PICTURE TRAILS BROKEN RECORDS

SCENIC EFFECTS IMMENSE

Twelve Teams in Chariot Race; Sea Fight Provides Thrills on Spectacular Scale

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, in arrangement with A. L. Erlanger, Charles Dillingham and F. Ziegfield, Jr., offers the world's mightiest attraction at the Princess Theatre next Thursday and Friday in the celebrated picture version of "Ben-Hur," to which all New York has crowded for many months, and which equally delighted Chicago, Boston and Philadelphia in as many record-breaking runs. This wonderful picture cost $4,000,000, three years' time and the labors of 150,000 persons in Italy and California.

It culminated in the construction of the gigantic Circus Maximus and race-course of Antioch and in the filming thereon of the thrilling chariot race. Instead of eight horses and the old-time mechanical illusion of the stage show, the new and greater "Ben-Hur" shows twelve teams of four horses.

The details of General Lew Wallace's famous "Tale of the Christ" have been reverently followed. Not only that, the picture heightens the powerful melodramatic and love interest of the play, centering in the four romantic characters of Ben-Hur, Messala, Esther and Iras, created by Elton Novarro, Francis X. Bushman, Mollie McAvoy and Carmel Myers, Adyt.
