Is Rejoiced Over Sargon Benefits
 "I was in an extremely nervous condition and finally had a nervous breakdown. I'd have pains in my back and sides nearly all the time, and I'd almost go frantic with headaches. A terribly rheumatic condition in my arms and hips nearly ran me into hysterics. Sargon is the only medicine that ever gave me lasting relief, and I'm filled with rejoicing over the new health it gave me. Every trace of indigestion is gone, my appetite is fine, and the rheumatic condition and the pains in my back and sides are gone. I'm fast regaining my lost weight and Sargon Pills are the finest treatment I ever found for constipation and a torpid liver."

MRS. AMANDA LADD

For SOLICITOR

We have seen in the press from time to time the name of Mr. Irwin Monk, Attorney at Law, mentioned as a possible candidate for Solicitor of the 19th Judicial District.

As we see it, the Republican party has the opportunity seldom offered to it to elect a Republican Solicitor of this district. The Republican party will offer to the voters for their serious consideration a prosecuting officer for our courts. Many of our people forget the importance of this office. Being lawyers ourselves, we know something of the ability and character of all the lawyers of this Judicial District. We know of no young man who has a brighter future than Irwin Monk. He is well trained in law, possesses a pleasing personality, and is a man of sterling character.

And, as Republican members of the Buncombe Bar Association, we desire to call upon Mr. Monk to offer himself as a candidate for Solicitor of this district. His untiring efforts and telling work in the last campaign were a tower of strength to the Republican party. It was through the time and labor of men like Mr. Monk that caused us to win our great victory in Buncombe County. We believe that the party ought to reward the faithful ones. Therefore, we endorse and call upon Mr. Irwin Monk to become a candidate for Solicitor of the 19th Judicial District.
