the Mars Hill home of Ferguson's grandmother on May 3. The Norton boy, from New York, was visiting there at the time. The two boys were alone in the house and young Ferguson was playing with a shotgun, pointing it at various objects in the net, he said, that it was not loaded. It was testified that he pointed the gun at the head of the Norton boy and pulled the trigger, the weapon discharging and killing the boy.

THANK YOU

With malice toward none, and a pledge of loyalty to all, I take this opportunity of thanking all my friends for their loyal support in Saturday's primary. I assure you that I shall endeavor to make you an efficient and trustworthy Auditor, always ready to serve when needed. Again thanking one and all for the trust you have given me, I am

Sincerely your friend,

L. ZACK ELLER

VOTERS, THANK YOU

There has never been a more happy moment in my life than the feeling that came to me at the "COUNT OUT" last Saturday night. In spite of all things that were said against me you voted for me and made me the high candidate for Sheriff. You will never know just how great is my appreciation to every one of you for your loyalty to me. Some day I shall show you by my acts just how much I appreciate you.

To those of my friends who did not support me in this race I tell you here and now that I am your friend too. I know you had good reason for voting for the other candidates, all of whom were good men, and my friends. If you have any doubt, please call upon me sometime for a favor and see if I do not do all I can to help you. I thank everyone for this great honor and after I am elected your Sheriff I shall do my best to do the right thing as GOD GIVES ME WISDOM TO SEE THE RIGHT.

It grieves me very much to have to call upon you to again go to the polls on the 27th day of June, 1942, and vote for me again, but I have been forced into a second primary at a tremendous cost to the taxpayers and people of Madison County. As I have told many of you before, if I were beaten only one vote I would have congratulated my opponent and told him that I was his strongest supporter in the general election. Now, since I am forced to enter a second primary, I am calling upon the Republican voters of Madison County to support me again in this second primary. We shall fight a good fight. We shall keep the faith, and we shall win the victory.

Your Servant,
JETER P. RAMSEY
