H AND E A AND E R AND E D AND E By "POP"

Bob and Faye Banks and son, Donnie, returned to Marshall after spending last week in Ocean View, Va. — Bob and Faye visited the Rev. and Mrs. Jarvis Teague and family in Murfreesboro en route home and said they enjoyed seeing them all again — also enjoyed watermelon — sorry to hear that Alvin Teague will have to undergo an operation on his knee at Duke Hospital soon — hope he gets along good — went out to the Walnut Baptist Church Sunday night to snap a picture of the Junior Department of BTU — enjoyed hearing the young people sing so well during assembly — was shocked to learn that Jeter P. Ramsey accidentally slipped while working at his home Saturday and fractured an ankle and knee — he is now wearing a cast — it may slow up Jeter's fishing for awhile, but I guess he can still play checkers — Bruce Payne is perhaps the luckiest guy around here — last week he lost his billfold containing $60.00 and valuable papers — he drooped around the shop all day worrying — and then the glorious feeling came the following day when a friend of his saw Bruce and told him he had found his billfold — money and all — that's what I call lucky for Bruce — in addition to having an honest friend — Olga Sprinkle must have "lived" in the sun while visiting in Florida — she has a gorgeous tan — glad to see Rosemary Dellinger again — she was at Training Union Sunday night and looking great, as usual — I'll bet Harry "Preach" Davis is glad that his wife is able to be at home again after being in the hospital — while she was away, Sarah Anne did all the cooking — and I understand her biscuits are not quite as good as her mother's — that's what she says, but I'll bet she's a good cook and housekeeper — was sorry not to have seen Don Colvin when he was here but Letha, Jean, Jimmy and Lloyd were honored with a picnic supper up at Wade's and Louise's Tuesday night — we had a great time with plenty to eat — Francis Holland, Ernest Teague and I loaded our plates and found a nice place to eat at James Huey's — after the picnic, several of us went up and looked at the Mashburn property which is being leveled off — after that, back to the Hueys for some great fellowship and watermelon — Louise Teague and I discussed stock car racing and came to the conclusion that it's better to watch a race than it is to be in one of those stock cars — thanks to Allen Duckett and Robert Davis, the fire truck has the "new look" — aluminum running boards and back platform instead of the former black — Jimmy Sprinkle is getting entirely too good at ping pong — glad that Mr. Mellin is able to be at home again — hope he soon gets back in ping pong shape — before Jack Gross gets back home — he and Jack have some real battles over the ping pong table — wish I could have gone to Washington with the fellows to see the All Star game — had to settle by watching television — looked for the boys from Marshall but couldn't spot them — glad to see "Kink" Roberts again — also Clay Goforth — both were in town Wednesday — guess I've said enough for this time — see you next week.

THE FARMER'S WIFE

So many plants and trees are known by so many different names hereabouts that it keeps one in a dither — none of my nursery catalogues list an apple called Bell-flower but everybody knows that it is the large yellow apple ripening about August — no, not the horse apple — not hardly as sour as the horse apple — all the neighbors seem to have gotten their trees by grafting — know several women who put extra large pockets on their aprons to put the small things, such as buttons, in till they take off the apron at night — then they empty the pocket into what? — a vase seems to be the answer to this — just turned a small pitcher over and what fell out? a short pencil, some string, a collar button, such as men wore with stiff collars about 30 years ago, a sinker for a fishing line, some nails and a nail set, a penny, and various screws and washers — and some pig rings — you know the wire gadgets we fasten to a pig's nose so it doesn't root up the garden — these must have been at least 20 years old — these are all necessary things — we might have a use for them any day, so just poured them back into the vase — one can always put flowers in a glass or a cup.

Miss Roberts, Bride-Elect, Honored With Dessert Bridge Tues.

Miss Sally Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loy P. Roberts, of Marshall, bride-elect of William Harter Lashley Jr., was honored with a dessert bridge party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Clyde M. Roberts in Marshall. Assisting Mrs. Roberts were Mrs. P. R. Elam and Mrs. S. B. Roberts.

Miss Roberts was presented a gift by the hostesses. Out-of-town guests attending the occasion were Mrs. Graham Barnwell, of Spartanburg, S. C., Mrs. Dene Leverette, of Fayetteville, Mrs. Cary Jeffries of Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Mrs. Coaly Hanes, of Mt. Hope, West Virginia, aunts of the honoree. Bridal decorations were carried out.

Children, who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Huey since Tuesday, will leave today for their home in Ethel, La. Mr. and Mrs. Colvin are former residents of Marshall.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Ramsey, Miss Mae Fleming and Mrs. C. E. Mashburn and children visited Camp Deerwood, Brevard, Sunday where Clare Ramsey, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ramsey, is in camp. Clare expects to be at the camp for two weeks.

Recent Births

To Mr. and Mrs. Manson Farmer, Marshall RFD 4, a son, July 7, 1956 in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Scout Leader To Participate In Pioneer Roundup

Mrs. D. D. Gross will serve as Patrol Counselor for seven Girl Scouts from Waynesville at the Roundup to be held next week at the Pisgah Girl Scout Camp Site eight miles south of Brevard. The campers participating in the Roundup will be pioneers as the 131 acre camp site has not been open for camping until this summer.

The lake has been prepared for swimming and boating and there is a well and pump to provide drinking water. There are no buildings at the camp site and each Patrol will be responsible for preparing its own camp area, including setting up tents, building fireplaces, tables, showers, etc. All meals will also be planned and prepared by the separate patrols. During the five days, July 17-21, the Scouts will sleep in tents, cook outdoors, and learn to live in the woods, depending largely on the things available to them.

Miss Nancy Campbell, Executive Director of the Pisgah Girl Scout Council, will serve as camp director. Mrs. Harold S. Clark will be the camp nurse and Miss Mary Claire Warren will serve as waterfront director.

The Patrol with which Mrs. Gross will be camping is composed of the following girls: Marietta Campbell, Elaine Chafin, Penny Crawford, Amelia Gibson, Carey Howell, Susan Moody and Ann Owen.

Finley To Show Films At Fellowship Supper Next Tuesday

"TEE CLOWNS" TO MAKE OFFICIAL APPEARANCE

The "Tee Clowns" of Marshall, North Carolina, will make their first official appearance at the GENERAL BOOTH of the 9th annual Craftsman's Fair to be held at the Asheville City Auditorium, July 16th to 20th.

They are handmade originals and won for their sponsor, Mrs. L. Richard Mellin, a membership in "The Southern Highland Handicraft Guild" at its annual meeting which was held this spring at Fontana Dam, North Carolina.

The clown bean bag, which originated this particular group, is as traditionally American as patch work quilts that found their way into the hearts of children when Grandma made them for the toy booths at county fairs and church bazaars.

A merry jingle in each clown bean bag proclaims that "Tony Tee is filled with glee when he can play with you and me."

Big brother "Master Tee" has been invited to wear the colors of several high schools and colleges.

Then there is "Baby Tee" with the gentlest of rattles and a tinkling rattle, dressed in pink and blue, to bring joy and happiness to all the babies.

Not to be overlooked at the Christmas season, "Santa Tee" in his red and white suit, gaily appeals to boys and girls to include him in their holiday fun.
