EXPERT NOT SO EXPERT

Pratt, Kansas — Introduced to the members of the Knife and Fork Club as a memory expert, a visitor delighted the audience by recalling first, and last names of all the men he had met. However, a few days later, the club secretary, Herman Unruh, received a letter from George Bailey, the expert, stating that Bailey had forgotten his past — couldn't remember where he had left it.

The first of the cold snap expected to descend upon the state took hold yesterday.
