TEASING FATAL

New York — Friends teased William Oliver, 17, so much about his qualifications to become a paratrooper that, as they were crossing Harlem Bridge, the boy, flushed with anger, vaulted the 4-foot railing, removed his shirt and shoes and plunged 180 feet to the river below. It took an hour to recover his body.

INTERCEPTOR CARS

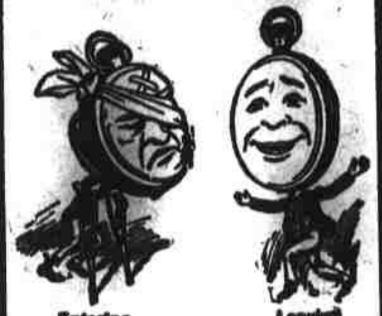

Los Angeles — The warning is out not to try to outrun the cops on the Los Angeles freeways. The police have a new freeway interceptor car which can accelerate from a standstill to 60 miles per hour in 2 1/2 seconds, will do 45 in low, 85 in second and well over 100 mph in high, developing 188 horsepower. These speedwagons also look just like any other patrol car.

DROWNING STRIKES

TWICE IN FAMILY

Poolesville, Md. — Four years almost to the day after Frances Hamt, 14, was drowned in a swimming accident, her sister, Dorothy, 14, was drowned in the swift current of the Potomac River. An older sister, Gladys, 16, and three cousins, narrowly escaped the same fate.
