Although I was not elected as a member of the board of aldermen in the May 3 election, I want you to know that I appreciate the support given me and the votes I received.

DELMER PAYNE

Library Worker Appointed For North Carolina Stores

Nashville, Tenn. — (BSSB) Miss Addie Mae Cooke, former newspaper woman, has been appointed church library consultant for the Baptist Book Stores serving North Carolina, located in Charlotte and Raleigh.

A native North Carolinian, Miss Cooke was born and reared in Ahsokie. She received her BA from Chowan College, Murfreesboro, where she later served as dean of women for two years.

In partnership with Parker Brothers of Ahsokie, Miss Cooke established and edited the Gates County Index, weekly newspaper at Gatesville, and edited and published the Cherokee Scout, weekly, in Murphy, ten years. She now publishes a small magazine Go Ye, at Murfreesboro, where she has lived for the past three years.

Miss Cooke has served on Baptist denominational Orphanage and Home for the Aging boards, and the General North Carolina Baptist State Board, and on state, local, and associational Baptist committees.

As book store library consultant, Miss Cooke will have headquarters in Raleigh, but will spend some time in the Charlotte store. Much of her work will be on the field, assisting churches in starting and promoting libraries.

The Baptist Book Stores are owned and operated by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Miss Mary Ayscue is manager of the Raleigh store, and Miss Jo Gwin, the Charlotte store.

THANKS VOTERS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the voters who supported me in the May 3 election in my bid for alderman for the Town of Marshall.

New Dodge Custom Royal Lancer . . . glamorous "hardtop."

What's all this talk about "Price Class!"

It gets to be a little confusing—this talk about what "price class" a car is in. This new Dodge is making a clean sweep in every price field!

Owners who are used to paying a thousand dollars more for a car find that money can't buy more luxury, more exciting features and beauty than in the dashing Custom Royal Lancer shown above. It's up to 9 inches longer than competitive models costing more!

And owners of so-called "low-priced cars" are finding that a new Dodge, with all its dashing length and flashing style, can be theirs for only a few dollars a month more than any of the small cars—up to 19 inches shorter and far less exciting!

In fact, the Dodge Coronet 4-door shown below actually costs less than some models in the lowest price class. So let yourself go. Travel first class in the car that's knocking "price class" into a cocked hat.
