HERSEY AND EDDEN

By "POP"

Next Wednesday — 4th of July — will be celebrated in gala style at Hot Springs — barbecue dinner, contests, speakers, singing, and free fireworks — so far, I haven't heard of any sort of celebration in Marshall — being on Wednesday, however, guess we fellows at The News-Record will celebrate by working — anyway, I hope the program at Hot Springs will be successful and I'm sure it will be — it's a shame that Marshall doesn't have 4th of July celebrations like we used to have — double-header baseball games — one in the morning and the other in the afternoon with the Island crowded with excited spectators — oh, well, times change, don't they? — the wedding of Clara Elizabeth Ramsey and Horace Bennett Sunday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church was beautiful — the decorations, the music, the singing, the bridal party, the ceremony and the reception were "tops" — hope Horace didn't mind my kissing the bride while going through the receiving line at the reception — Clara has always been one of my "favorites" and when she gave me "permission" I took advantage — wouldn't you have done the same thing? — Peggy, Gerry and Edyth surely did look pretty, too didn't they? — hope the greenery in the baskets didn't tickle Peggy's back too much — although the afternoon was very hot, the beauty and solemnity of the wedding made me forget the heat — was glad to again see the Rev. and Mrs. A. Ray Howland and Eva Claire — they all look fine and Mr. and Mrs. Howland didn't look a day older than they did when they lived here — sorry to hear that Mr. Mellin has had to be in the hospital for a few days — hope he soon gets well and is again able to play ping pong, pitch horseshoes, and work around the yard and garden — also sorry that Frank Fisher had such a painful experience at Savannah Beach, Ga., last week-end — he swallowed a fish bone — said bone lodged in his throat and it took an operation to get the blamed thing out — thanks to Ted McKinney and Delmer Payne for "salting" our road Monday night — the dust is terrific up there — glad to see Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Clay — Mrs. Clay is the former Miss Evelyn Ramsey, who was employed at the office here — she came in with her husband Monday and showed him the "shop" — they now reside at Portsmouth, Va., where he is on the USS Forrestal which is dry-docked at the present — I'll bet Bob Seymour is really enjoying his new car — it was a most generous gesture on the part of the membership of his church to present him with the car — especially just before he was married — guess Pearl will also enjoy driving it — the big question now is: Will Mickey Mantle beat Ruth's homerun record? — John Corbett told me Sunday that he and Tom really had a fine time at Fontana — wonder how Lyman is getting on in Miami this week at the Lions Convention — bet he's also having a fine time — hope so, at least — the heavy rain last Friday afternoon made Main Street look like a river — especially in front of the REA Building — water got bumper-deep for awhile —

BUSINESS

FOR FARMER'S WIFE

How does your garden grow? — et any new taters this year? — the store bought new taters just ain't new taters — had you noticed that the popularity of the Sequoia potato didn't last long? — most of us objected to the dark streaks at the root end — they were a dependable cropper, though — one man I know calls them squaw potatoes — somehow that name suited them — another expression I like is "sody cook" — an old lady awhile back said so and so was a good "sody cook" — meaning she could use soda and buttermilk or sour milk instead of baking powder — we know what she meant because soda is as temperamental as a movie star — when it is good it is very good, and when it is bad it is horrible — am going to pass on this recipe for the old fashioned ginger cookies that every grandmother knows how to make by guess and by gosh but can't give you a recipe:

- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup shortening
- 1 cup molasses
- 2 eggs
- 3 tbs. vinegar
- 1 1/2 tbs. baking soda
- 1 tbs. ginger
- 1/2 cup hot water
- 6 cups sifted bread flour.

Mix sugar, shortening, molasses and eggs; add molasses and last the hot water mixed with the vinegar, soda and ginger. Add the flour till stiff enough to make into long rolls. Wrap in wax paper and place in refrigerator overnight. These can be sliced off and baked as needed. This recipe makes about 85 cookies and can be kept in the refrigerator for 2 or 3 weeks — that is, if you're one of those lucky women who can keep cookies.

Vota Vita Class Met With Mrs. Huey On Tuesday Night

The Vota Vita Sunday School Class of the Marshall Baptist Church held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Wade Huey.

Mrs. Eva Sams, class president, presided. During the business session, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Lyman Martin, president; Mrs. Earl Robinson, 1st vice president; Mrs. E. Y. Ponder, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Kermit Cody, secretary; Mrs. Ron Sprinkle, treasurer; and Mrs. H. E. Bolinger, program chairman. Mrs. Hettie R. Blankenship was re-elected teacher of the class, and Mrs. Guy White was named assistant teacher.

Mrs. E. Y. Ponder had charge of the devotions and program. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Guy White and Mrs. Walter Ramsey as winners in a contest, and one group prize was presented.

Mrs. E. C. Teague showed the group a book entitled "Minnie Belle" which was written by Louie Lattimer Owens, wife of the Rev. Ollin Owens, a former pastor of the Marshall Baptist Church. The book deals with humorous incidents in the lives of ministers' wives. Mrs. Owens has also written a booklet entitled "Baptists Abroad" in which she tells of their two months spent traveling in Europe in 1955 when they attended the Baptist World Alliance.

Following the meeting, the hostess served refreshments.

Class members present were Mrs. E. C. Teague, Mrs. Lyman Martin, Mrs. W. F. Holland, Mrs. Guy White, Mrs. E. Y. Ponder, Mrs. W. B. Ramsey, Mrs. Eva Sams, Mrs. Jim Story, Mrs. H. E. Bolinger, Mrs. Walter Ramsey, Mrs. J. M. Baley Jr., Mrs. Liston Ramsey, Mrs. Ron Sprinkle, Mrs. Kermit Cody, Mrs. S. L. Nix, Mrs. Earl Robinson, and Mrs. Huey; and one visitor, Mrs. Bob Miller.

MARRIED SUNDAY IN MARSHALL

MRS. HORACE LEROY BENNETT

Clara Elizabeth Ramsey Becomes Bride Of Horace Leroy Bennett

Ceremony Is Performed In The Marshall Presbyterian Church

The wedding of Miss Clara Elizabeth Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jackson Ramsey of Marshall and Horace Leroy Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lurier Jefferson Bennett of 26 Maple Crescent St., Asheville was solemnized in a candlelight ceremony at 4:30 on Sunday afternoon, June 24, 1956 in the Marshall Presbyterian Church.

The Reverend A. Ray Howland, former pastor of the bride, officiated. The double ring ceremony was used.

The altar, in front of which was the kneeling bench, was banked with palms and emerald fern interspersed with arrangements of white gladioli, asters, daisies, and seven branched candelabra with lighted tapers.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. J. H. Eads, organist, of Marshall and Miss Carolyn Anderson of Mars Hill, soloist. Miss Anderson sang "Through the Years" by Youmans, and "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" by Gounod. At the conclusion of the ceremony when the bride and bridegroom knelt for prayer and benediction, Miss Anderson sang "The Wedding Prayer." During the ceremony Mrs. Eads played "To A Wild Rose" by McDowell. The traditional wedding marches were used.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight satin and tulle fashioned with an off-shoulder neckline and cap sleeves outlined with pearls in a Roman Key design. The cathedral train extended from a deep peplum which formed panels of satin and tulle. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a satin half-hat outlined with pearls and orange blossoms in the same design of the gown. She carried a white bridal Bible topped with a white orchid and net streamers.

She wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the groom, and a 125-year-old imported jet bracelet which was inherited by her cousin, Mrs. Clara J. Keith, of Asheville. Mrs. Bennett was the 27th bride to wear the bracelet during the past few years. Miss Anne Bristol, of Andrews and Arlington, Virginia, and former college roommate of the bride, attended as maid of honor. Miss Bristol wore a dress of turquoise organza over taffeta, featuring a cummerbund of taffeta, scooped neckline and bouffant skirt. Her head piece was of turquoise taffeta and net. Her cascade bouquet was of white summer flowers centered with Shasta daisies and English ivy.

The bridesmaids: Miss Geraldine Chandler of Marshall and Arlington, Mrs. Clayton Wallin of Winston-Salem, and Miss Peggy Holland of Marshall, wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor.

Mrs. Bennett was attended by her father as best man. Ushers were James Bennett, brother of the bridegroom, Robert Livestock and Carroll McGee, all of Asheville, John Ramsey, brother of the bride, of Clinton, Illinois, and William Clark of Marshall.

lornoon dress of blue lace and taffeta with hat of matching shade. Her corsage was a purple orchid. Mrs. Bennett, the groom's mother, wore a dress of white lace over pink taffeta with matching accessories. Her corsage was a pink orchid.

Mrs. Bennett is a graduate of Marshall High School, and Woman's College in Greensboro. She received a B.A. degree in elementary education, and for the past year was a member of the faculty of Ray Street School in High Point.

Mr. Bennett is a graduate of Asheville City Schools, Mars Hill College, and Wake Forest College, where he was a member of the Alpha Sigma Phi social fraternity. He is a Navy veteran of World War II. Mr. Bennett is employed as customer service representative with the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company in Greensboro.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Fred O. Tilson had charge of arrangements. Guests were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Edwards of Mars Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Ramsey and Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Teague of Marshall. Mrs. A. Ray Howland and Mrs. Richard Mellin presided at the punch bowls and were assisted in serving by members of the Ladies Bible Class of the church.

For travel later in the evening, Mrs. Bennett wore a navy cotton dress trimmed in summer velvet, white accessories and the orchid from her Bible.

After a wedding trip to St. Simons Island, Georgia, and Charleston, South Carolina, the couple will be at home in Greensboro.

Among the out-of-town guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ramsey, brother of the bride, and their children, Scott and Brenda Jane; Misses Nancy and Jeannie Houchin of Dewitt, Illinois; Mr. and Mrs. J. Scott McFadyen, Mrs. Reginald Barton, Miss Linda Barton and Reginald, Jr., Mr. John F. McFadyen, Miss Mary Scott McFadyen of Fayetteville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McKeithan, Mrs. J. A. Baucum, Mrs. Preston Kelly, Miss Gail Kelly, of Raeford; Mrs. J. W. Lindsay, of High Point, N. C.; Miss Alice Craig, of Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Spainhour, of Kernerville, N. C.; Mrs. Lloyd Stinchcomb, of Black Mountain, N. C., the Rev. and Mrs. A. Ray Howland and Miss Eva Claire Howland, of Clifton, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Livestock, Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett and sons, Michael and Gary; Mrs. Clara J. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ingie, Mrs. Irvin Chester, Mrs. Benjamin Finney, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gregg, Mrs. Viola Henday, Mrs. J. A. Stoder, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Keith, Sr. and Mr. Jim Keith, Jr., all of Asheville.

Mrs. Bennett was escorted to a luncheon given by Misses Peggy Holland, Geraldine Chandler, Anne Bristol, and Mrs. Clayton Wallin Saturday, at the Railway Park Hotel.

Mrs. Bennett was presented with a corsage by the groom's mother.
