STRANGE COINCIDENCES

Los Angeles, Cal. — Mrs. Elizabeth Bosshard and Mrs. Jacqueline Luscher, both 28, occupying the same room in the maternity ward of a local hospital, where each gave birth to a baby daughter the same night, had a great deal in common. Although they did not know each other, they were both born in Biel, Switzerland, were married on the same day July 22, 1950 — in different parts of the world. Both couples came to live in Los Angeles and met in August, 1953 at a Swiss National holiday gathering in Swiss Park in nearby Azusa. It was the first child for each couple and both left the hospital the same day. The fact that a politician is always in hot water doesn't mean he has a clean record.

Miss Irene Olive, who had served as Director of Religious Education in the church here for almost five years, left this week to take up similar work in the church at Salem, Va. She was the honoree at an informal fellowship hour after church services last Sunday evening, at which time a gift was presented from the Sunday School and also from the college department of the Sunday School. Mr. Boyce Hunter is still undergoing tests at Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem. Mrs. Hunter is there with him.

Miss Alma Freeman left Monday for a ten-day trip to Omaha, Neb., where she will attend the annual counsel of the Christian Missionary and Alliance Church.

Miss Irene Willis is a patient at St. Joseph's Hospital. The Robinson boys, Doug Jr., Charles and Grove, of Chapel Hill, visited their families here for Mother's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Huff and sons, Billy and Bobby, of Greenville, S. C., were visitors here also last Sunday, with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Dycus and children visited his parents in Shelby last weekend for the church homecoming day on Sunday.

Mrs. E. C. Coates spent last week end in Hendersonville with her daughter, Mrs. Earl Coates and family.

Miss Bernice Ammons, Mrs. Iris Buckner and Mrs. George Watkins attended the wedding of a niece last Saturday in Seneca, S. C.

Misses Rinda and Maxine Edwards and Frances Ray, students at ASTC, Boone, will be returning this weekend, following commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Patterson and daughter, Sara Frances, of Wilson spent the week-end with Mrs. E. R. Elmore, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bryson, and Miss Sara Elmore at their home in Mars Hill. Mrs. Patterson is a daughter of Mrs. Elmore.
