DEATH OF LITTLE HAZEL BALDING

It was a sad hour when the Death Angel visited the home of S. A. and Euras Balding and took away their darling babe. It was about nine months old when death claimed her. She was sick only a short time, the cause of her death being pneumonia. She leaves a father, mother and one sister, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. We tried in vain to keep her, but Jesus said, it's best to come up here and live, and be forever blessed. The little body was laid to rest in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery on January 8th. We extend our greatest sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Let us all live such lives till we can meet little Hazel over on the streets of gold. Let little children come to me, The loving Saviour said: And in his arms they'll always be, When graves give up the dead.

WEAVERVILLE

(Too late for last week)

Miss Sue Weaver of Honduras, who has been spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Weaver, has sailed for Central America, where she will resume her duties with the United States Government.

Mrs. J. V. Erskine left Thursday morning for South Georgia. During her absence she will also be in Atlanta with her sister whose son is under the care of specialists in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Walsler of High Point, who have been for some time visiting Mrs. Walsler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Reagan, have returned to their home.

Mr. Joe Rogers, who has been very ill with pneumonia and pleurisy as a result of influenza, is reported to be somewhat improved.

Mrs. William Huett Zimmerman entertained the Club for Mutual Improvement, Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. J. N. Gill, as leader of the literary portion of the programme, read a delightful paper on Early English novelists with special attention to the Bronte sisters and to George Eliot. Under the tropic Governmental Administrations and Policies, Mrs. Zimmerman talked in a most interesting manner on the regimes of the women of the White House.

From TENNELINA

(Too late for last week)

The Death Angel visited the home of Mr. Johnnie Gowan December 27th and called home their dearly beloved husband and father. He leaves to mourn their loss his wife, Mrs. Bettie Gowan; six children, Mr. Grover Gowan, Mrs. Ella Wyatt, Mrs. Nona Woodson, Mrs. Dora Holt, and a host of friends and relatives, and also two young sons, Burnett and Ervin Gowan.

He asked his wife not to grieve over his death, for he was ready to go, but we all know she will badly miss him. His health had been poor for several years, but he was in bed only one week and three days before death came.

Hold the fort, for I am coming. Jesus signals still.

Wave the answer back to Heaven, By the Grace we will.

May God bless and save his family is my prayer.
