LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Happenings In and Near Marshall

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Beaver, and his sister, Miss Willie Beaver, all of Cabarrus, N. C., are guests of Mrs. Beaver's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Tweed.

NOTICE—On and after Friday, August 15th, admission prices to the Princess Theatre will be 10 cents for all under 12 year of age, and 20c all under 12 years of age and over.

Miss Louise Pritchard entertained her class mates, Miss Elizabeth Collins, of Hillsboro, N. C., Wednesday with a luncheon and bridge party. Others there were Misses June Tweed, Evelyn Hinkle, Virginia Hendricks, Merle Sams, and Mrs. Mary Story.

Yakima Canutt in "A TEXAN'S HONOR," also a two-reel comedy and Crazy Cat Cartoon—at Princess Friday and Saturday—and the price is only 10c and 20c.

As may be seen from an article elsewhere in this paper, Rev. J. J. Gray, a former pastor, will preach at the Methodist church Sunday instead of Rev. S. C. Weatherly.

SEE! New Young America Loves Charles (Buddy) Rogers in "Half Way to Heaven," Thrills, throbs! The star of "Close Harmony." A new hit. With a new girl-friend, Jean Arthur. A Paramount Picture.

Mr. C. M. Sawyer, Mr. and Mrs. Brownie Trent, Mrs. Charlie Jackson and Mr. Fred Glass, of Paolet, S. C., are here for a few days visiting Mr. Sawyer's son, Mr. Claude Sawyer, and family. "Half Way to Heaven," Charles (Buddy) Rogers' new starring picture, which will show at the Princess theatre next week, was adapted from the best-seller novel, "Here Comes the Bandwagon," by Henry L. Gates.

Rev. Wade White and family, who have been spending the summer near Marshall, are leaving the latter part of the week for Mt. Airy, Ga., where Mr. White teaches. Mr. White will be in a revival for two weeks before his school begins—September 1.

New Thrill! New Throbs. Where there's a girl—there's a way. See Young America's Boy-Friend in this thrill-throb hit. Charles (Buddy) Rogers in "Half Way to Heaven," with Jean Arthur.

You'll see three Stars—(Buddy) Rogers, Jean Arthur and Paul Lukas in "Half Way to Heaven," at Princess Monday and Tuesday. Prices: 10 and 20 cents.

Mrs. J. B. Martin of Raleigh, who has been visiting Mrs. Fowler Shelton, Mrs. O. C. Rector, Mrs. J. Herchel Sprinkle, Mrs. Hubert Roberts, and others in Marshall is expecting to leave Friday for Asheville to spend a few days before returning to her home.

Amelia Jane, the small daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Willard Beator, is quite ill. A specialist from Asheville the first of the week, advised that the child's tonsils may be causing her trouble. However, her condition at the present time is too serious for her to undergo an operation.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Johnny L. Davis, August 6th, a daughter, Little Betsy.

Miss Millan Whitehurst left Thursday to spend the week-end with Miss Cumi Ramsey of Leicester, N. C.

The woman's missionary society of the Marshall Baptist church met with Mrs. J. N. White Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. J. Bailey and daughter, Miss Nellie, of Asheville, were in town Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. N. West left Sunday to visit her daughter, Mrs. DeWitt Austin at Charlotte before going on to visit another daughter, Mrs. H. D. Curry in Pennsylvania.

Miss Orpha Henderson of Knoxville is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Clarence Ramsey.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Roberts and children spent last week-end with relatives at English, N. C.

Miss Dorothy Sprinkle has resumed her position as bookkeeper for the power company in Marshall.

AT THE GOLF COURSE

TOURNAMENT AT MARSHALL MIDGET COUNTRY CLUB TO START TONIGHT AT 8 P. M., AUGUST 15

Due to the number of low scores turned in, the men's tournament will consist of three foursomes, the winners of which will compete for the championship.

The ladies' tournament will consist of one foursome, the winner becoming ladies' champion for first period.

The following, by merit of their low scores, will make up the respective foursomes:

At 9:00 o'clock, Wendell McDevitt, James Redmon, John Worth McDevitt and Hubert Edwards will start the play.

At 8:15, Mrs. Grace Redmon, Mrs. Audrey Redmon, Mrs. J. B. Tweed and Miss Frances McDevitt will play.

At 8:30, J. C. Sprinkle, John Redmon, N. B. McDevitt and Dr. W. A. Sams will compete.

At 8:45, Mack E. Ramsey, C. E. Rector, J. J. Ramsey and Bruce Redmon will defend their laurels.

Those listed above, who are not ready to play at the appointed time will automatically default.

It is expected that much interest will be shown in this tournament, and many spectators are anticipated.

The announcement that Mr. William G. Roberts, one of the socially prominent members of the younger set and son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy V. Roberts, is now managing the course for the owners, Mr. Lockwood and Mr. Powell, will be interesting.

OF ALL SORTS
By "COLY"

Asheville seems to have a mania for selling good baseball players. Marty Baylin, who was sold by Asheville to Greenville, of the same loop, a few days ago, is proving that he is some pitcher, having won 5 games and lost none for Greenville. Earl Mattingly was sold to Macon, and he's going good; Buck Greene was also sold to Macon, and Wednesday Greene pitched against the great Jim Mooney of Charlotte, and he held the Hornets hitless for nine innings, Lushie getting a hit in the tenth inning. Oh, well, such is life.

With only about a point in percentage between them, the Chicago Cubs and Brooklyn Robins of the National League, are fighting both tooth and toe-nail for the league leadership, with neither being able to gain the coveted position.

In the American League we have Philadelphia away out in front, with New York and Washington fighting it out for second place. And we also have Ruth of the Yankees leading both leagues in home runs with 43, and Wilson of the Cubs, running a close second with 40.
