

LOCAL AND PERSONAL
Happenings In and Near Marshall

Mrs. F. A. Dodson and Mrs. C. E. Cline went to Asheville Wednesday morning to see Mr. Dodson, who is recuperating from an operation.
Mr. C. M. Blankenship and Mr. Jasper Ebbs left Wednesday for Raleigh.
Mr. Ed Blackstock and Mr. W. C. Pope of Weaverville were in town Thursday.
The new Model store, opened last Saturday by Mr. Howard Rector, is carrying a very attractive line of new, fresh groceries.
Miss Othalia Silver of Asheville is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Silver, taking her vacation.
Miss Mabel Jones of Carmen, N. C., was in town Wednesday.
Among those who went to Charlotte Tuesday to attend the Republican Convention were Messrs. S. B. Roberts, G. L. McKinney, E. R. Tweed, J. A. Hendricks, Sheriff R. R. Ramsey, Dr. J. H. Hutchins, Dr. Frank Roberts, J. Herschel Sprinkle, Robert Tweed, Lee Tweed, J. Hubert Davis and C. B. Mashburn.
Don't forget to list your property this month.
Marshall Pharmacy is going to give away absolutely free a five-dollar fishing rod or reel to the man or woman, boy or girl who catches the largest bass this season.

Friends of Mr. Oliver Shelton will be interested to know that he is at home again after being in Asheville for several weeks for treatment.

Young Miss Frances Ramsey of Marshall spent last week-end with little Miss Leta Jo Allman near Marshall.

The store of Mr. Z. V. Fisher, which was damaged recently by fire, has been repaired and appears about as attractive as usual. Mr. Fisher is one of Marshall's most popular and accommodating citizens, and deserves a liberal patronage of those who like good things to eat.

One of the most attractive flour displays in Marshall can be seen in the show windows of Mr. A. L. Plemons' grocery store. Mr. Plemons is always on the job and carries a good line of groceries.

Mr. Jack Thompson, who runs a lunch counter and grocery business just across from the Southern Railway station, seems to be making good in Marshall, despite close competition.

Miss Alene Burgin of Hot Springs was the guest Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Sanders.

The Woman's Club of Marshall met Tuesday evening with Mrs. R. S. Ramsey. One of the items of business was the choosing of officers for the next term. The election resulted in the reelection of every officer. Mrs. J. N. West, president of the club, was present and presided.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Jonah Lee Tweed.

The members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. C. E. Sanders.

Bragga—I told my contrary wife where to get off last night.
Dozia—What happened?
Bragga—She rode three blocks farther, just to spite me.

Jokes—John Gage
Current Events—Fields Holcombe
J. P. PRITCHARD, Reporter.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

There will be appropriate Easter services at the Methodist church. Preaching by the pastor. The music will be under the direction of Mrs. Carl Stuart and Miss Wright. S. C. WEATHERLY, Pastor.

Last warning! If you have not made up your mind to see "BEADS ON A STRING," at Marshall High School, Friday, April 18 at 7:45, you will miss the opportunity of seeing ten years from your present age.
"Ab" Dinkler is an artist in true detective style. If you are in financial trouble, "Bennie" will give you an idea of how to make half a million; if your fiancé is missing, "Molly" will show you how to locate him.
Whatever your worries this play will help you overcome them.

Attention, sportsmen! A five-dollar rod or reel will be given free to the person catching the largest trout this season. This offer is made by the Marshall Pharmacy.

Accident Tourney Opens
Odds Up on Sliver-proof Glass Chariots
Milk Fed Pedestrians Bring Good Prices

By E. W. Melson

DOUBLE BREASTED suits of cast iron, lined with chrome sole leather, will be worn by the well dressed motorist this spring. We have had our ear to the ground. Paris advices decreeing knickers will be entirely ignored, if not openly snickered at, by the 26,634,210 car owners who will take the road this spring prepared to avenge dents in the radiator, abrasions of the fender and contusions of the gas tank, suffered in last year's road tourney.
The jousting this year will be very gay and jovial. Cars will be matched by weights, and all collisions will be carefully refereed by cheering spectators, selected for their agility, who will report round by round to the Workmen's Compensation Bureau. No head on gouging will be permitted except by cars equipped with scatter-proof glass and caterpillar tires. Armored tanks are taboo, except by agreement between the contestants. Tanks are too safe for the drivers and last year's accidents from this source were so low as to be laughable.
The prizes to be awarded by the casualty companies this year are about the same as last:
Complete Dislocation Right Elbow $50.00
Partial Fracture Floating Rib 25.00
Well Mashed Toes (Large or Small) 12.50
Shin Bruises from Cranking 8.95
Kicked by Horse 4.75
Bookmakers are quoting heavy odds on cars equipped with scatter-proof glass. In last year's jousting many contestants were unseated by flying slivers. This year, those who are still driving old style cars may obtain asbestos umbrellas from the State Conservation Commission. This umbrella, invented by a Jugoslavian cab driver, will stand a heavy shower of glass and permit its owner to compete with newer jousting cars fitted with splinter-proof glass.
The contest will run from April until October and will be under the auspices of the Adhive Tape & Plaster Association and the Auto Accessory and Garage Repairmen.

Pedestrians are looking forward with eager anticipation to the yearly festival. Their suits will be made of special alloy. Casualty companies have announced that they will pay $5,000 for the hands and feet of choice, milk fed, pedestrians, or $2,500 for either leg. There will be prizes for all and the winner on points will be given a steel engraving of Mussolini on his horse. Chambers of Commerce are urged to get behind this movement and have a Mardi-Gras in every community.

"HIGH SOCIETY BLUES"

"High Society Blues", co-starring the screen's most famous sweethearts, Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, is an intimate, infectious musical romance reminiscent of their recent success, "Sunny Side Up", and will be presented at the Plaza Theatre, in Asheville, N. C., during the entire week of April 21st.

In "High Society Blues", Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell figuratively pick up where they left off in "Sunny Side Up". For in this latest Fox Movietone musical romance, these two popular players sing, dance and make merry from the opening sequence to the last fade-out. And, of course, they fall in love, as recklessly and delightfully as it is possible to imagine. But their romance is not all smooth sledding. For the respective families of these impetuous lovers are not on speaking terms, not by any matter of means. All of which doesn't seem to bother Janet and Charles very much. They're young and in love and, what's more, they are out to show the whole world that true love knows no obstacles. And so every time things go wrong and the families become a bit more violent than usual Farrell armed himself with his trusty ukulele and goes serenading. And, if you know your Charles Farrell, you also know that he makes a good job of it. Especially when Janet herself, to put it mildly, is more than willing to listen.
David Butler, who directed Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell in "Sunny Side Up", also directed "High Society Blues".

DO SNAKES HAVE VOICES?

No snake has a voice in the generally accepted sense of that term as applied to animals and human beings. Naturalists do not credit the reports of snakes that bleat like a deer, purr like a cat, cough like a monkey, or make other vocal sounds. Some species of snakes, such as the boa constrictors, pythons and the little American puffing adders, are able to make a hissing noise, which is produced by the air rushing from the throat when the lungs are deflated. This, according to the Smithsonian Institution, is the only "voice" possessed by snakes. Rattlesnakes make the rattling noise by vibrating the tips of their tails.

Hail! Hail! the gang's all here, everybody happy.—We've found a new way to enjoy an evening. Like the man in the circus, Miss Casey says—"Awright—everybody, step this way—only 15 and 25c. Come see Ab the great "defector," Uncle Ben the millionaire; Mr. Davis a financial wizard; Mrs. Davis, who turns a son into a daughter; Jeanette and Harold, the original trouble makers; Molly and Bennie, the cause of it all. Come folks—DON'T MISS THE CHANCE OF A LIFETIME!

BURLEY TOBACCO BRINGS OVER 35C PER POUND

Burley tobacco bringing the highest price in this section was grown with Zell's Fertilizer ("AA QUALITY"). Read what Dr. Moore says:

Marshall, N. C.
Jan. 10, 1930.
This past season I used 600 lbs. of Zell's Royal Tobacco Fertilizer 8-3-5 ("AA QUALITY"), and my crop averaged over 35c per pound. This is the highest price paid for Burley tobacco on any of our markets for the season. One 2000-pound lot brought $718.75. It is with pleasure that I recommend Zell's Fertilizer to all farmers.
—Dr. J. N. MOORE.

We keep a stock of "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers on hand, and recommend them for crops grown in this section. Come in and let's talk over your requirements.

Favorite Recipes of a Famous Chef

as Told to Anne Baker
By LOUIS DIAT, Chef,
The Ritz Carlton, New York

Sweet potatoes on the menu often present a problem, as so few variations in their preparation are offered in the recipes at the command of the housewife. Here are two ways of cooking them that Mr. Diat is particularly proud of.

Sweet Potatoes Louisiana or Southern Style—4 portions—Boil six medium sized sweet potatoes until tender in a generous quantity of salted water. Cool, peel and cut in round slices one-quarter inch thick. Arrange them in a shallow round earthenware or glass baking dish, overlapping each other in circles. Brush with butter and pour over them one-half cupful of hot maple syrup and brown for fifteen minutes. Just before serving, sprinkle with two tablespoons of sugar. Glass for one or two minutes under a hot broiler.

Sweet Potatoes and Ananas Louisiana—Prepare sweet potatoes in the same manner as Sweet Potatoes Louisiana. Arrange them in the baking dish with half slices of pineapple. Add maple syrup, heat and glass with sugar as above.

Louis Diat

HEARD ON BELLE ISLE

The pale moon rose high in the eastern sky,
And the walkers faltered along;
They went at calm gait at an hour quite late,
And enlivened the air with song.
For their feet bound low as they onward go,
While their souls mount to the skies
Their steps keep pace as they turn their face,
And look into each other's eyes.

What matters it then, if women or men
Hear their wild enchanting yell?
Yet onward they go over ice or snow,
Until spent their raptured spell.
Sweetheart or brother, sister or other,
The world is joy when they smile.
If you want to hear more, then just go o'er,
And view this wonderful isle.
W. O. RAY,
