HEARD AND SEEN

By 'POP'

The Girl Scouts and Brownies of Marshall, Walnut and Hot Springs were kind enough to invite me to have lunch with them last Friday — as you know, last week was "Day Camp Week" for them and they were all fixed up good on the Cody Farm near the Marshall Memorial Park — on arriving I was cordially greeted by Mrs. R. H. Kaplan, of the Pisgah Council, who was camp director — others assisting were Mrs. E. O. Burnette, Mrs. T. L. Thrash, Mrs. D. D. Gross and Peggy Holland — fortunately, Mabel Ruth Michaels, who had been visiting here for sometime, fixed my dinner and had it all ready for me — she's a very cute girl and I was mighty glad she and I were friends — I'm not too good at cooking and it was mighty nice for her to "look after me" — Connie Cook "took a liking" to the kodak and was quite thrilled to have her picture taken several times — Doris Ward and Connie were my "escorts" when I started to leave and accompanied me to my car — Kathy Baley, Elizabeth Friaby, Cecelia Roberts, Aileen Burnette, Margaret Corbett and all the girls were mighty sweet and I want them to know I had a grand time — incidentally, for dessert, we had "sommers" — know what that is? — well, it's a toasted marshmallow with a Hershey bar between two Graham crackers — never had such as that before — it was a new dessert as far as I was concerned — maybe I'll have some more "sommers" some time — Dr. Robert Holt, pinch-hitting for Jack Gross, delivered two more fine sermons Sunday — he's a fine preacher and a great fellow — certainly an asset to Mars Hill College and Madison County — congratulations to the "Bub" Mayhews — I'm glad it was a boy — "Bub" and Maxa have three cute daughters — now they have a son to keep the girls in line — umm — notice another Marshall gal wearing a diamond — Pat will make Jeter a mighty good wife — Ted McKinnis and Delmer Payne left yesterday for Alaska — hope they get in some good fishing — Jimmy, Pug and family are spending a week at the beach — will miss my ping-pong partner — Junior Smith, Johnny Corbett and Olin Jarrett say they had a great time at Raleigh with the 4-H'ers — Virgil got a big kick out of sitting in the Governor's easy chair while visiting the Mansion — congratulations to Edwin Stines on winning third place honors in soil, water and conservation division — was sorry that friend Joy Lou Hensley didn't win in the dress revue — "Cricklet" looks real good with glasses — I hate to do this to you readers but just can't help it: of all the "give-me-a-sentence-with-the-word" jokes I've ever heard, I give a prize to the lad who put "effervescent" and "fiddlestick" in one sentence. He said "Effervescent enough covers on the bed, your fiddlestick out" — ug!

BETWEEN US WOMEN

THE FARMER'S WIFE

So we get to August, the most unappreciated month of the year — peaches to can or freeze — beans of every sort to do something with and sweet corn growing hard in the ear while we can the tomatoes and apples — have never understood about peeling peaches — what do you do with those melt-in-the-mouth ones which are too soft to can and would be wasteful to put in the peels? — the most used method is to eat them as you peel but after a dozen or fifteen there comes that tight feeling around the waist and peeling peaches seems irksome and we might as well lay or lie down, whichever the word is — one of the first newspaper columnists was O. O. McIntyre who used to write "New York Day By Day" — part of his column was made up of Thoughts While Strolling, the strolling being done on Broadway — he was an opera fan — one of his best stories told of going to the Met to hear a visiting singer from Europe who had a wonderful bass voice and the ability to hold these extremely low tones for long periods — on this particular night the basso was at his best and there was a dead quiet as the singer went down the scale to his lowest pitch and held it for fifteen seconds — while a yokel in the balcony picked up the note and carried it seven notes lower — August is also the time to make the turnip bed if you haven't — some say July — others say a certain thing of the moon — just between us, the best time is to bring up the subject suddenly one day when the man of the house is off guard, with no excuse ready — let's plan a picnic for August.
