Blondes And Bandits Mix In Film Thriller, "Come On Marines!"

With soft-hearted marines, obstreperous blondes and cruel, hard-hearted, jungle-natives, Paramount's action-packed romance, "Come On Marines!" comes Friday and Saturday to the Princess Theatre.

Richard Arlen, Ida Lupino, Roscoe Karns, Grace Bradley, Monte Blue, Toby Wing and Fuzzy Knight make up the major part of the cast, which was directed by Henry Hathaway.

Waged against getting himself into any more jams or his Officers' Training School application will be taken back, Richard Arlen goes ashore and runs smack-dab into an old dance-hall flame.

He gets in bad with the general and is sent back to the jungle to again work his way up from the ranks. His company gets a hurried call to rescue some children from an exclusive school who have been shipwrecked on a guerilla-infested island.

They rush to the scene of action and find the children are really grown-up beauties. No sooner do the marines land, than the blondes have them well in hand. Then the fun and the guns start popping and nobody stops until the last shot is fired, and both the battle and blondes won.

Marshall, and Mr. Bob Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Roberts, of Big Laurel, were married on August 25 at Marshall by the Rev. C. Genty.

Built Up Strength By Taking Cardui

Here's her own account of how Mrs. T. W. Hardin, of Greer, S. C., was benefited by taking Cardui: "I suffered a great deal from weakness in my back and pains on my side and felt so miserable," she writes. "I read of Cardui and decided to try it. I felt better after I took my first bottle, so kept on taking it as I felt such a need for strength, and it helped me so much." Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.
