URANIUM-PAVED ROAD

Sydney, Australia — A road on the outskirts of Carcoar, in western New South Wales, has been found to be paved with uranium. So are the bush tracks leading to the town's long disused iron-ore shafts. Tests conducted by the Government revealed that the iron-ore shafts are rich with uranium and that the hills surrounding the town also contain large deposits.

MIDDLE LAUREL

AND CARMEN

A revival meeting is planned to begin at Carmen Church of God on Monday night, July 2 at 7:45. The Rev. Norville Peek of Murphy is the evangelist. This revival plans to go on for one week at Carmen and then move to Middle Laurel and continue there. Everybody is invited. If you have singers, bring them and help out in the meeting. The Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Osteen are the pastors.

The annual decoration of the Cutshaw graveyard is July 8 at 2 p. m. All singers are invited. Several trios, quartets and duets are expected. Everybody is welcome.

Our pastor will be at Middle Laurel Saturday night and Sunday morning and at Carmen Sunday night. Try to attend some of these services. We have a wonderful pastor. Come out and hear him.

We are having a wonderful Sunday School at Middle Laurel. We were glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Otis Chandle from Greenville with us Sunday. There were also a number of visitors from Tennessee at Carmen Sunday. Plan to go to church somewhere Sunday.

BEECH GLEN

Bible School is in progress at the church this week from 8:30 a. m. to 11:30. The attendance is good and the work the group is doing very worthy.

Mrs. Tommy Moffitt Jr., the former Miss Ruth Metcalf, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Metcalf. Mrs. Moffitt resides in Miami, Fla.

Several from the community, including Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gillis, Mr. and Mrs. Emory Moxley, Pearl Gillis and Paul Moxley, attended the funeral services Thursday of Mr. Will Gillis of Broadhead, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Chambers and children of Detroit, Mich., recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Justice.

Roy Young had a very painful accident Saturday while mowing on his farm. Details are not known, but he almost lost the fingers of his left hand.

Bobby Young, who is in the armed service, was at home Saturday spending a 24-hour leave.

Miss Sue Phillips spent the week-end with relatives in Asheville.

Mr. Claude Deaver and family made a trip to South Carolina last week and spent a few days with their daughter, Estelle, and her family.

A New Racket

Returning to his family's spot on the beach, the little boy found them preparing to leave.

"Come on," said his mother. "We're going to a restaurant for a good dinner."

"I'm not hungry," he replied. "I've eaten seven ice cream cones this afternoon."

"Where did you get seven ice cream cones? You don't have any money."

"I didn't need money. I just wandered all around the beach crying and making believe I was lost."
