BE A SPORT

By Righton Richards

When things go wrong around you, And you get blue every day, Keep smiling, though it hurts you; Be a sport—it will pay. 2— When your friends keep a-teasing, And it doesn't seem quite right, Just remember they don't mean it— Be a sport—don't fight. 3— When everybody's laughing, And you don't feel that way, Be a sport—don't cast shadows; Grib, and show 'em you are gay. 4— When folks are doing everything, And you feel you can't help out— Be a sport and try it anyway— Always be a scout. 5— When rest hour comes and you feel gay, And don't care to lie and rest; Remember not to grumble— Be a sport—that is best. 6— When girls around are happy, And a-makin' all the friends, Be a sport and join the gang— That is when the fun begins. 7— If the sun don't shine so brightly, And the day seems dark and damp, Spread a bit of sunshine— Be a sport—around the camp. 8— Always keep your head up high, Each and every day, See some good in everything— Be a sport—it will pay.
