CLAIMS RECORD OF BEING OLDEST MASON

exceeded the century murk, but it is thought Bening Arneld, of Bourmemouth, who recently adjobrated his 106th birthday, is probably the oldest member of the Fraternity, not only in this country, but perhaps in the world.

He is a member of Polish National Lodge, of which he was Master in 1860, seventy years ago. He is an honorary member of the Alum Chine Bowling Club and is the oldest bowl-er in England. He was for some time a printer in London and claims to be the first man who "set up" music in type.

THE TERRIBLE HOT TARIFF

The Congress of the United States has devoted itself very industriously for nearly a year and a half to the framing of a tariff bill. Every scheevery item, and a anything in the bill except that which is placed there deliberately. It has been a tariff bill passed which did not invoke vigorous attacks from the public and the press. The situation was the same as it is today when the Underwood tariff bill was when the Underwood tariff bill was tion. Under the circumstances it is just as well to postpone map judge-ment and let time demonstrate whether we have a terrible tariff in the Hawley-Smoot measure, or whether it is an improvement over the tariff law which it succeeds.
