HEARD AND SEEN AROUND TOWN

By LANK

Saw two couples in a large car stop in front of the courthouse Sunday night to take a drink at the fountain. One of the girls was heard to remark that "this is the best water I ever tasted in my life".

The new traffic signal down at the crossing on Bridge Street certainly is efficient. You can hardly fail to see the red lights and hear the bell ringing when a train is on the block.

A lot of building is going on around Marshall now. Down on the street here we have a new filling station in the process of erection.

Several boys celebrating after graduating from high school where they spent three-fourths of their lives.

Wendell McDevitt taking charge of the drug store in time to serve five young "dames" from Tennessee. (These two items were contributed to this column, and were not written by the "old maestro".)

Heard, that the name of the young man called "paper boy" and "paper man" around Marshall, really is Charles Herron. Sometimes nicknames have a way of sticking so that the real name is never used.

Earl Bryan has begun operating another filling station in Marshall, making two in this small city. Good work, Earl, being able to expand during a depression.

MISS LOUANA DILL

Funeral services were held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Dill cemetery for Miss Louana Dill, who died Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Woody near Peek's Chapel where she had lived for several years. Miss Dill had been sick for only a few months. The Rev. D. K. Ponder, of Ivy, officiated and was assisted by the Rev. Wayne Peek of Mars Hill. Several beautiful and impressive songs were sung by the Peek's Chapel church. During 1934 two of her sisters, Mrs. M. J. Vehn of Pleasant Hill in Buncombe county, and Mrs. J. M. Cash of Converse, S. C., died. Surviving are two brothers, Stephen Dill of Grape Vine and Scott Dill of East Fork. Also seven sisters, Mrs. Elbert Hensley of Grape Vine, Mrs. J. G. Woody, Mrs. F. G. Clark, Mrs. A. C. Peek, and Miss Rebecca Dill of Peek's Chapel, Mrs. S. J. Whitt of Mars Hill, and Mrs. A. B. Silver of Marshall.

'SMILIN' THROUGH' WELL PRESENTED

The senior class of the Marshall high school presented their play, "Smilin' Through", a three-act romantic comedy, last Friday night as a climax to the series of commencement exercises. Paul Payne as "John Carteret" had the leading role. Mae Redmon in the role of "Moonyeen", playing opposite Payne, had the leading feminine role. Other characters were: "Dr. Owen," a bachelor, Tom Rudisill; "Kathleen Duncan" Moonyeen's niece, Helen Dennis; "Ellen," the housekeeper, Letz Jo Allman; "Willie Ainsley," in love with Kathleen, Howard Hagmie; "Jeremiah Wayne," rejected suitor, Hugh Reator; "Mary Clare," Moonyeen's sister, Julia Roberts; and "Sarah Wayne," Kenneth's mother, Elizabeth Bragg.

Much Interest Shown In Laurel Branch Revival (REPORTED) A large crowd greeted the pastor, the Rev. G. E. Cutshaw, who is doing the preaching, Sunday morning. 107 attended Sunday night and enjoyed the splendid Gospel message. The theme was, Do unto others as you would have them do unto you. He stressed the importance of desiring to treat others right. He said, God would help us to be a loyal, obedient Christian. His sermons are full of Gospel truth and delivered in a convincing, winning way that takes hold of the people. He speaks as the Holy Spirit gives him the message. We believe God is going to give us a glorious revival. Everybody is invited to attend.

"I HAVEN'T HAD A COLD IN FIVE YEARS" "In the old days I used to dread the coming of winter. I was always fighting colds- feeling about half alive-trying to work with my body aching and every nerve on edge. Then a friend told me about McCoy's Old Liver Oil Tablets with their marvelous vitamins A and D. I started to take them five years ago and I haven't had a cold since that time. McCoy's tablets put new life in folks; build up resistance so anyone can laugh at cold germs. They make weak, skinny people strong, steady-nerved and vigorous. They're wonderful!" Get the genuine McCoy's Old Liver Oil Tablets from your druggist today. Don't waste money on imitations. Ask for McCoy's.
