A SERIOUS ACCIDENT

We were all sorry to hear of the accident that occurred at Doe Branch last Sunday night, Colonel Leland

Payne and Lieutenant Lowell Fortner were coming home from a visit to Capt. Tom Roberts. The night was very dark and at Mrs. Anderson's the horse ran into a sled which caused him to get scared and both of them were thrown. Part of Mrs. Anderson's corn was badly damaged by the fall. The accident was not fatal except the scare. As a result they could neither report to duty next morning because of having to carry the remains of the saddle home.

PRINCESS THEATRE MARSHALL, N. C.

Now Open Playing the Pick of the Pictures

"The Sea Beast," the spectacular Warner picture starring John Barrymore, will open at the Princess Theatre Monday and Tuesday, July 18th and 19th. This picture ranks among the few truly great photoplays ever filmed.

John Barrymore gives a thrillingly perfect and powerfully moving performance in the role of Ahab Ceeley, a harpooner of the days of 1840 when the whaling industry supplied adventure romance for young men who followed the sea. This picture is based on "Moby Dick," written by Herman Melville and adapted to the screen by Bess Meredyth.

Dolores Costello gives a finely finished performance as the girl whom both brothers love and George O'Hara as the younger brother whose jealousy almost ruins the life of Ahab is vividly convincing.

"The Sea Beast," directed by Millard Webb, is a stirring, beautiful and gripping production, and John Barrymore has never done anything on the screen that equals the power of his latest characterization.

New England Atmosphere With 1926 Improvements

ANY one who has ever motored through the quiet sleepy towns of New England has fallen in love with the small houses that abound in that section of the country—neat, white, unpretentious and with a touch of reserve about them. Just such a house is the one pictured here. It is equally adaptable for town or country, and by merely shifting the living and entrance porches around row lot without spoiling its architectural...

WILLIAMS—BAIRD

Miss Lexine Williams of Asheville, and Dr. John Baird of Mars Hill were quietly married Thursday evening at the home of the bride on Orange Street in Asheville. Only a few of the close relatives and friends of the contracting couple were present and the happy event came as a complete surprise to their host of friends in this part of the state. They left immediately after the ceremony for a month's tour of the South after which they will be at home in Mars Hill.

MRS. W. T. THOMAS DEAD

Mrs. Wm. T. Thomas, age 66, of Big Laurel, died at her home Friday, July 1, 1927, about eleven o'clock in the morning. She had suffered for years from tuberculosis but had been quite sick for several months. Funeral services were held at the Franklin Graveyard, where she was buried. She is survived by three brothers: All Gunter of Madison County, Joseph Gunter and George A. Gunter of Tennessee; one sister, Mrs. Clark Cook of Big Laurel. She is survived by her husband and six children as follows: Cas Thomas, Van Thomas, Elijah Thomas, Mrs. Dora Cook of Madison County, Mrs. Dannie Cook of Tennessee, and Mrs. Lillie Franklin of Madison County.

CARD OF THANKS

The family wishes to thank the good people of the community for their many kindnesses during Mrs. Thomas' sickness and death.

An Irishman employed at the San Pedro shipyards, according to Charles M. Schawb, had taken a day off without permission and seemed likely to lose his place in consequence. When asked by the foreman why he hadn't shown up the day before, the man replied: "I was so ill, sir that I couldn't have come to work to save my life."

"How was it then, Pat that I saw you pass the factory on your bicycle yesterday morning?" growled the foreman.

"For a moment Pat was slightly take aback, but regaining his presence of mind, replied: "Sure, soor, but that must have been when I was going for the doctor."

"I've noticed that a man always takes to drinking just before, or after his girl quits him." "JO. Henry "They say this man who is singing now had a narrow escape from death yesterday."

"What a pity!" Stage-struck Wife— I wish I could get a chance to sing in public. "Bo. and Hus. and—Then why not join the Salvation Army?"

yet. And none better to come. Jack Ramsey says a single man can't tell much about women. And a married man is afraid to. We sure have got the best lines of Toilet Articles ever made. Come in and let us show them. It's a pleasure. John McElroy told us most men do not wake up to find themselves famous. Most of them dream they are famous, then wake up. Before taking a trip see our line of Thermos Bottles. You can't afford to be without one.

If you are troubled with Acid Mouth try Klezno Antiseptic. It's good. By the way, we have a full line of dyes. When you go to dye remember us.
