BOY KILLED, BABY SAFE

Shadow, Ark. — Although L. C. Coffee, 16, was killed when he was hit by a truck, an infant he was carrying in his arms escaped without a scratch.

NOT SO FUNNY

Lexington, Ky. — Two young boys could have been tickled by the after-school assignment they drew when a juvenile court official ordered them to pick up more than 100,000 feathers they had scattered breaking into a storage house. They didn't think it so funny.

FINDS FAMILY LINK

Lawrenceburg, Ky. — Stewart McBrayer, local banker, went to an auction sale recently, saw an antique dresser he liked and bought it. He later found a note on the back of the dresser which told that a furniture company had purchased it for W. S. McBrayer, Stewart's grandfather.

"JACKET" FOR MAIL BOX

Haven, Kan. — Neighbors were somewhat surprised to see Ray Tuttle's mailbox, clad in a jacket with a fur collar. Tuttle explained that it wasn't there to keep the mail box warm, but that he found the jacket lying in the road and thought the loser might come by again and reclaim it.

MORE AND MORE YOUNG FOLKS ARE DISCOVERING

July's the time for "Olds" ideas!

- ▶ There's no thrill like the high-powered thrill of commanding the Rocket!
- ▶ There's no feeling like the secure feeling of piloting an Oldsmobile!
- ▶ There's no investment like the solid investment of owning an Olds!
- ▶ And there's no time like the present time to get the most for your trade-in!

Get the facts! Get the figures! Get out of the ordinary! GET INTO AN OLDSMOBILE

REPAYS LOAN 100-FOLD

New York — Forty-eight years ago, David B. Steinman entered Columbia University on a $650 scholarship. He received a Ph.D. in 1911. Recently, Dr. Steinman, designer of the Henry Hudson Bridge and 300 other bridges on five continents, returned to the school to set up a $10,000 "debt of honor" scholarship fund. His recent grant brought to $650,000 the amount he has given the institution, repaying his own scholarship grant a hundredfold. The son of a factory worker, Dr. Steinman's first job was as a newspaper boy when he was 7. His current project is the $99,800,000 Mackinac Bridge in Michigan.
