BARBARA ELOISE REDMON WEDS WILLIAM L. PAYNE

Miss Barbara Eloise Redmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Redmon of Asheville RFD 4, became the bride of William Leonard Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmitte Payne of Walnut, Sunday, January 15, 1966 at 2:30 p. m., in the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. Hugh Rhymer, retired pastor, conducted the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. P. J. Cody, pianist, and Miss Ernestine Reeves, vocalist.

The couple entered together and the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace with a full ballerina-length skirt, long sleeves ending in points over the hands, a Peter Pan collar, formal empire bodice topped with a brief buid jacket and satin cummerbund. Her two-tiered fingertip veil of illusion fell from a Juliet cap of lace and seed pearls. She carried a purple orchid on a white Bible with streamers.

Flower girl was Kathryn Elaine Redmon, sister of the bride, and ringbearer was Gaye Lynn Fowler, cousin of the bridegroom.

The bridegroom's father was best man.

An informal reception followed in the home. Assisting were Mrs. Groce Robinson of Candler, Mrs. Leland Sullins and Mrs. Louise Renison, both of Asheville, RFD 2, and
