

HAPPY NEW YEAR

THE NEWS-RECORD

VOL. 35

8 Pages

MARSHALL, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1936

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR

FRENCH BROAD RIVER IS FROZEN ALL ACROSS

FLOW OF ICE CONSIDERED DANGEROUS WHEN IT BREAKS UP

The long continued cold spell for the last ten days of December has resulted in the French Broad River's being frozen practically solid, and the ice barked to the level of the dam near the depot. It is said that the ice is packed all the way from the Redmon dam up to the Marshall dam, and all up towards Asheville. It is feared that when the ice begins to break up it will be dangerous to property along the river in the vicinity of Marshall and below. The residents here say that this is the greatest freeze the river has experienced since 1917.

Miss Emma Craig-miles of Hot Springs Dies In Asheville

Funeral Services To Be Held Thursday Morning In Asheville

Miss Emma Baird Craigmiles, 79, of Hot Springs, died at the Norburn hospital, Asheville, Wednesday morning at 12:25 o'clock. Miss Craigmiles underwent an emergency operation 10 days ago and on account of her advanced age, she was not able to rally from the effects of the operation.

Miss Craigmiles was born and reared in Buncombe county, and was the daughter of the late James Madison Craigmiles and Sophronia Baird Craigmiles. She was widely connected in Buncombe county, being closely related to the Weaver-Baird-Reynolds families on her mother's side, and of the Craigmiles family, a prominent family of Cleveland, Tennessee. She had lived in Madison county for the past 45 years, and had made her home with her brothers, John and William. She is survived by three brothers, John and William, of Hot Springs, and Joseph, of Bakersville; one sister, Mrs. Harriet Runyon, of Asheville, and by many nephews and nieces.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Reynolds Funeral home, Spruce street, Asheville, on Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock, with the Rev. Woodward E. Finley, of Hot Springs, officiating. Interment will be in Asbury Memorial cemetery at Graca.

BASKETBALL AT MARS HILL

Invitations have recently been mailed out to coaches of high schools over North Carolina to enter the 11th annual Mars Hill College invitational Basketball Tournament. This tournament is held each year at Mars Hill in the college gym. This year's tournament will be held from February 27-29. Of the number who express a desire to enter the tournament a total of 16 teams are selected to compete in the event. As many of these 16 teams as possible are selected because they are county champions. In the years the tournament has been held many county champions have entered. More than thirty thousand fans have witnessed the tournament since its start in 1926. It is regarded as the outstanding basketball tournament in Western North Carolina and since the North Carolina State Col-

HONOR ROLL

The News-Record

Beginning with our issue of October 17, we are publishing below the names of people who subscribe or renew their subscriptions to The News-Record within the last week. By keeping your subscriptions paid up you will greatly help our local paper. Of course, those whose subscriptions are paid in advance are already on our honor roll.

Floyd Smith, Flag Pond, Tenn.
Van Wallin, R-2, Marshall.
H. W. Cook, Hot Springs.
G. S. Enaley, Barnard.
A. J. Gahagan, R-3, Marshall.
Mamie Frisby, Charlotte, N. C.
Miss Cleta Edwards, Mars Hill.
Ben Frisby, City.
Mrs. W. R. White, R-2, Marshall.
The Three Laurels, R-3, Marshall.
Mitch Freeman, R-1, Marshall.
Mrs. Inez T. Powers, Jacksonville, Fla.
J. O. McGalliard, R-1, Marshall.
John C. Shelton, Jacksonville, Fla.
William Boone, Union City, Tenn.

THREE FAMOUS SMITHS

lege tournament is no longer held it being regarded as one of the outstanding tournaments in the state. Last year's event was won by Candler high school of Buncombe County. The Candler team defeated the Cove Creek team of Watauga County in the finals.

SAFTY WORK PRAISED

An earnest appeal to police and motoring authorities throughout the world to make an intensive study of the remarkable automobile safety campaign waged for the past year by Police Commissioner Lewis Valentine, of New York City, was made this week by John D. Collins, sales manager of the Tide Water Oil Company.

"A safety campaign that saves one life is worth while," said Mr. Collins, "but a campaign that saves hundreds of lives is something that should command the immediate attention of everybody."

"Commissioner Valentine has quietly but efficiently gone about the business of reducing automobile accidents in New York and he has done a splendid job of it. By posters, newspaper interviews, radio programs, special schooling of policemen, providing of safe playgrounds, moving trucks mounting wrecked cars with gruesome wax figures of accident victims, and in other ways he has this year reduced automobile accidents in the metropolitan district 18 per cent below last year, while the average for the rest of the country, including New York State, has gone up 15 per cent."

Last year's record of auto deaths and injuries in this country was the highest in history and constitutes a national disgrace. This year the totals will be even higher.

The automobile industry, motoring authorities everywhere, police and public spirited bodies of various kinds are studying the problem and doing what they can. But the situation—except in New York City—is growing worse. Commissioner Valentine has worked out a recipe for safety which seems to be working. If it can work there it can work in other places. Let's apply it everywhere and save ten thousand lives.

A man who robbed the L. H. Black store at Verdel, Neb., was just joking. He took $50, put it in a sack, left it outside the door with this note: "Better get a new cop."

Two men in Boise, Ida., received letters containing $105 from a man in San Francisco who did not sign his name.

As 6 year old Eddie Hightower of Toledo, O., climbed up the steps to his front door a bullet, supposedly fired by a prowler glanced off a button on his clothing.

KYLE RAMSEY LODGED IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY JAIL

DEATH OF ROY ROGERS EXPLAINED

Woman's Confession is Made To Sheriff Brown

According to last Sunday's Asheville Citizen - Times the mystery surrounding the death December 19 of Roy Rogers, brother of Miss Roberta Rogers, has been explained. The Asheville paper's report says:

The confession of Essie Carver, 23-year-old Rankin avenue woman that she and her first cousin, Herschell Carver, 35, of Leicester were with J. Roy Rogers 48-year-old Turkey Creek farmer when he was killed December 19 was announced by Sheriff Laurence E. Brown late last night.

Sheriff Brown said the woman admitted that the three of them were in Rogers' car on the Goodman road near steam power plant of the Carolina Power and Light Company, at Craggy where his body later was found lying beside the road.

The Carver woman said she got out of the car near the scene of the killing, Sheriff Brown asserted, and had walked 40 or 50 feet down the road when she heard a shot. She had left her cousin in the car with Rogers, she admitted.

She returned quickly to the automobile, Sheriff Brown quoted the woman as saying, and found Rogers dead.

Divided Money

Sheriff Brown said the Carver woman told him that she and her cousin then divided the money on Rogers' person, less than $100, the exact amount undetermined.

The body was dumped beside the road, and the two returned to Asheville, where they registered at a hotel in the depot section.

According to the sheriff, the woman admitted that Rogers picked up her and her cousin uptown on the day of the killing and that they were together practically all day. The shooting occurred a little after sunset.

Sheriff Brown said Carver will be charged with murder. It is expected that the woman will be charged with being an accessory to the murder. He declined to say what if any statement Carver had made regarding the

Mars Hill College Announces Football Schedule

The football schedule as announced here today is practically the same as that played last year. But one change is noted, that of Campbell college to the list of games to be played. Mars Hill will play every team in the North Carolina Conference. The only game in question is the one with Rutherford College, as no information has been received as to whether or not they will play next year. The date of September 26th has been offered to them.

SCHEDULE:—Rutherford college at Mars Hill, Sept. 26; Wingate, at Mars Hill, Oct. 3; Campbell, at Mars Hill, Oct. 10; Lees McRae, at Mars Hill, Oct. 17; Belmont Abbey, at Mars Hill, Oct. 24; Oak Ridge at Oak Ridge, Oct. 31; Presbyterian college, at Mars Hill, Nov. 7; boiling Springs, at Mars Hill, Nov. 14; Brevard, at Mars Hill, Nov. 26.

Mrs. Lockamy Dies

Funeral services were conducted at Fairview Methodist church, near Hot Springs at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Dec. 31, for Mrs. D. F. Lockamy, 17, of Fayetteville, who died at her home there Sunday night.

Mrs. Lockamy, before her marriage was Miss Carrie Ledford, daughter of Mrs. Martha Ledford, of Hot Springs. Mrs. Lockamy is survived by her husband, her mother, and one sister, Mrs. Herman A. Puryear, all of Hot Springs. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Robert M. Varner, pastor of the Methodist church.

Her Slogan Won $1,000 a Year For Life, or $12,000 Lump Sum

HOW does it feel to win a thousand dollars a year for life—or $12,000 in one cash payment?

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer of Torrington, Wyoming, can tell you the answer because she has just won first prize in the nation-wide Camay slogan contest sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company. No wonder she is smiling! Mrs. Bloomer is pictured just after she received the award from Governor Leslie A. Miller of Wyoming.

Frederick J. Forster, 33 Aberdeen Street, Rochester, New York, took the second Camay slogan prize of $500 a year for life or $6,000 in one cash payment. The third prize was awarded to Miss Helen McCreeght, 2318 West 17th Street, Little Rock, Arkansas. Miss McCreeght will have the choice of $100 a year for life or $1,200 in one cash payment.

The three prize winners will be given two weeks in which to choose whether they prefer the cash settlements or the life incomes. The annuities, if chosen, will be purchased by Procter & Gamble from a reliable insurance company.

A complete list of all prize winners in the Camay contest will be sent every entrant in the contest, it was announced by the sponsors of the contest.

In addition to the 3 grand prizes, 1,210 other prizes will be awarded as follows: 10 prizes of $100 each, 100 prizes of $10 each, 100 prizes of $5 each, and 1,000 prizes of $2 each. The Camay slogan contest, which was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer

was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

Suspect in Mars Hill Bank Robbery Brought From Tennessee Last Saturday

Death of Roy Rogers Explained

Woman's Confession is Made To Sheriff Brown

According to last Sunday's Asheville Citizen - Times the mystery surrounding the death December 19 of Roy Rogers, brother of Miss Roberta Rogers, has been explained. The Asheville paper's report says:

The confession of Essie Carver, 23-year-old Rankin avenue woman that she and her first cousin, Herschell Carver, 35, of Leicester were with J. Roy Rogers 48-year-old Turkey Creek farmer when he was killed December 19 was announced by Sheriff Laurence E. Brown late last night.

Sheriff Brown said the woman admitted that the three of them were in Rogers' car on the Goodman road near steam power plant of the Carolina Power and Light Company, at Craggy where his body later was found lying beside the road.

The Carver woman said she got out of the car near the scene of the killing, Sheriff Brown asserted, and had walked 40 or 50 feet down the road when she heard a shot. She had left her cousin in the car with Rogers, she admitted.

She returned quickly to the automobile, Sheriff Brown quoted the woman as saying, and found Rogers dead.

Divided Money

Sheriff Brown said the Carver woman told him that she and her cousin then divided the money on Rogers' person, less than $100, the exact amount undetermined.

The body was dumped beside the road, and the two returned to Asheville, where they registered at a hotel in the depot section.

According to the sheriff, the woman admitted that Rogers picked up her and her cousin uptown on the day of the killing and that they were together practically all day. The shooting occurred a little after sunset.

Sheriff Brown said Carver will be charged with murder. It is expected that the woman will be charged with being an accessory to the murder. He declined to say what if any statement Carver had made regarding the

Mars Hill College Announces Football Schedule

The football schedule as announced here today is practically the same as that played last year. But one change is noted, that of Campbell college to the list of games to be played. Mars Hill will play every team in the North Carolina Conference. The only game in question is the one with Rutherford College, as no information has been received as to whether or not they will play next year. The date of September 26th has been offered to them.

SCHEDULE:—Rutherford college at Mars Hill, Sept. 26; Wingate, at Mars Hill, Oct. 3; Campbell, at Mars Hill, Oct. 10; Lees McRae, at Mars Hill, Oct. 17; Belmont Abbey, at Mars Hill, Oct. 24; Oak Ridge at Oak Ridge, Oct. 31; Presbyterian college, at Mars Hill, Nov. 7; boiling Springs, at Mars Hill, Nov. 14; Brevard, at Mars Hill, Nov. 26.

Mrs. Lockamy Dies

Funeral services were conducted at Fairview Methodist church, near Hot Springs at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Dec. 31, for Mrs. D. F. Lockamy, 17, of Fayetteville, who died at her home there Sunday night.

Mrs. Lockamy, before her marriage was Miss Carrie Ledford, daughter of Mrs. Martha Ledford, of Hot Springs. Mrs. Lockamy is survived by her husband, her mother, and one sister, Mrs. Herman A. Puryear, all of Hot Springs. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Robert M. Varner, pastor of the Methodist church.

Her Slogan Won $1,000 a Year For Life, or $12,000 Lump Sum

HOW does it feel to win a thousand dollars a year for life—or $12,000 in one cash payment?

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer of Torrington, Wyoming, can tell you the answer because she has just won first prize in the nation-wide Camay slogan contest sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company. No wonder she is smiling! Mrs. Bloomer is pictured just after she received the award from Governor Leslie A. Miller of Wyoming.

Frederick J. Forster, 33 Aberdeen Street, Rochester, New York, took the second Camay slogan prize of $500 a year for life or $6,000 in one cash payment. The third prize was awarded to Miss Helen McCreeght, 2318 West 17th Street, Little Rock, Arkansas. Miss McCreeght will have the choice of $100 a year for life or $1,200 in one cash payment.

The three prize winners will be given two weeks in which to choose whether they prefer the cash settlements or the life incomes. The annuities, if chosen, will be purchased by Procter & Gamble from a reliable insurance company.

A complete list of all prize winners in the Camay contest will be sent every entrant in the contest, it was announced by the sponsors of the contest.

In addition to the 3 grand prizes, 1,210 other prizes will be awarded as follows: 10 prizes of $100 each, 100 prizes of $10 each, 100 prizes of $5 each, and 1,000 prizes of $2 each. The Camay slogan contest, which was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer

was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

KYLE RAMSEY LODGED IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY JAIL

DEATH OF ROY ROGERS EXPLAINED

Woman's Confession is Made To Sheriff Brown

According to last Sunday's Asheville Citizen - Times the mystery surrounding the death December 19 of Roy Rogers, brother of Miss Roberta Rogers, has been explained. The Asheville paper's report says:

The confession of Essie Carver, 23-year-old Rankin avenue woman that she and her first cousin, Herschell Carver, 35, of Leicester were with J. Roy Rogers 48-year-old Turkey Creek farmer when he was killed December 19 was announced by Sheriff Laurence E. Brown late last night.

Sheriff Brown said the woman admitted that the three of them were in Rogers' car on the Goodman road near steam power plant of the Carolina Power and Light Company, at Craggy where his body later was found lying beside the road.

The Carver woman said she got out of the car near the scene of the killing, Sheriff Brown asserted, and had walked 40 or 50 feet down the road when she heard a shot. She had left her cousin in the car with Rogers, she admitted.

She returned quickly to the automobile, Sheriff Brown quoted the woman as saying, and found Rogers dead.

Divided Money

Sheriff Brown said the Carver woman told him that she and her cousin then divided the money on Rogers' person, less than $100, the exact amount undetermined.

The body was dumped beside the road, and the two returned to Asheville, where they registered at a hotel in the depot section.

According to the sheriff, the woman admitted that Rogers picked up her and her cousin uptown on the day of the killing and that they were together practically all day. The shooting occurred a little after sunset.

Sheriff Brown said Carver will be charged with murder. It is expected that the woman will be charged with being an accessory to the murder. He declined to say what if any statement Carver had made regarding the

Mars Hill College Announces Football Schedule

The football schedule as announced here today is practically the same as that played last year. But one change is noted, that of Campbell college to the list of games to be played. Mars Hill will play every team in the North Carolina Conference. The only game in question is the one with Rutherford College, as no information has been received as to whether or not they will play next year. The date of September 26th has been offered to them.

SCHEDULE:—Rutherford college at Mars Hill, Sept. 26; Wingate, at Mars Hill, Oct. 3; Campbell, at Mars Hill, Oct. 10; Lees McRae, at Mars Hill, Oct. 17; Belmont Abbey, at Mars Hill, Oct. 24; Oak Ridge at Oak Ridge, Oct. 31; Presbyterian college, at Mars Hill, Nov. 7; boiling Springs, at Mars Hill, Nov. 14; Brevard, at Mars Hill, Nov. 26.

Mrs. Lockamy Dies

Funeral services were conducted at Fairview Methodist church, near Hot Springs at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Dec. 31, for Mrs. D. F. Lockamy, 17, of Fayetteville, who died at her home there Sunday night.

Mrs. Lockamy, before her marriage was Miss Carrie Ledford, daughter of Mrs. Martha Ledford, of Hot Springs. Mrs. Lockamy is survived by her husband, her mother, and one sister, Mrs. Herman A. Puryear, all of Hot Springs. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Robert M. Varner, pastor of the Methodist church.

Her Slogan Won $1,000 a Year For Life, or $12,000 Lump Sum

HOW does it feel to win a thousand dollars a year for life—or $12,000 in one cash payment?

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer of Torrington, Wyoming, can tell you the answer because she has just won first prize in the nation-wide Camay slogan contest sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company. No wonder she is smiling! Mrs. Bloomer is pictured just after she received the award from Governor Leslie A. Miller of Wyoming.

Frederick J. Forster, 33 Aberdeen Street, Rochester, New York, took the second Camay slogan prize of $500 a year for life or $6,000 in one cash payment. The third prize was awarded to Miss Helen McCreeght, 2318 West 17th Street, Little Rock, Arkansas. Miss McCreeght will have the choice of $100 a year for life or $1,200 in one cash payment.

The three prize winners will be given two weeks in which to choose whether they prefer the cash settlements or the life incomes. The annuities, if chosen, will be purchased by Procter & Gamble from a reliable insurance company.

A complete list of all prize winners in the Camay contest will be sent every entrant in the contest, it was announced by the sponsors of the contest.

In addition to the 3 grand prizes, 1,210 other prizes will be awarded as follows: 10 prizes of $100 each, 100 prizes of $10 each, 100 prizes of $5 each, and 1,000 prizes of $2 each. The Camay slogan contest, which was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer

was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

KYLE RAMSEY LODGED IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY JAIL

DEATH OF ROY ROGERS EXPLAINED

Woman's Confession is Made To Sheriff Brown

According to last Sunday's Asheville Citizen - Times the mystery surrounding the death December 19 of Roy Rogers, brother of Miss Roberta Rogers, has been explained. The Asheville paper's report says:

The confession of Essie Carver, 23-year-old Rankin avenue woman that she and her first cousin, Herschell Carver, 35, of Leicester were with J. Roy Rogers 48-year-old Turkey Creek farmer when he was killed December 19 was announced by Sheriff Laurence E. Brown late last night.

Sheriff Brown said the woman admitted that the three of them were in Rogers' car on the Goodman road near steam power plant of the Carolina Power and Light Company, at Craggy where his body later was found lying beside the road.

The Carver woman said she got out of the car near the scene of the killing, Sheriff Brown asserted, and had walked 40 or 50 feet down the road when she heard a shot. She had left her cousin in the car with Rogers, she admitted.

She returned quickly to the automobile, Sheriff Brown quoted the woman as saying, and found Rogers dead.

Divided Money

Sheriff Brown said the Carver woman told him that she and her cousin then divided the money on Rogers' person, less than $100, the exact amount undetermined.

The body was dumped beside the road, and the two returned to Asheville, where they registered at a hotel in the depot section.

According to the sheriff, the woman admitted that Rogers picked up her and her cousin uptown on the day of the killing and that they were together practically all day. The shooting occurred a little after sunset.

Sheriff Brown said Carver will be charged with murder. It is expected that the woman will be charged with being an accessory to the murder. He declined to say what if any statement Carver had made regarding the

Mars Hill College Announces Football Schedule

The football schedule as announced here today is practically the same as that played last year. But one change is noted, that of Campbell college to the list of games to be played. Mars Hill will play every team in the North Carolina Conference. The only game in question is the one with Rutherford College, as no information has been received as to whether or not they will play next year. The date of September 26th has been offered to them.

SCHEDULE:—Rutherford college at Mars Hill, Sept. 26; Wingate, at Mars Hill, Oct. 3; Campbell, at Mars Hill, Oct. 10; Lees McRae, at Mars Hill, Oct. 17; Belmont Abbey, at Mars Hill, Oct. 24; Oak Ridge at Oak Ridge, Oct. 31; Presbyterian college, at Mars Hill, Nov. 7; boiling Springs, at Mars Hill, Nov. 14; Brevard, at Mars Hill, Nov. 26.

Mrs. Lockamy Dies

Funeral services were conducted at Fairview Methodist church, near Hot Springs at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Dec. 31, for Mrs. D. F. Lockamy, 17, of Fayetteville, who died at her home there Sunday night.

Mrs. Lockamy, before her marriage was Miss Carrie Ledford, daughter of Mrs. Martha Ledford, of Hot Springs. Mrs. Lockamy is survived by her husband, her mother, and one sister, Mrs. Herman A. Puryear, all of Hot Springs. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Robert M. Varner, pastor of the Methodist church.

Her Slogan Won $1,000 a Year For Life, or $12,000 Lump Sum

HOW does it feel to win a thousand dollars a year for life—or $12,000 in one cash payment?

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer of Torrington, Wyoming, can tell you the answer because she has just won first prize in the nation-wide Camay slogan contest sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company. No wonder she is smiling! Mrs. Bloomer is pictured just after she received the award from Governor Leslie A. Miller of Wyoming.

Frederick J. Forster, 33 Aberdeen Street, Rochester, New York, took the second Camay slogan prize of $500 a year for life or $6,000 in one cash payment. The third prize was awarded to Miss Helen McCreeght, 2318 West 17th Street, Little Rock, Arkansas. Miss McCreeght will have the choice of $100 a year for life or $1,200 in one cash payment.

The three prize winners will be given two weeks in which to choose whether they prefer the cash settlements or the life incomes. The annuities, if chosen, will be purchased by Procter & Gamble from a reliable insurance company.

A complete list of all prize winners in the Camay contest will be sent every entrant in the contest, it was announced by the sponsors of the contest.

In addition to the 3 grand prizes, 1,210 other prizes will be awarded as follows: 10 prizes of $100 each, 100 prizes of $10 each, 100 prizes of $5 each, and 1,000 prizes of $2 each. The Camay slogan contest, which was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer

was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

KYLE RAMSEY LODGED IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY JAIL

DEATH OF ROY ROGERS EXPLAINED

Woman's Confession is Made To Sheriff Brown

According to last Sunday's Asheville Citizen - Times the mystery surrounding the death December 19 of Roy Rogers, brother of Miss Roberta Rogers, has been explained. The Asheville paper's report says:

The confession of Essie Carver, 23-year-old Rankin avenue woman that she and her first cousin, Herschell Carver, 35, of Leicester were with J. Roy Rogers 48-year-old Turkey Creek farmer when he was killed December 19 was announced by Sheriff Laurence E. Brown late last night.

Sheriff Brown said the woman admitted that the three of them were in Rogers' car on the Goodman road near steam power plant of the Carolina Power and Light Company, at Craggy where his body later was found lying beside the road.

The Carver woman said she got out of the car near the scene of the killing, Sheriff Brown asserted, and had walked 40 or 50 feet down the road when she heard a shot. She had left her cousin in the car with Rogers, she admitted.

She returned quickly to the automobile, Sheriff Brown quoted the woman as saying, and found Rogers dead.

Divided Money

Sheriff Brown said the Carver woman told him that she and her cousin then divided the money on Rogers' person, less than $100, the exact amount undetermined.

The body was dumped beside the road, and the two returned to Asheville, where they registered at a hotel in the depot section.

According to the sheriff, the woman admitted that Rogers picked up her and her cousin uptown on the day of the killing and that they were together practically all day. The shooting occurred a little after sunset.

Sheriff Brown said Carver will be charged with murder. It is expected that the woman will be charged with being an accessory to the murder. He declined to say what if any statement Carver had made regarding the

Mars Hill College Announces Football Schedule

The football schedule as announced here today is practically the same as that played last year. But one change is noted, that of Campbell college to the list of games to be played. Mars Hill will play every team in the North Carolina Conference. The only game in question is the one with Rutherford College, as no information has been received as to whether or not they will play next year. The date of September 26th has been offered to them.

SCHEDULE:—Rutherford college at Mars Hill, Sept. 26; Wingate, at Mars Hill, Oct. 3; Campbell, at Mars Hill, Oct. 10; Lees McRae, at Mars Hill, Oct. 17; Belmont Abbey, at Mars Hill, Oct. 24; Oak Ridge at Oak Ridge, Oct. 31; Presbyterian college, at Mars Hill, Nov. 7; boiling Springs, at Mars Hill, Nov. 14; Brevard, at Mars Hill, Nov. 26.

Mrs. Lockamy Dies

Funeral services were conducted at Fairview Methodist church, near Hot Springs at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, Dec. 31, for Mrs. D. F. Lockamy, 17, of Fayetteville, who died at her home there Sunday night.

Mrs. Lockamy, before her marriage was Miss Carrie Ledford, daughter of Mrs. Martha Ledford, of Hot Springs. Mrs. Lockamy is survived by her husband, her mother, and one sister, Mrs. Herman A. Puryear, all of Hot Springs. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Robert M. Varner, pastor of the Methodist church.

Her Slogan Won $1,000 a Year For Life, or $12,000 Lump Sum

HOW does it feel to win a thousand dollars a year for life—or $12,000 in one cash payment?

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer of Torrington, Wyoming, can tell you the answer because she has just won first prize in the nation-wide Camay slogan contest sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company. No wonder she is smiling! Mrs. Bloomer is pictured just after she received the award from Governor Leslie A. Miller of Wyoming.

Frederick J. Forster, 33 Aberdeen Street, Rochester, New York, took the second Camay slogan prize of $500 a year for life or $6,000 in one cash payment. The third prize was awarded to Miss Helen McCreeght, 2318 West 17th Street, Little Rock, Arkansas. Miss McCreeght will have the choice of $100 a year for life or $1,200 in one cash payment.

The three prize winners will be given two weeks in which to choose whether they prefer the cash settlements or the life incomes. The annuities, if chosen, will be purchased by Procter & Gamble from a reliable insurance company.

A complete list of all prize winners in the Camay contest will be sent every entrant in the contest, it was announced by the sponsors of the contest.

In addition to the 3 grand prizes, 1,210 other prizes will be awarded as follows: 10 prizes of $100 each, 100 prizes of $10 each, 100 prizes of $5 each, and 1,000 prizes of $2 each. The Camay slogan contest, which was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

Mrs. J. W. Bloomer

was sponsored by The Procter & Gamble Company closed on September 30th, after arousing tremendous interest throughout the country. The contest was open to all persons in the United States and Hawaii other than employees of The Procter & Gamble Company, their advertising agencies and their families.

Katherine G. Ganger, Associate Editor, Woman's Home Companion, Hildegarde Higgins, Beauty Editor, McCall's Magazine, and Ruth Murray, Beauty Editor, Good Housekeeping Magazine, were in charge of the judging.

KYLE RAMSEY LODGED IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY JAIL

DEATH OF ROY ROGERS EXPLAINED

Woman's Confession is Made To Sheriff Brown

According to last Sunday's Asheville Citizen - Times the mystery surrounding the death December 19 of Roy Rogers, brother of Miss Roberta Rogers, has been explained. The Asheville paper's report says:

The confession of Essie Carver, 23-year-old Rankin avenue woman that she and her first cousin, Herschell Carver, 35, of Leicester were with J. Roy Rogers 48-year-old Turkey Creek farmer when he was killed December 19 was announced by Sheriff Laurence E. Brown late last night.

Sheriff Brown said the woman admitted that the three of them were in Rogers' car on the Goodman road near steam power plant of the Carolina Power and Light Company, at Craggy where his body later was found lying beside the road.

The Carver woman said she got out of the car near the scene of the killing, Sheriff Brown asserted, and had walked 40 or 50 feet down the road when she heard a shot. She had left her cousin in the car with Rogers, she admitted.

She returned quickly to the automobile, Sheriff Brown quoted the woman as saying, and found Rogers dead.

Divided Money

Sheriff Brown said the Carver woman told him that she and her cousin then divided the money on Rogers' person, less than $100, the exact amount undetermined.

The body was dumped beside the road, and the two returned to Asheville, where they registered at a hotel in the depot section.

According to the sheriff, the woman admitted that Rogers picked up her and her cousin uptown on the day of the killing and that they were together practically all day. The shooting occurred a little after sunset.

Sheriff Brown said Carver will be charged with murder. It is expected that the woman will be charged with being an accessory to the murder. He declined to say what if any statement Carver had made regarding the

Mars Hill College Announces Football Schedule

The football schedule as announced here today is practically the same as that played last year. But one change is noted, that of Campbell college to the list of games to be played. Mars Hill will play every team in the North Carolina Conference. The only game in question is the one with Rutherford College, as no information has been received as to whether or not they will play next year. The date of September 26th has been offered to them.

SCHEDULE