FARM PRICES DECLINE

Prices paid producers for fruits and vegetables, cotton and cotton-seed, and all meat animals excepting hogs, continued to decline, according to the official figures received at Washington for the monthly period ending August 15. Prices of feed grains and hay made a general advance during the above monthly period which was principally due to the shortage of supplies in drought-stricken area.

A LITTLE COLD

Mary had a little cold—
It started in her head.
And everywhere that Mary went
The cold was sure to spread.

She took it to school one day,
And it wasn't any rule—
It made the children cough and sneeze,
To have the cold in school.

The children tried to turn it
Out, but ker-choo!
It didn't do a bit of good, 'cause
All the children caught it, too.

Mary had a drinking cup—
She passed it to Johnny,
And Willie got it, too.
It was shiny, bright and new.
They got a drink but sorry to tell,
They got poor Mary's cold as well.

RIGSBY—SPRINKLE

Last Friday, September 12, at 2:00 o'clock P. M., Miss Flossie Sprinkle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sprinkle, of Marshall R. 4., became the bride of Mr. Charlie Rigby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rigby, also of Marshall, R. 4. The ceremony was performed by Rev. B. E. Guthrie, at Marshall, N. C.

DEATH OF CHARLES EDWARD LOVIN

On August 25, 1930, about 8 o'clock, the dark, gloomy shadow of death crept over the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Lovin, of Paint Fork, N. C., and left a vacancy in their home, by plucking a tiny bud just beginning to bloom, which was Charles Edward, their babe, born August 25, 1930, age 1 year and 15 days. Little Charles' presence will be missed more in the home than we could describe, as experience alone could teach us what it is to lose one from the family circle. But if they live for Jesus, the presence of little Charles, and the happiness of a place where there's no more separation nor anything that causes sorrow ever enters, will be enjoyed in one unending day, when they have paid the debt we all must pay.

But I could only say to the bereaved ones that are left and sad-hearted, as the Apostle Paul said, that ye sorrow not, even as others that have no hope. And again Paul says in 1st Cor., 15th chapter, 55th verse: O, death, where is thy sting O, grave, where is thy victory.

We can't bring the ones back who have left this earthy state of existence, and would not if we could, but we can go to them, and if we miss that place of eternal peace and happiness, we have lost all.

I would ask all who read this, to first seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness. Pleasures of this world and its wealth, are perishable. So be sure that you lay up treasures where moths and rust do not corrupt, nor thieves break through and steal.

Seek eternal life as it is in Christ. The earth is going to claim its own, as it has little Charles' body, which is our fleshy body, for dust we are, and to dust we must return, but our spirit to God who gave it. O, earth from thee our life must fly Unto a place where our souls never die;

Help us, O Lord, to be ready for the call,
For soon our dwelling place must totter and fall.
—By VIRGIL B. METCALF.

DEATH OF MR. FRANKS

On September 6th at 5:30 P. M., the Death Angel visited the home of Cole V. Franks and took the father. On Sunday he was carried to Anderson, S. C., and buried in the family plot.

The pallbearers were selected from his nephews—the flower girls were his nieces. Music was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Angel. Funeral arrangements were in charge of West & Roberts.

Mr. Franks was from Jackson County. He came to the Ivy section last year. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Adelle Franks, and five children, Arthur, Garland, James, Evelyn, and Mrs. Herman Brown to mourn their loss. To them we extend our sympathy.

FROM ODESSA

There will be a box supper at the Sandy Mush high school building on Saturday night, September 20th. Everybody is invited and welcome to attend. Girls—please bring boxes and Boys—bring your pocket-books with plenty in it.

Rev. Mr. Lovett preached an inspiring sermon to a large audience at Brick church Sunday morning. Those who took dinner at home of Misses Dever and Sarah McCracken Sunday were: Rev. Mr. Lovett, Misses Geneva, Bertha and Dorothy King, Mr. Otis Duckett, and Miss Lois Garrett.

From ODESSA, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Waldrop and family were out motoring last Sunday.

Mr. Tom Henson is very ill at this writing at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Bryant Clark.

We had a large crowd with us at

Brick Church Sunday school Sunday. The Brick Church singing class will go to Jones Valley Sunday evening to sing, and expects two more singing classes to be there.

Everybody remember that Saturday night is the box supper at S. M. Hi School.

THERE'S always some favored one with a charm that's all her own. . . . And everywhere in the modern scene you'll see happy smokers breaking out fresh, fragrant packs of Camels . . . a natural choice too!

For the mildness of Camels is a charm that's all its own . . . a natural mildness that's a quality of choicest tobaccos. Don't confuse this fresh, fragrant mildness with the flatness or insipidness of "over-treated" tobacco. There's a delightful natural fragrance to Camels, too, a "bouquet" as distinctive as the fragrance of oriental flowers.

Here's to the delightful things of life! Have a Camel!
