PLAN FOURTH OF JULY FESTIVAL FOR MARSHALL

WOMANLESS WEDDING TO BE STAGED AND FINE BALL GAME ON ISLAND

P.-T. A. Makes Plans For All-Year Work

Mrs. Dedrick Bowman Acting As President Of Local Organization

The choice of Mrs. Dedrick Bowman for President of the P.-T. A. for the ensuing year seems to have been a most happy one. Mrs. Bowman is taking the work in hand and has expressed a strong desire that plans be laid for next year's work and that the association work in summer as well as winter. She has announced the names of those on her principal committees and states that the chairmen of these committees, with herself, the vice-president and treasurer of the Association, constitute the executive committee, which meets each month and carries on work during the summer. Plans for the meetings next year are also being made. The program committee has met and ordered literature for its work during the school year.

Executive Committee—(Composed of Vice President, Treasurer, and heads of all other committees)—Mrs. Will Morrow, chairman; Mr. Herschel Sprinkle, Mr. O. S. Dillard, Mrs. O. S. Dillard, Mrs. Guy V. Roberts, Mrs. A. J. Ramsey, Mrs. J. C. Sprinkle.

Ways & Means Committee—Mr. Herschel Sprinkle, chairman; Mrs. J. H. Davis, Mrs. D. O. Purkey, Mr. O. S. Dillard, Mr. Craig Rudisill.

Publicity Committee—Mrs. Guy V. Roberts, chairman; Mrs. Lee Bryan, Mrs. Selly McHone, Mrs. D. S. Tweed, secretary of the P.-T. A.

Program Committee—Mrs. A. J. Ramsey, chairman; Mrs. Carl Blankenship, Mrs. W. K. McLean, Mrs. S. B. Roberts, Mrs. E. N. Holcombe.

Work for the summer months is carried on by members of the Executive Committee, which meets once each month.

At the home of Mrs. Bowman, on last Friday night, the Executive Council met and decided to sponsor a 4th of July festival on the Island at Marshall. A ball game will be the feature of the afternoon—two local men, names of whom will be disclosed later, will act as captains of the team, and an interesting ball game is promised. Come to the Island and bring the children. Spend the day at Marshall on July 4th and help the P.-T. A. Drinks and light refreshments will be served and amusement for young and old is offered.

"The Womanless Wedding" of a few years ago with Dr. Sams as bride, Bewley Tweed as groom, Mr. Hendricks acting as ring-bearer, was such a huge success that we have decided to repeat it, and a Womanless Wedding will be staged in the evening of July 4th in the school house. You can't afford to miss this laugh-provoking performance. Prominent local business men will take the various parts and a good time is assured.

Help the P.-T. A. by coming to the Island and spending the afternoon and evening of July 4th. Fun, and lots of fun, is going to be the order of the day.

The P.-T. A. desires to be of service to all patrons of the Marshall school. To help the children get as much as possible from the school is the first aim of this association. To this end, the library will be opened on each Saturday from 2 to 4 in order that school children may borrow books and begin their reading for next year. Lists of supplementary books FOR

ALL GRADES will be posted and Prof. Dillard urges children to come and secure books any Saturday between 2 and 4. MRS. GUY ROBERTS

Sunday School Conference At North Fork Big Pine

A Sunday school conference was held at North Fork Big Pine Baptist church last Sunday (2 to 4 P.M.) preparatory to beginning of Sunday school revival work in the churches of New Found Baptist Association, William Worley, of Marshall, N. C., and Miss Eunice Davis, of Big Pine, N. C., were appointed to the offices of superintendent and secretary, respectively, of that work.

This meeting was well attended and the fellowship all that could have been desired. Good singing was rendered by the local choir. William C. Blount, pastor of Marshall Baptist church, conducted the devotional part of the service, after which Fred Jervis made a very fine exposition of the ten points, known as the Standard of Excellence. He also spoke of the Sunday school work in French Broad Baptist Association, pointing out great gains that had been accomplished during the past few years, and attributable largely to the regular and continuous efforts of a few of the leaders in that association.

Another meeting at North Fork Big Pine Baptist church was announced for the second Sunday in July, at two P.M. This will be the first Sunday school rally to be held in the New Found Baptist Association. The churches comprising that Association are invited to attend and to make reports of the work done in their Sunday school. A fine program will be arranged and carried out. Of course you will want to be there at that time.

At this juncture the congregation joined in prayer, being led by W. C. Blount. More singing was rendered by the choir. Following this, a short talk on "The Church" was made by Clay Barnes. Then prayer was made by Robert Tweed. After another song, the congregation adjourned, with benediction by Jesse Watts.

FRENCH BROAD S. S. RALLY

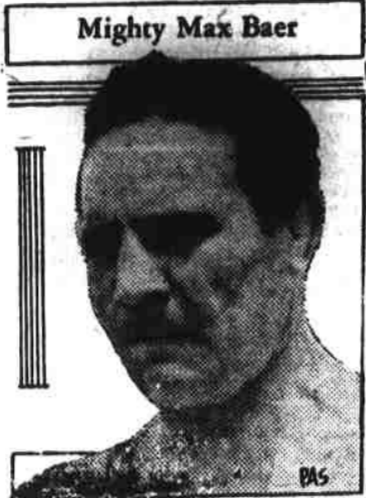

DON'T MISS READING THIS

The next S. S. Rally for the French Broad Association will be held with the Mars Hill Baptist church July 1st at 2:30 P.M.

The meeting will convene at 2:30. Reports will be received. Announcements made. After this the meeting will be conducted by M. A. Huggins, Secretary of the N. C. State Convention. This will be a special session of the preacher school which will be in session at Mars Hill College during that week. Some of the outstanding Baptist leaders of the South will be present. Now, what is the answer of our people to this meeting? Are they going to attend this afternoon gathering? We can hardly afford to miss this. It may be 50 years before an opportunity like this comes along again.

Let every church send not less than 50 delegates. Let's remember the meeting July 1st 2:00 P.M.

MARSHALL AND MADISON COUNTY ON THE AIR

Will Codes Develop Into Monopolies?

Will the NRA through the development of codes create monopolies in restraint of trade and thus destroy the small industrialist and business man? In anticipation of this danger the President appointed the Advisory Review Board with Clarence S. Darrow as chairman.

It would appear from a review of some of the codes by the Advisory Board that they "are developing a monopolistic trend and are doing injury to the small industrialists and business men." Observations of Senators Nye and Borah point to the same conclusions.

Those who favor the NRA plan as a reform or remedial measure in business relations admit that code practices in any given line of business tend to force every unit in that line to the same wage schedule and commodity price schedule, thus doing away with competition. When codes actually develop into monopolies, the anti-trust act may be invoked, or should this be found inconsistent with the apparent plan to stop destructive competition, as some think it would be, the codes may be brought ultimately under regulatory legislation similar to the regulatory powers exercised over our public utilities.

Under the competitive system, it is pointed out, monopolies developed rapidly but with no sense of order or of the rights of the public. They forced concerns that stood generally with the er of wages and incomes of the masses, while the heads of these monopolies or near monopolies drew salaries ranging up to $250,000 per annum.

Many observers believe that the only hope to be found in the creation of the codes is to make easier the bridling of predatory interests, maintenance of reasonable wages and incomes, payment of reasonable dividends on actual capital invested and the stabilization of business otherwise.

It is important at this period of our history that every citizen contribute of his thinking and action to this problem. Education is essential to this contribution and the tragedy of it all is that our schools are being allowed to go to pieces in face of the need of the most sober thinking the nation has ever been called upon to give to its problems in a great national situation.—The Scottish Rite News.

ENTERTAINMENT JUNE 25

A concert class from the Odd Fellows orphan home at Goldsboro will give an entertainment at Marshall at 8 o'clock on the night of June 25. A chorus, quartettes, and musical numbers are on the program.

The entertainment will probably be held in the high school auditorium. It is being sponsored by the local chapter of Odd Fellows.

This same group will give an entertainment at White Rock on June 26.

STREET UNDER CONSTRUCTION

No little excitement and confusion is being caused this week by the preparations toward laying a top surface to the street of Marshall. Several persons living in or near Marshall have secured jobs by digging up the present hard-

Sponsored by the Marshall Civitan Club and with funds raised by local business firms, Marshall and Madison County are being given some valuable publicity this week. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the attention of the people in the range of Asheville's broadcasting station is being directed to the scenic attractions in Madison County. In substance, the following announcement is to be repeated twice each day for three days during the Rhododendron Festival—between 12 and 2 o'clock and six and eight o'clock P.M.

One of the most fascinating drives in Western North Carolina is down the "Million Dollar Highway" from Asheville through Marshall, along the French Broad River. Just twenty miles to Marshall, county seat of Madison, a unique and picturesque town overlooking the French Broad River. See its school building on an uninhabited island—no other such location in North Carolina. Stop in Marshall at the News-Record office for further directions. Drive over Lonesome Mountain and Shelton Laurel in Madison County. Then visit Hot Springs, really a warm, health-giving water flowing up from the earth. Drive over the precipitous Spring Creek road, visit Max Patch—a day's drive of unexcelled mountain scenery—rugged peaks, a beautiful panorama of evergreen laurel and rhododendron, shady drives and cold sparkling springs. Mark the name on your list.

Madison Song Group Met May 27

The Madison County singing convention met at Laurel Valley May 27 and had one of its most successful meetings. Ten classes and quartets attended. The ones from out of Madison County were a class and quartet from Ivy Gap in Yancey county and a class and quartet from Pleasant Hill in Buncombe county. The others were from Madison.

The next regular meeting will be held at the Beech Glen high school at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of June 24. C. Ponder is head of the group. It is the intention of the singing convention to promote religious vocal music in Madison County.
