vs.

JESSE EDWARDS and wife,
MRS. JESSE EDWARDS.

The defendants above named, having been duly served with process as required by law, and INTERLOCUTORY JUDGMENT OF FORECLOSURE having been duly entered in the Superior Court of Madison County, against the said defendants, therefore, all other persons owning or claiming an interest in the land described in said Judgment will take notice that on the 16th day of October, 1929, an action entitled as above was commenced in the Superior Court of Madison County for the purpose of foreclosing Tax Liens for the taxes due for the years 1916, 1917, and 1919, and on the following real estate:

BEGINNING on a stake in the east margin of the street, said stake being in the northwest corner of W. L. Rummion's lot, near where he now lives, and runs with the east side of said street as follows: 16 poles and 10 feet to a stake at the south margin of said street, leading to P. Reese's; then with the south margin of said street to the center of a hollow; thence down and with the center of the hollow to W. L. Rummion's line; thence with said line to the beginning, containing one acre more or less.

Said land conveyed by deed from A. F. Sprinkle and wife, J. A. Sprinkle, to J. J. Edwards, Book 25, Page 30, under date of November 25, 1907 Register of Deeds' Office, Madison County, North Carolina.

It is also ordered that all other persons claiming an interest in the subject matter of said action shall appear and present, set up and defend their respective claims, in six months from the date of this notice, otherwise they shall be forever barred and foreclosed of any and all interests or claims in or to the property, or the proceeds from the sale thereof.

This the 7th day of April, 1930.

CARL R. STUART

As the old lady strolled through the park, two urchins confronted her: "I say, lady," said the taller of the two, "my brother does fine imitations. Give him a penny and he'll imitate a hen." "Dear, dear," smiled the old lady, "and what will he do—will he cackle?" "No," replied the lad, with a look of contempt. "He won't do no cheap imitations of that sort; he'll eat a worm."
