The Curse of Progress

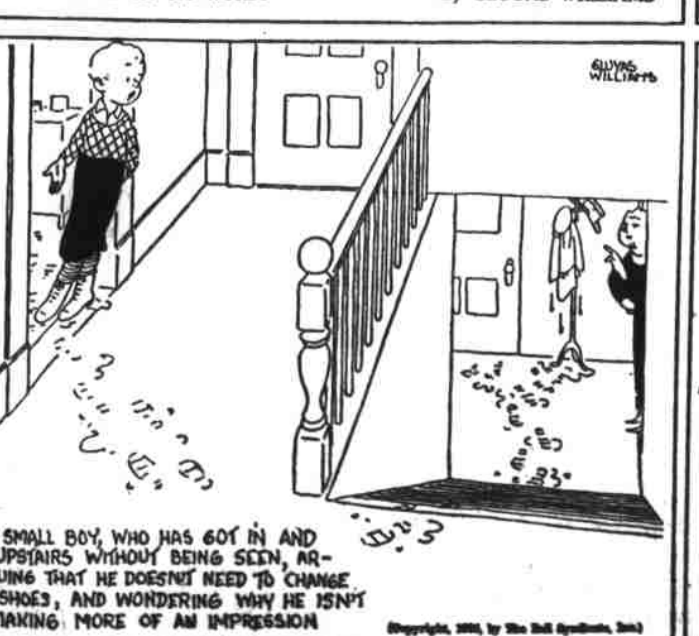

Comparison
Fred's English cousin was curious about things American. "Is the Mississippi as large as our Thames?" he inquired.
"Haw, haw!" laughed Fred. "As large? Say, your Thames wouldn't make a gargle for our Mississippi's mouth!"

Song Birds
Guest—Only once in history has the personality of a great singer inspired a great chef in the naming of a masterpiece—when we got the peche Melba.
"Flapper—Oh, but I'm sure you're wrong there. What about the oyster Patti?"

The Point of View
Two men occupying the same seat on a bus got into a conversation.
"So you are a doctor, eh?" said one.
"Yes," replied the other.
"Well," said one, "in a way our work is alike. I'm a window washer and work on panes. too."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

THE WORLD AT ITS WORST

By GLUYAS WILLIAMS

Cheese Pie
1 cup cottage cheese
½ cup sugar.
2 eggs.
1½ cups milk.
½ cup cream (sweet or sour).
1 teaspoon salt.
Line a pan with light pastry; brush the lower crust with white of egg.
Rub the cheese and cream into fine mixture; add salt. Beat eggs and sugar together and add to cheese mixture. Then add milk and mix well. Fill crust and dot with seeded raisins.
Bake, first fifteen minutes in fast oven (400), then slow down (375) until just set.
Serve slightly warm.

Bank of France
The Bank of France is a unique institution, probably the most exclusive organization in the world. It is privately owned with 40,000 stockholders, yet it completely controls French finances. It owns all the gold in France, the national treasury having not one franc in its vaults.
It alone issues bank notes. It lends money to the government. It may shut off credit at any time—and it has done so frequently. Unlike our own Federal Reserve system, it also does a commercial business with more than six hundred branch offices in the nation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
