

Mars Hill Fifth Grade Holds A Hobby Show

Mrs. Annie Young's 5th grade Hobby Show was held recently at Mars Hill school. This event started through an English discussion on hobbies. The three divisions were collecting, making, and games. The girls who had making as a hobby, made candy and cookies, which they served in the class.

The boys and girls exhibited pictures, stamps, sea shells, postcards, minerals, rocks, leaves, wild flowers, salt and pepper shakers, and Indian arrowheads, which they had collected. The largest exhibit in size was the race car which was made by Richard Anderson. Visitors were invited to view the exhibit.

The third event was the athletic contest between Mrs. Ammons' and Miss Young's boys.

ETSC JAYVEES DEFEAT MARS HILL BY 26-6 SCORE

East Tennessee State's Jayvees rammed across two touchdowns in the first quarter and never relinquished the lead as they knocked off the Mars Hill Lions, 26-6, Thursday night at Mars Hill.

The first score came in the opening minutes of play when East Tennessee end Charles Taylor blocked a Mars Hill kick which tackle Willie Sikes recovered in the end zone.

Minutes later, tackle Dick Craig recovered a Mars Hill fumble on the Lions' 12. Bill Johnson gained five and Henry Lowe passed to Johnson for the remaining distance. Johnson added the conversion.

Mars Hill's only touchdown came late in the period when Sammy Reese recovered an ET fumble on the visitors' 28. Bobby Robinson picked up four yards and penalties carried the ball to the four. Tommy Cogdill plunged over from the three for the score.

A 33-yard jaunt by Johnson accounted for ET's third-quarter touchdown with Don Lobertini making the conversion. Erskine Edmunds scored the fourth-period touchdown from 10 yards out.
