

S-RECORD

PRICE: $2.50 A YEAR

Commencement Schedules Are Announced For County Schools

183 Students To Graduate; 326
Students To Enter
High School

NO. 18

W. W. Peek, county superintendent, announced this week that approximately 183 students would POINTER THE graduate this month from Madison County schools and that approximately 326 students would be promoted talaureate Service, Sermon by Dr. A. Ellison Jenkins, member of the Mars Hill College faculty. Wednesday, May 25 at 8:00 p. m., Eighth grade commencement exercises. Speaker Dr. Robert Holt, vice president of Mars Hill College. Thurs-(Continued to Last Page)

T.B. COMMITTEE MAKES PLAN FOR X-RAY SURVEY

A supper meeting of the Madison County Tuberculosis Committee was held Friday syming in the Commubeld Friday evening in the Commu-nity Boilding at Mary Hill for the auryone of making preliminary plans for the mass X-Ray survey which will be held in the county in late summer.

of Buncombe County, spoke on the value of X-raying all people over will be handled by Jim Story of Mar-

15 years of age and particularly shall and Dot Shupe of Walnut. urged that adults over 60 be X-rayed. Dr Marjorie Lord, Health Officer Day Camp For Girl of Madison County, also spoke regarding the mass X-ray survey and Scouts To Be Held outlined tentative plans. Those attending the meeting were Mrs. Ammons Dr. Stevens, Dr. Lord, Dr. S. W. Vance, Mrs. Floreace Bell and Mrs. Annie Fox, county health nurses; Don Cox, Mrs. Harvey Lance, Miss Lula Chandler, Mrs. James Story, and William B. Braswell, Field Secretary of the N. C. Tuberculosis Association.

MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

The Juniors, Intermediates and Young People of the Marshall BTU will be on duty when the swimming will be in charge of the service Sun- pool is open. Parents of Scouts who day night at the Marshall Baptist wish to be registered for the Day Church when a Mother's Day pro- Camp are asked to notify the Troop gram will be presented.

Miss Barbara Davis is in charge of arrangements and an impressive service has been arranged. Special music, poems, and readings will feature the service.

The public is cordially invited and a special invitation is extended all parents and grandparents of the young people of the church.

The service will begin at

Weekly Legislatives Summary

series of weekly summaries pre-pared by the legislative staff of the Institute of Government on the work of the North Carolina General As-sembly of 1955. It is confined to discussions of matters of general interest and major importance.

Those who thought this would be the week of decision for the 1955

PAGES

MARS HILL

HEADS MADISON

LIBRARY GROUP

June 27 - July 1

Day Camp for Girl Scouts and through July 1, from 9:30 a. m., to Charleston, S. C.

Brownie Scouts of Madison County

3:00 p. m., each day. Transportation from town to the camp site and back will be provided by the Troop

Committees. All registered Girl

Scouts and Brownies are eligible to attend the Day Camp. A health examination wil lbe required and a registration fee of about $2.50 will be charged. This fee will cover the cost of daily milk, insurance and general equipment. There will be an adult on duty for each 8 girls and a registered nurse will be present

each day. A qualified life guard

Sunday School Rally

At Methodist Church

The annual Church School Rally

Day will be observed in the Marshall Methodist Church on May 15 at 10:00 A. M. Captain Henry of the enting Bible Characters, Mr. J. A.

Yesterday, Today and Forever'.'

WALNUT SENIORS

Seventeen members of the and class of Walnut High School parned Priday stont from a four Florida last week. On the

FROM FLORID

Leader by May 9.

Mrs. Walter Ramsey of Marshall

N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1955

"We are indeed proud of this great cooperation of the small Negro chills dren," one official stated.

An estimated 65% of all first and second graders in the county received the first dose of vaccine with the second dose to be administered next week.

Thirdday showed 36 per cent of chose colling tayored the combination of the second dose to be administered next week.

Thirdday showed 36 per cent of chose colling tayored the combination of the second dose to be administered next week.

Thirdday showed 36 per cent of chose colling tayored the combination of the small price supports.

Thirdday showed 36 per cent of chose colling tayorable vote at Popular, Cane Diver near Sious, North Toe River at Altapas, Sandy Mush River near Alexander.

Also Cane Creek at Fletcher, Mud Creek at Naples, Clear Creek near Hendersonville, Boylston Creek near Hendersonville, Boylston Creek near Horseshoe, Crab Creek near Penrose.

tros and only 1,714 The pregious record the goat in 1939, was named president of the Friends the Madis of the Library group at an organi- wald that he

Two dadison Men

Enlist In U.S. Navy

The men are Frank Thomas Ogle,

Don Ray Shelton of RFD 1, Mars

Hill is now undergoing his recruit training at the U .S. Naval Training

Grazing of domestic stock is prohibited on the mountain districts of the North Carolina National For-

Madison Man Charged

In U. S. Liquor Case

A hearing will be conducted at 11

a. m., Friday by U. S. Commissioner Lawrence Stoker for Legat Chand-violation of the Federal liquor laws.

Chandley, arrested Wednesday, was charged with illegal possession of an unlicensed distillery, with illegal possession of mash, with illegal non-tax-paid liquor,

Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

of RFD 2, Marshall, who reenlisted

the month of April.

will be held this year from June 27 and is now at the U. S. Naval Base, re enlisted in the U.S. Navy during businessmen.

for a second enlistment of four years automobiles.

FRENCH BROAD FLOOD CONTROL SEEN DOOMED

WNC burley tobacco growers last week joined the swelling list of farming the first list of farming the first list year.

In 15 Jec. Talia paunties, the vote

Estimated 65% Of First And

Estimated 65% Of First And

Treatment in County

The Madison Cause Madison County In the Madison Cause Madison Cau

from grammar grades to high school during commencement exercises which will be observed this month.

The Madison County Health Department this week announced that the various county schools:

Marshall—Friday, May 20 at 8:00 o'clock, Senior play, "Big As Life."

Sunday, May 22 at 11:00 a.m., Bac
We are indeed proud of this great in a sunday for a su

Horseshoe, Crab Creek near Penrose and Little River near Penrose.

Three of the stations-Can Creek Mud Creek and Little River-were envisioned as detention dam points by Gray's committee. The French Broad flood control plan called for the exection of at least seven deten-tion damn in tributaries. It was be-any revised when the announcement ig of the gauging stations

Hot Springs is still working to repair the damage caused by the hail-an inch in diameter, and the intensity of the storm left the pellets as

Madison Girl Arrested

girl who had been reported missing from her home by her parents since one place, local people said.

In Asheville On A

Theft Charge

night on theft charges.

storm of three weeks ago.

many birds.

Marshall, Mars Hill, Hot Springs Name Officials At Elections Tues.

JOHN WARD, 68, PASSES MONDAY; RITES WEDNESDAY

Well-Known Maintenance Employee Of Schools Dies At Home

John Ward, 68, maintenance employee of Madison County schools for many years, died Monday, May 2, 1955, at 9 a. m., in his home here. He was well known in this section.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2:00 p. m., in the home. The Rev. R. S. Woodson, the Rev. Robert N. Barefoot and the Rev. Arthur Hensley officiated. Burial was in the Bowman-Rector Cemetery. Pallbearers were J. P., and Leo Fortner, Charles Crowe, Ralph Ramsey, Donald and Conrad Ward. Survivors are the widow; three daughters, Mrs. Everett Crow, Mrs. Iverson Bradley and Miss Eloise Ward, all of Marshall; four sons. Eugene, John Jr., Hugh and Cleophus Ward, all of Marshall; one sister, Mrs. Otis Muse of Pleasant Ridge, aldermen. Mich.; four brothers, V. C., and B.

nettsville, S. C.; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Bowman-Rector Funcial Hom was in charge of arran committee for the di in Madis County, as announced by W. W. Peck, superintenden of coun-

Damage to buildings was estimat-District 1 - Mewdall-Roy Free-Two men from Madison County ed at $30,000 to $40,000 by local man, Jack Sprinkle, F. E. Freeman. The hail tore holes in nearly every Brigman, Obrey roof in town, broke window lights in the business section and damaged District 3 - Spring Creek -Fowler, Andy Woody. Besides this the pellets killed District 5 - Hot Springs ris Buquo, T. A. Russell, Reeves Some of the hail stones measured

District 6 - Laurel-Elbert Gentry, Floyd Wallin, Byard Ray, A. E. high as two feet deep in a drift at antrell, Taft Chandley,

District 8 - Ebbs Chapel - Hardy Whitt, Claude Cody, H. E. Eng lish, Wayne English, Charles Biankenship. District 9 - Beech Glen - Nat Blankenship, T. D. Hicks, Jack Fair

District 10 - Mars Hill - D. M. Robinson, Coy Morgan, Theodore An 18-year-old Madison County Robinson.

District 10 - Mars Hill Colored Avery Ray, Mrs .Gustie Ray,

the first part of April, was arrested ley of Madison County, charged with by city police in Asheville Saturday DOZER THAT Capt. Harold Brownlee, chief of KILLED ONE the detective department, said Josephine Dockery of Marshall, RFD 2, was placed in city jail, charged INJURES MAN operation of an unlicensed distillers, with theft of $110 from George Moand with removing and concealing retz Jr., of 37 Merrimon Avenue on An Asheville man Friday narrowly escaped death from the same bulldozer that took the life of another man last winter.

Rass Merrill, 44, of West Asheville was injured but snatched to safety by a companion as his body hit the track of the machine while they were working in Madison County's Sandy Mush section.

Merrill was treated in Memorial Mission Hospital, Asheville, for a broken arm and internal injuries.

Merrill was operating the bulidozer about noon when it slipped out of the neople the wonderful progress gear and started downhill. He tried to jump and was caught in the > all of Alexander was caught in the the same muchine

Marshall, Mars Hill and Hot Springs voters Tuesday named their

MARSHALL

Clarence Nix was elected Marshall's new mayor Tuesday, topping a threeman field with 314 votes.

town officials in what was termed

"heavy voting." Below are the re-

Loy P. Roberts was runnerup, with 124 votes, and C. B. Haynie, third, with 53.

In the six man race for the three board of aldermen posts, Liston B. Ramsey, with 373 votes, and J. C. Dodson, with 352, were re-elected, and Fred Redmon became the new member of the board as he polled 319 votes.

The other candidates for aldermen were Delmer Payne, who drew 147 votes; Vader Shelton, 139; and W. B. Zink, 132.

Mayor Clyde Rob rts did not seek e-election.

A total 500 ballots were cast Tues-

MARS HILL

Mars Hill citizens Tuesday elected a new mayor and town board of Owen Tilson defeated R. M. Les C., of Weaverville, Roy Ward of for mayor, 243 votes to 96.

Woodleaf and W. H. Ward of Benformerly held the office and served for 20 years.

Named to the board were Bruce Sams, with 20 votes; Ar Wood, with 164; and Paul To states for alde

Mayor

Named Aldermen were Charles District 2 — Walnut — Moody Schaffer, with $27; Aubrey Ramsey C. Kirby received 143 R.

votes. The third incumbent, Frank T. Moore, did not seek re-election because he will move to Marshall.

COFFMAN RESIGNS AS HOT SPRINGS SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Leonard Coffman, principal and head coach at Hot Springs High School for 18 months, Tuesday announced his resignation effective at he end of the current school year, in order to accept a position as head coach and assistant principal at Greeneville, Tenn., High School.

Coffman is a native of Greeneville. He will succeed Ty Disney at ireeneville, who coached Coffman through high school .

Coffman was an All-American conorable mention fullback at the University of Tennessee in the late 10. He played with the Vols in the 1938 Orange Bowl and the 1939 Rese

He was the first full-time footbal each in the history of Hot Spring

During World Wan (II Co was an infantry major in the Pl nes and shortly after the was nanaged the Pacific Olympics saka, Japan.

He served as backfield c Bowden Wyatt at the Co Wyoming from 1946 he was recalled to active structor at Wyoming

Marshall High School Band Salvation Army in Asheville will speak and a special service with the Intermediates and Juniors repres-To Give Parade Wednesday Dennis is the leader of the service with the theme: "The Eternal Word,

Public Urged To Contribute Funds For Overdue Expenses

In an effort to raise funds for al of Main Street to the north end, turn and then return to the Island. This parade is being planned so that both, the junior band and the senior band can combine and show which is being made.

Members of the senior chass will track. But he was pulled to safety be on the sidewalls where contributed by Safola Ramsey of Marshall RFD tions can be made by services. It 3.

About two months ago, Warren