Leaves For Germany

Mrs. Joyce Cochran, nee Miss Joyce Flynn, left Wednesday for New York and Idlewild Airport where she will leave by Pan-American Airlines for Frankfurt, Germany to join her husband who is in military service.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Flynn of the Enon community.

Mrs. Cochran, who visited Dr. W. A. Sams here Tuesday, stated that she is thrilled over the prospects of going to Germany. Dr. Sams, in telling her goodbye, remarked, "Joyce is one of my prize babies, being born March 18, 1936, during the big snow. I always call Joyce my snowbird."
