of the program was the "Baby Contest," at which judges could not come to a decision as to which baby was the prettiest, and so it was decided to give each baby a prize. The judges were Miss Ollie Hendricks, Mrs. Ramsey, both of Revere, and Miss Maud Jones of Carmen. Each baby in contest was awarded a pretty pink or blue baby blanket, and of course each mother decided her own baby was the prettiest.

There were 18 children present at the Children's Meeting in Carmen last Saturday, May 7th, and a group picture was taken.

A good Women's Meeting was held here last Friday, May 13th, although some were kept at home planting corn. Those present were Mrs. Nan-cie E. Shelton, Mrs. Charley Hensley, Mrs. Billie Shelton, Mrs. Sarah Shelton, Mrs. Donald Haney, Mrs. Fullon King, Mrs. Broit Shelton, and Mrs. Lauren Shelton, also three children, Cleophas Shelton, Troy Shelton and Hirschell Shelton. A pretty blue and white quilt is in progress and a reading on "The Work in China," was given by Miss Mabel Jones.

As last week was "Health Week," the Carmen children repeated their "health" recitations at Carmen Sunday School last Sunday and reminded us to keep the "temples of God" fit for our best work in the world.

We are having good attendance at Carmen Sunday School, but there are others whom we need to join us. Come and help us by your presence and interest.

The Sunday School at Alleghany has been very encouraging the past few Sunday afternoons. Keep up the good work and bring others with you. Most of our Carmen people have finished planting corn and some have corn ready to hoe.

We are hoping this cool snap will not turn into frost and hurt the crops.

DORLAND BELL SCHOOL CLOSES

The closing exercises of the Dorland Bell School at Hot Springs took place Wednesday. The afternoon program, an operetta with dances, was held on the lawn of the school. At 7:30, the Senior Class play "Old Lady 31" was presented by the 16 girls in the graduating class. The play was well done and much enjoyed. Following the play were two vocal solos by Miss Mary E. Frick, two piano solos by Miss Alena Bur-gin, two vocal solos by Mrs. Charles Burgin, and a piano duet by Miss Helen Rockwell and Miss Annie L. McGregor.

Mr. Ira Plimmons then presented his $5.00 in gold to Miss Grace Ford for the best all round accomplish-ment and the faculty presented Miss Lois Baker $5.00 in gold for the best scholarship. After the class song by the Senior Class, the benediction was pronounced by Rev. W. Bruce Doyle.

The following graduated:
Helen E. Angel, Lois Gail Baker, Agnes Elizabeth Brooks, Docia Velma Buckner, Annie Lee Davis, Minnie Lee Huey, Mottelle W. Irby, Katherine Alice Johnson, Nelle D. M. Johnson, Alma P. Lollar, Corra Lee Randall, Mamie Geneva Roberts, Evangeline Eloise Shelton, Annie S. Tweed, Roxie Louise Tweed, Amanda Watts.

The fall term will begin September 7.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF DORLAND-BELL

The Commencement Exercises of the Dorland-Bell School, Hot Springs, N. C., were held Wednesday, May 25th. The Operetta, "MARINKA," was given on the school lawn. The

There are two kinds of dancing folks clearly taught in the Bible and Testament. One danced with praise to God. The other gave the Devil the praise.

We notice the Psalmist David in his writing in different places speaks of the dance—Ps. 149:3. Ps. 150:4 teaches us to praise Him in the dance and praise Him with the timbrel and dance. In II Sam. 6:14, David danced in praise to God. On the other hand, we notice the 32nd chapter of Exodus where Moses had gone up on Mt. Sinai and received the two tables of stone written on both sides, the Testimony of God. Returned to find that Aaron had made a golden calf for the people to worship. The Devil had those Israelites out dancing for him and his cause. Again notice the 6th chapter of Mark, where the daughter of Herodias danced to please Herod on his birthday. What was the reward for this dance? The head of John the Baptist was requested which was granted and brought forth in a charger. That great man, the forerunner of Christ who was sent to prepare the way for our Saviour and Redeemer, Jesus Christ. The reward of the Israelites for their idol worship was the death of 3000 souls. Moses asked the question, "Who is on the Lord's side?" The answer came from three thousand souls, "We are not ready." First Corinthians 10:31 reads, "Whether therefore ye eat or drink or whatsoever ye do, do all to the Glory of God."

Ps. 34:1, David says, I will bless the Lord at all times. His praise shall continually be in my mouth.

To anyone who believes in dancing, that is, church members who have been truly regenerated and born of the Spirit of God, can you go to the dance hall, theatre or the home of someone, dance, and in that give God the praise and glory according to the Scriptures just quoted? Can you meet at the place where people meet for the purpose of dance and engage with them? And have the love of God burning in your soul?

Church member, if you were called on to pray for or help lead some dying sinner to Christ, while you were engaged in the dance, do you think that you would feel much like the job?

Christ says in His word that "ye are the light of the world," "a city that is set on a hill that cannot be hid." Have you ever let your light shine for God at the dance?

Professors, the old Bible as I understand it, teaches us to dance only in praise and honor to God. If this is the purpose of those enjoying it I heartily endorse the meeting. Should meet oftener. If you should find that it is no place to serve God, and you cannot invite Jesus with a clear conscience to go with you, you had better seriously think on this subject.

Timothy, 3rd chapter and 4th verse teaches that in the last days men will be lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, therefore the places of vain amusement has the greater power to draw folks than the kingdoms work. Dancing might be considered good for muscular exercise.

God says there is a time to all things, not for all things. If we need muscular exercise, there are many ways of taking it aside from the devil's way, (the modern dance.)

As we understand the modern way of dancing is very much calculated to have an influential leading that will name and virtue of many innocent girls, and have caused the separation of hundreds of thousands of men and their wives.

I didn't think that I would try to write so lengthy on this subject. Just one other thing I wish to say, that is that there is a way whereby we may know as to whether dancing is sinful or not. Jesus Christ says that, "I am the way." If all professors will get in this way, consecrating their lives the very best they can in God's service, endeavoring to lead lost souls to Christ and obey the impressions of the Holy Spirit, the spirit of the omnipotent, omniscient and omnipresent God will say to us, keep away from the places of dancing. Then I am sure that no one would ever ask the Editor of the News-Record to print anything that would justify any of the many evils of today. I say this without fear of all successful contradiction.

IS DANCING SINFUL?

With best wishes,
WILLIE B. METCALF

I pledge the kiss
Whose poignant bliss
Comes from a microbe, so they say.
A microbe,—ho!
If that is so
He tickles in a pleasant way.

"And faith"—says I,
"If man must die
Of microbe that or microbe this
I'll gladly slip
The fatal lip,
And take my microbe in a kiss."

RICE BOYS AND KING SET AT LIBERTY BY JUSTICE OF PEACE

SUPERIOR COURT IN MARSHALL

Superior Court convened in Marshall Monday, Judge Shaw presiding. Mr. J. S. Brown of Waverly was made foreman of the grand jury and Mr. C. N. Jervis was appointed as the sworn officer to carry papers. More than a hundred criminal cases were on docket. Many of them were continued. Quite a number of liquor cases were disposed of. A large part of Tuesday and Wednesday were taken up with a homicide case on Laurel. No judgments have been rendered as we go to press and we will wait till next week to give the court proceedings.

DR. ARTHUR PRITCHARD DEAD

Unexpectedly and suddenly Dr. Arthur Pritchard died in Asheville Thursday morning about 4:00 o'clock. His Brother, Attorney Geo. Pritchard was in Marshall attending court when a wire from Mr. Thos. Rollins, a brother-in-law, of Asheville announced the shocking news. Dr. Pritchard is a well known surgeon in Asheville, to whom most of Madison County's sick have been going for operations, etc. Marshall is grieved at the loss of this great man.

REVIVAL TO BEGIN IN MARSHALL

A revival series of meetings will begin at the Marshall Baptist church June 12. Rev. Samuel T. Hensley, a former pastor, and now of High Point, will assist the pastor, Rev. H. L. Smith. The singing will be under the direction of Mr. John Holmes of Mars Hill College.

SPORT COLUMN

MARSHALL LOSES THE SECOND GAME OF THE SEASON TO MARS HILL

In a loosely played and many error game, Marshall lost to Mars Hill last Saturday on the Mars Hill ground to the tune of 6-2.

This game was not lost by the loose playing of any one man; it was lost by the errors of nine men—every man on the team making one or more errors.

Mars Hill made most of their scores in the first and second innings. Then Tipton, who was pitching, was taken out and "Old Reliable," "Snake" Carver was put in to stop the grand march, which he promptly did with a few of his specials.

Paul Bruce, for Mars Hill, hit the only home run of the game, kissing one over the fence in the 1st or 2nd inning.

The Marshall team was only in a slump Saturday, and the fans and patriotic rooters of our team are still backing it to the limit.

BULL CREEK V. FLAT CREEK

A very interesting game of ball was played on the M. H. S. ground Saturday, May 21st. The game started with S. Rogers pitching for Flat Creek, and C. Briggs for Bull Creek. The score was 0-0 until the second inning. G. Buckner got a single hit, stole second, then S. Edwards came up for a homer which made 2 scores for Bull Creek. Flat Creek ran in 2 scores in the third inning. The scores ran this way the rest of the afternoon, ending 6-5 for Flat Creek. This is the second game that Bull Creek has lost.

BULL CREEK V. CALIFORNIA

Bull Creek and California Creek played the second game on M. H. S. ground, Saturday, May 21. After playing one game they went up against the second team. The game started and ended with G. Merrell pitching for Bull Creek and E. Harkins for California Creek. This was a very close game, but Bull Creek lost to California before and were determined to win. "Hook-arm" Merrell pitched a very fast game, scores ending 12-11 for Bull Creek. The star players for the afternoon were L. Edwards, G. Merrell, F. Corn, each knocking a home run.

SAM MOORE FAILS TO IDENTIFY

The completion of the preliminary trial of Chester King, Wiley Rice and Chester Rice, before C. M. Gage, J. P., took place last Saturday afternoon at the court house in Marshall. As the Solicitor could not be here he had secured the services of Mr. C. R. Mashburn to represent the State. Sam Moore, whose house had been attacked and the State's chief witness, went on the stand and swore that the three young men above named were guilty of the charges heretofore described in this paper. He swore that he knew these boys at sight and his description of the criminal attack upon "his wife" was most realistic and revolting. He described how they went to his house after dark, made improper proposals to his wife in his presence, and when the old man and woman left the house, the boys attacked them on the outside, ravished and stripped the woman and left her, making it necessary for her to go to a neighbor's to spend the night improperly dressed. To hear his sworn testimony and have him swear that he personally knew the three boys and that the above three were the ones, made an observer feel quite sure that those three boys were headed straight for the electric chair. His attorneys, Messrs. Guy V. Roberts, J. Coleman Ramsey and John H. McElroy, insisted that the witness identify his wife's assailants. To this the State's attorney objected. The objection was sustained until a law book was brought which seemed to prove that it would be necessary for Sam Moore to point out the boys. One would have thought that he would have no trouble in doing this after his sworn declarations as to how well he knew them. Up to this point, Sam Moore had made a much better witness than had been expected. His language was fairly correct and his mind clear. He was not easily confused and it began to look as if these three boys were doomed. However, when the court finally asked him to identify the boys among others, he stood and looked them over as if he did not wish to point them out and finally pointed out two, calling the King boy Wiley Rice and calling another boy sitting near them one of the three, failing completely to identify either one of the three boys. One strange part of it was that he pointed out the same boy that his "wife" had pointed out the first day of the trial—a boy who had no charge against him.

While the court ruled that they had sufficient cause to hold the three boys, for trial when Sam Moore made such a fiasco in identifying the boys, the court ruled that the boys be set at liberty.

As to the party or parties who had bought Sam Moore's conscience against swearing against the boys, he claimed the money was given him in the dark and he would not say who gave it to him. He claimed that the donor gave him the money because he needed it, having been not able to work.

This seems to end a mysterious case, the like of which this writer has not known before nor ever expects to know again.
