Just Tottering, So Weak

"I was in a bad state of health and was going through a critical time of my life," says Mrs. Ella Scarborough, R. E. D. 5, Dothan, Ala. "Several different things were recommended to me, but I did not get any real relief until I began to take Cardui.

"I was just as weak as could be. My legs were shaky, and often I would just totter around the house. I finally got so bad that I was in bed several weeks.

"It was then that I began to take Cardui. I kept it up for quite a while, and at last I regained my health. Cardui was certainly a friend to me in time of need.

"My health is splendid now, and I seldom have to use medicine, but I gladly say a word about Cardui whenever I find a friend going through the same suffering which I endured."

MEMORIES OF MOTHER

What is home without a mother, these words we hear repeated, And love our mother more each day, when we have been mistreated, A mothers love will go so far, no other love can reach,

We can't express a mothers love by any human speech, For she would give her own dear life to rescue from despair, A child of hers who'd gone astray and wandered here and there,

A fathers love is fine I know when fathers love is true, But I can't speak of fathers love for this I never knew;

He left our home when I was young, he wandered to and fro, They say for me he never cared and sometimes I think it's so,

For when he left he ne'er returned to show to me his love, But me sometimes, I hope will meet in that fair home above,

The cruel was his life while here, he had to leave his state, Perhaps he led this life elsewhere and it has been his fate,

For years and years he wandered off and never came back home, While mothers work was most severe she toiled here all alone,

My mother's love I can't forget she's always been my friend, She's been a mother kind and dear and will be to the end,

Can I forget the toil and cares, the tears my mother shed, No never will I this forget until I'm numbered with the dead,

Of all the deeds I ever did there's none could be too kind, To give to dear old mother whom father left behind,

When in that day we all are judged, will father be up there, Around the blessed throne of God where no one knows a care,

TREATMENT FOR CUTS, ETC.

To treat a wound properly it must be made clean and kept so. It does not matter whether the wound is made by the cut of a sharp knife, the tear of a piece of tin or the rip of a rusty nail, cleanliness is the secret of immediate and complete healing. Boiled water is about the best antiseptic the average layman has to apply when treating such wounds.

After cleaning the parts thoroughly, they should be dried and some means employed to close the wound. This may be done with a narrow strip of adhesive plaster, but the entire wound should not be covered with it. Place the plaster crosswise with a good drainage on either side of it. When the wound has been properly closed it should be bandaged. In the absence of sterilized water and gauze use the cleanest water possible and a clean handkerchief. In case of the more severe wounds get the patient to a doctor after first aid has been rendered. There is always danger of blood poisoning if wounds are not properly cleaned.

A CRITIC OR A BOOSTER?

By Mrs. Julia Ramsey

Are we a critic or a booster? Do we really love the community in which we live? Or do we think we would be better satisfied somewhere else I will confess that I have been so selfish that I have thought that I would like to be off of the road so I would not be bothered with tramps as I used to call them, but really it has become a pleasure to me to feed the hungry for I feel that they are as good as I am and that Jesus never turns a hungry child away. I had rather live here than anywhere on earth I have good neighbors that I feel really love me. If your neighbors are not what you think they ought to be do your bit to make them better. I have a good school to send my children to, and good teachers to teach them, a wonderful good Sunday School to go and take my children to every Sunday. I have a class of little bright eyed boys to teach of which I am very proud, I am poor and have to work but really my work is a joy to me. I never want to get so busy

You see all the road when you drive a Buick

The dreaded "blind spot" is gone forever! In Buick for 1928 closed car front posts are narrowed so that all the road, ahead of you and at the side, is clear.

And thanks to the efficiency of Fisher craftsmanship, these slim corner posts have even greater strength than the type formerly used.

See a Buick for 1928 at the nearest showroom. Get behind the wheel and prove for yourself how clearly you can see all the road from the driver's seat.

but what I can smile at those who pass or try to speak a word of comfort to those who are in trouble.

Friends, when you meet me no difference who you are I want you to feel that you have met your special friend, one that will not criticize you as soon as your back is turned, I am not writing this to get any honor from any one for I do not deserve any.

But I want to do everything to the glory of God. I want to live a life every hour I live that the world might know that I belong to Jesus. The regret of my life is that I have not given my whole life to Jesus. I never did know what real pleasure was until I decided to give my whole life to Jesus. I have so much love for every one that if they have any faults I can hardly see them for love hides a multitude of sins.

Some more things that I have not mentioned. We have a good pastor to preach for us every month and other good preachers that preach for us. A good little town where everyone meets each other with a smile. A good paper to read every week and a good editor to publish it. A good mail carrier to bring it. We have friends to love. A good God to serve, a heaven to win where there will be no tears shed, where we will never have to say good bye to loved ones, for death can not enter there, where we will need no candle or sun for Jesus himself will be our light.

Friends, if you expect to see me when you leave this world you will have to come to heaven for I am on my way.

"I agree with George White that Luckies are the best"

Said Flo Brooks to Lou Holtz while waiting for their cue to appear in "Manhattan Mar."

George White, Producer of George White's Scandals,

"In the days when Luckies have been the most universal. Since you are a critic and a writer must be kept in condition, if most irritation is a handicap. It's George White's Scandals, most actors and actresses whose voices are important smoke Luckies both for voice protection and finer flavor. For these reasons I prefer them, too."

You, too, will find that LUCKY STRIKES give the greatest pleasure—Mild and Mellow, the finest cigarettes you ever smoked. Made of the choicest tobaccos, properly aged and blended with great skill, and there is an extra process—"IT'S TOASTED"—no harshness, not a bit of bite.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

Two DETROITS would fit into "DUNLOP CITY"

Throughout the world the productive Dunlop properties cover so vast an area that—if combined into one place—they would form a "Dunlop City" of over 100,000 acres.

BEFORE Detroit started to make motor-cars, Dunlop had founded the pneumatic tire industry.

Thanks to the automobile, both Detroit and "Dunlop City" have grown tremendously.

Now Detroit reaches out over 52,686 acres, while "Dunlop City" covers over 100,000 acres.

And even greater than the size of "Dunlop City," is Dunlop's world-wide reputation for building uniformly supreme Dunlop Tires.

Supreme quality made possible Dunlop's great size. In turn, Dunlop's great size makes possible this same supreme quality, at lower prices.

You can expect more of Dunlops.
