It is also ordered that all other persons claiming an interest in the subject matter of said action, shall appear and present, set up and defend their respective claims, in six months from the date of this notice, otherwise they shall be forever barred and foreclosed of any and all interest or claim in or to the property or the proceeds received from the sale thereof.

This the 17th day of March, 1930. J. HUBERT DAVIS, Clerk Superior Court.

NOTICE!

By virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of trust executed by Henry Cody to J. A. Ramsey, Trustee, dated, Dec. 15th, 1924, duly recorded in deed of trust book No. 30 at page No. 43, in the Register's office for Madison County to secure certain indebtedness, and default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness thereby secured, whereby the power of sale became operative, the undersigned trustee will on Monday, May 12, 1930 at twelve o'clock M., at the Court House door offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash the following described property, to-wit:

Adjoining the lands of C. C. Bruce, John Sullivan, et al. Beginning on a double chestnut on top of a ridge N. E. of Mary's Gap and runs a West course with John Sullivan's line to the public road; thence with the road to Mary's Gap; thence with C. C. Bruce's line to the beginning. Containing 5 acres more or less. Being the lands conveyed by James M. West to Henry Cody. O-May 9. J. A. RAMSEY, Trustee

Two attorneys, one decidedly glum of countenance, met on the street. "Well, how's business?" the first asked of the dismal one. "Botton!" the pessimist replied. "I just chased an ambulance twelve miles and found a lawyer in it." American Legion Monthly.

President Gets Poppy

Five-year-old Lois June Allen, orphan daughter of a world war veteran, pins the first "Buddy Poppy" of the Spring campaign on Mr. Hoover's coat. The money from the sale of the poppies goes for the relief of disabled veterans and their dependents.

Doctor (examining unconscious engineer): "Did that automobile hit his engine?" Fireman: "No, the driver slowed up to let the train go by and the engineer fainted."—Woman's World.

From DAVIS CHAPEL

It is hoped that our Sunday School at Davis Chapel will improve now, as the warm weather is coming on. The singing class of Dry Branch is being much improved by the choir practice, which is being held at intervals during each week. Misses Anna and Estelle Henry, who have been quite sick, are slowly improving. Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Davis, who have been planning to move to their new home, will continue to make the home with Mrs. Davis' father, since the death of her mother, Mrs. R. H. Clark. Mr. Chappel Wallin spent several days of last week with Mr. Cecil Banks. Among those who were visiting Mrs. Texanna Banks Sunday afternoon, were Mrs. Zeb Blankenship and daughter, Mae, and Mr. Talmadge Blankenship and family of Woodfin. Mrs. Jane Rector and grand-daughter, Lavenia, who have been spending the winter with Mrs. Rector's daughter, Mrs. Maye Deaver, have returned to their home here. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Rogers of the Madison Seminary were visiting Mrs. Rogers' mother, Mrs. Daisy Crowe, Tuesday night. Several people of this community attended the commencement exercises at Marshall Friday night, and enjoyed a very good program. We are sorry to hear of Mr. Robert Crowe's cow getting her leg broken.

JETER PRITCHARD RAMSEY FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:— I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds, subject to the REPUBLICAN PRIMARY, JUNE 7, 1930 I shall appreciate your support, and if I am elected I will make a kind and efficient officer. YOURS TO SERVE, Jeter P. Ramsey

FOR SHERIFF OF MADISON COUNTY To the legal voters of Madison County: I now take the pleasure of announcing myself for the office of Sheriff subject to the Republican Primary of June 7, 1930. If I am elected I will promise you that I will carry out the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and will do all in my power to keep down crime. As I have been an officer for several years I know how crime should be suppressed. I will assure every citizen of Madison County that they will never regret any support that they may see cause to give me. Thanking you, one and all. Yours respectfully, CLOYDE L. HENDERSON

FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO THE VOTERS OF MADISON COUNTY: I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent Madison County in the Legislature, subject to the action of the Republican primary to be held June 7, 1930. SOME OF THE THINGS I STAND FOR: If elected I will introduce a bill to abolish free labor on public roads in Madison County. I will favor and work for two cents on our present five-cent tax on gasoline to be used on our county roads (the present rate of gas sales would give Madison County $50,000.00 or $60,000.00 annually). I favor placing the burden of schooling our children on the State of North Carolina. By doing so we would give every child an equal chance to get an education, and place the burden where it belongs without a levy of tax on real estate. (Signed) DR. J. H. HUTCHINS.

In The Republican Primary On June 7 VOTE FOR OSCAR STANTON For Solicitor For 19th Judicial District. I miss you, Loretta, from church and Sunday School. I miss you, yes, I do. I miss your hand of service. As I sit here trying to write, tears are flowing until I can hardly see how to write, but God said some day He would wipe all tears from our eyes. As I sit and look back where you so patiently lay and bore your sickness, it is hard to bear, especially with Johnny and Arville singing and myself weeping until I can hardly see, but I want to meet you in that City beyond. I want all the Christian people to pray for me, that I may meet my loving wife. Written by her husband, MABEL REVIS.
