COLUMBUS DAY PROGRAM

TEACHERS TRAINING CLASS'S CELEBRATION YESTERDAY

Friday, October the tenth, being Columbus Day, the members of the Teacher Training Class were participants in a Columbus Day Impromptu program.

The first number was a dialogue between Columbus and Lindbergh, Eldridge Leake playing the part of Columbus and Casey Smith the part of Lindbergh. The characters discussed their voyages and proved that they were well informed on the subject.

The second number was a meeting between Columbus' mother and Lindbergh's mother. Sallie Kate Chandler took the part of Mrs. Columbus while Vanda Worley played the part of Mrs. Lindbergh. Each mother discussed her son's great deed, and of course as all mothers do, exaggerated their sons' good traits.

The third number was a meeting of Queen Isabella and King Ferdinand of Spain, President Doumergue of France, and President Hoover. Faye Wallin took the part of Queen Isabella and Jonas Chandler the part of King Ferdinand. Paul Kent was Doumergue and Clifford Fox, President Hoover. These rulers discussed explorations of their time and nationality.

The last scene was the meeting of two Indians after the landing of Columbus. These characters were represented by Dewie Treadway and Nellie Crough.

The remainder of the class read Columbus poems to complete the program. We feel that this program has helped us to appreciate more the hardships which were endured to give us our country—America.

NELLIE CROUGH, Secretary.
