REUNION

There was a reunion on September first of the J. B. Baldwin heirs. The children, with the exception of three, all met at the old home, near Trust...

May our lives be of such, when time affords us a home here no longer we will again meet papa in the land where we will never grow old.

On Saturday evening, August thirty-first, Mr. Lloyd Baldwin, a grandchild, arrived with a radio, and we had music until twelve o'clock, with several visitors present to listen in at what was being said at various points of our country.

On Sunday morning, the children, with the grandchildren, began to gather with boxes and baskets and at twelve noon hour table was arranged in the shade in the yard, where all gathered around. Brother George Condrety returned thanks, after which all enjoyed ourselves together.

Other visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Homer Bradshaw, Frank Carter, of Ivy; G. H. Condrety, J. H. Davis, Floyd Price, of Trust; Alice Moore, Annie Fleming of Spring Creek; Mr. and Mrs. Theron West and baby, of Leicester, R. 3; M. A. Condrety, Erskine Walker of Marshall, R. 5; Gertrude Scott of Greenville, S. C.; and H. H. Grooms, of Del Rio, Tenn.

There were some beautiful songs by the children and others, then a portion of God's Word was read, and a prayer by Brother Walker.

It seemed to be a day enjoyed by all who were present. Then we took our leave of each other, hoping to gather again next year at a time and place agreed on by the children.

Written by one of the children—ANNIE M. PLEMMONS.

NEWS OF MEADOW FORK SCHOOL

The Meadow Fork school has been getting along just fine.

Most students are in school now. Miss Lillian Taylor has started into school. We are all glad to have her with us.

Mr. Blankenship has visited us this week. We sure were glad to have him visit our school. Hope he will call again some time.

We are all sorry that our revival meeting closed as it did. We sure needed a good meeting, but we all hope that our meeting will start up again some time.

We were all proud of the pastors and extend them many thanks for their Word of God to our people.
