FOR EXPERT REPAIRS BRING YOUR WATCH TO Patrick's Jewelry - AND -WATCH REPAIR MARSHALL, N. C.

COPPER AT TOMBSTONE

Tombstone Ariz.-At this site of a silver mining boom in the 1880's a new ore discovery has recently been reported. This time it is copper, found by an exploration company, at the 930-foot level of a silver mine flooded years ago.

STOP THAT ITCH! IN JUST 15 MINUTES. If not pleased, your 40c back at any drug slore. Try instant-drying ITGH-ME MOT for lich of eczema, ringworm, insect bites, foot lich or other surface itch. Easy to use day or night. Now at Moore's Phermacy.

STATE OF FREE PICNIC GROUNDS

The next time you want to take your family or party of friends on a picnic, bring them to our free picnic grounds located on U. S. 25-70, Panther Branch, Alexander, N. C. Our picnic grounds are equipped with: Plenty of covered tables; lights on tables and the grounds as well as cook house; cook house with old time wood range; plenty of cold spring wa-ter; free fishing; Pony Rides; see our trick horse and ponies per-form. We handle all kinds of picform. We handle all kinds of pic-nic supplies as well as a full line of groceries — Hot Dogs, Ham-burgers, etc. Prepare your own meab. Church groups especially invited. We run a clean place. ECOMPANY. US 25-79 at Panther Branch Alexander, N. C.

-17tf

AUGUST 12, 1956 These commonts are based a the International S. S. Lesson Outlines, copyrighted # by the International Council of Religious Education, USA, * and used by permission.) * THE WAY OF CHRISTIAN

FELLOWSHIP Memory Selection: "If we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have followship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin." - & John 1:7. Lesson Text: | John 1:1-10. It is strange that nothing is recorded in the New Testament about John's activities as an apostle after Christ's ascension, except that he is associated with Peter in the events immediately after Pentecost, and is also mentioned by Paul as one of the pillars of the church at the time of the Council in Jerusalem. However, five books in the New Testament are credited to the pen of John. These are the "Fourth Gospel," the three epistles of John and the Book of the Revelation. All were very probably written | Jesus!" near the end of the first century when John was a very old man. The epistles, like the Gospel of fohn, express profound thought in imple words, dwelling on the spiritual elements in religion rathr than on the external and emphasizing faith and love, obedience and knowledge, light and life. The first letter of John, which forms the basis of our study this week, is the longest of the three and was probably written in Ephesus. It is a solemn warning to the Christians of that day that they could not hold views of Christ which are untrue, and at the same time, have fellowship with God through Christ. John was endeavoring to combat the heresy of the Gnostics because he realized what a deadly heresy they taught when they said that one living in sin might still be "spiritual" and a "child of God." In his letter, John shows very clearly the relation of doctrine and conduct.

John has become known as the 'Apostle of Love" because he stressed Christian love more than any other New Testament writer. A careful reading of John's writing will certainly reveal the emphasis he places on love. Love is the theme of this letter. Twice in this first epistle he says that God is love, and several times he declares that love is the evidence that one is born of God.

John's description of a Christian, as outlined by Marthar Tarbell, is as follows: "God is revealed in Jesus. To know what ington D C. was inspired God is like, look at Jesus. To hea write her own hymn, "The Battle God's message, listen to Jesus. If Hymn of The Republic." we desire to please God, to be a But, getting back to Scotch mel-Christian, live like Jesus. And odies, Robert Burns came across all this sums up a life of love a delightful, lilting tune one day lived daily among our fellows, which was called "The Caledoniloving not in word, neither with an Hunts' Delight" and was so tongue, but in deed and in truth. intrigued by it that he sat down "Confession of faith, generosiand wrote a poem to be sung to ty in service, all the godlike things the tune, beginning with the line, named by Jesus in the Sermon on 'Ye Banks and Braes of Bonnie the Mount are implied in our Doon." He learned, after he had brief texts from John's first episwritten his poem, that the music tle. Hereby know we love, be-cause he laid down his life for have heard two things about you: us; and we ought to lay down the first is that you are a great our lives for the brethren. Find coward, and whenever a battle is God through Christ, and show to be fought, you either get out your Christianity by daily living of it altogether, or you go somelives of love." where out of danger; and the oth-Are you a Christian? Do you er thing I have heard is that you bear any of the marks of a Christian? Percy J. Grubb, in Wesbear the same name as myself. "Now you must do one of two leyan Methodist Magazine, once things: either you must become a wrote: "You have, all heard of brave soldier like your general-Alexander the Great. He cosalways in the forefront of the quered country after country in quick succession. We are told battle, always in the thick of the fight, always at the post of danthat he had in his army a soldier ger; or, if you cannot do that, whose name also was Alexander. "One day he sent for the man you must change your name; you to appear before him. When he shall not disgrace the name of came, Alexander said to him: 'I your master.' "So, Christ comes to every one of us, young and old alike, and he says: If you bear the name of Christian, you must also bear my mark and badge upon you. You must exercise that same pure, unselfish, kindly love towards one another, and to all around you, which I have manifested to all men, or else you must change your name; you shall not disgrace the name of Christian." TUESDAYS and SATURDAYS Are you a Christian? Are you trying to be Christ-like? While no one is perfect, and we are all sinners, are we bonestly trying to live as we know Christ would

E of the

COME, O THOU TRAVELLER UNKNOWN When Thomas Koschat discovered the poem about unrequired love which began, "Forgotten, forgotten, forgotten am I." he was so moved by the sentiments that he immediately sat down and set the story to music. He little dreamed that the editor of a Christian hymnal would one day iticlude his music in a new volume, with the stanzas of James Montgomery's great hymn on the Twenty-third Psalm, "The Lord is my shepherd, No want shall I know."

Nor did George Webb imagine that a somewhat similar experience would be his when, for an evening of entertainment aboard passenger vessel in mid-Atlantic, he composed a new tune for the poem, "'Tis dawn, the lark is singing" It was left to another editor to take that tune and match it with George Duffields' words and thus create one of the most militant hymns in all Christendom, "Stand up, stand up for

This thing also works in reverse, because it was to the tune of an old hymn written during the middle of the nineteenth century by Abbey Hutchinson, "Kind words can never die," that the British Tommies, during the first World War, sang a song of their own, substituting "Old soldiers" for "Kind words," giving the world the song now popular with veterans in every branch of the covered that Wesley's words could dures, military, "Old soldiers never die." Felix Mendelssohn was asked to compose a tune for a celebration in connection with an anniversary of the invention of printing. Little did he know that his music would be immortalized by being linked with Charles Wesley's superb Christmas hymn, "Hark! the herald angels sing." Nor did Williams Shield, who composed the tune now known as "Auld Lang Syne" for his opera, "Rosina" in 1782, ever dream that his music would be the inspiration of a noble hymn of immortality, "It singeth low in every heart," which Rev. John Chadwick wrote in 1876.

Stranger still is the fact bhat the tune William Steffe wrote in the middle 1800's for his own gospel song, "Say, brother, will you meet us on Canaan's happy shore," soon became associated with an entirely different kind of song, "John Brown's body lies a-mouldering in the grave." Later it was rescued from oblivion when' Julia Ward Howe, while visiting at Munson Hill Farm, near Wash-have his followers live? If we aren't doing so now, let's take a fresh start and do our best to do as he would have us do from here on out.

In fact, it has ardent desires of my io I go about it?"

Clarke, thinking Miller was joking, humorously replied, "Write your meledy on the black keys of the harpischord to a good steady kind of rhythm and you'll have what you want."

Miller, taking his friend's words as sound musical advice, and following them infallibly, did exactly that and produced the rudiments of what, with some alterations and corrections by Clarke, became the afore-mentioned tune.

Burns was doubly anxious to aube sung to "Bonnie Doon" is not thenticate the tune's origin since known, but whoever he was, he its popularity had led to the must have made a good job of it claim that it was of Irish origin. Because, the young lad who was

The night Charles Wesley to grow up to become Methodist preached in Kingswood, May 24. Bishop Warren A. Candler, found 1741, he wrote these words in his er of the famous Emory Univerdiary, "I preached on Jacob sity, learned the words to that wrestling for the blessing.' tune and never forgot them. Old-Doubtless, the music to which er hymnals carry this notation Burns referred was the farthest above the hymn, "Bonnie Doon, as sung by Bishop Warren A. Chandler." Later the name of thing from the Methodist preacher's mind as he delivered the sermon that evening. The thoughts tune was again forgotten, and he shared with his people that Wrestling Jacob" was sung to a night were finally reduced to poune now named for the Methodist etic form the following year, when leader himself, "Chandler," which was nothing but "Bonnie Doon" he wrote the fourteen stanzas of one of his most profound poems, which was originally "The Calesemetimes called "Wrestling Jadonian Hunts' Delight."

cob," but known by its first line. So a poem by an English di-'Come, O traveller unknown." one, sung to a tane by a Scot-Meanwhile Burns' poem had he tish composer, popularized by a come so popular that the tune to Bishop of the former Southern which the verses were sung was Episcopal Church in the United no longer known by its original States has won the universal acclaim it so well deserves. And 'Wrestling Jacob'' will be a per-title, but was called 'Bonnie Doon" after the last two words of the first line of his stanzas. The name of the person who disdy as long as that hymnody en

CHURCH FEARgeast 15
According to an announcemen by the pastor, the Rev. N. H riffin, a revival meeting will be gin at the Laurel Branch Baptist Church, on the Marshall-Mars Hill Highway, the third Sunday in this month - August 19.
The Rev. Jack Davis will be all a state of the second state

Revival To Start

At Laurel Bran

he visiting evangelist. Mr. Griffin and the church cordially invite the public to attend and take a part in the meeting.

Don't pity the unmarried man he can keep his bachelor quarers until they become dollars.

Written by a blind man of Spruce Pine I will not pass this way again-As I travel let me help some

Poetry Corner

Contributed by Edith Deaderick Brabins # # # # # # # # # #

LIFE'S JOURNEY

friend; Help someone a burden to bear; The heartache and grief of someone to share.

May I bring this comfort day by day As I travel along on life's highway. will reach out a hand to those in SOFFOW

For I will not be here on the long tomorrow ARTHUR FRYE

Television sets are 3 dimensional: they give you height, width and debt.

Funeral ser W. Chy Hampton, 68, of Mars Hill, died Saturday, August 4, 1956, were held Monday at 2 p. m. in the Mars Hill Baptist Church of which he was a member.

1. 11

Dr. Robert C. Moore officiated and burial was in Mars Hill Cemetery.

Nephows were pallbearers. Hampton was a member of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, the Fraternal Order of Eagles and was a former member of the Odd Fellows and Loyal Order of Moose.

Decoration

There will be a decoration at the Wilson Cemetery on Sunday, August 26. The cemetery is located near Caney Fork Church Services will begin at 10:30 a. m., Mrs. Minnie Goforth stated this week

FRIDAIS THE L. P. ROBERTS BUILDING MARSHALL, N. C. * * * * * * * SHUPE PLANING

MILL

We Manufacture WAGONS, TRUCK BODIES Plane Lumber and any kind of woodwork

SHUPE PLANING MILL Formerly Brigman Wagon Co. GEORGE B. SHUPE, WALNUT, N. C.

IN AND AROUND

Marshall

Weaverville Laundry

and the second second

-Y-ste lister T de-in for a set of sale, appendable Gulf Thres Teday!

PRICED 670x15 FOR ONLY

15.65 Exchange plus tax

Gulf's new economy, high-mileage tire.

THE GULF TIRE New Low Price 14.95

Exchange plus tax 60tr16 670x15 Size _ --- 19.95 Exchange plus tax

All sizes low priced for big savings! White sidewalls available in most sizes—similarly low priced. All tires on sale are new, quality Gulf tires. Fully backed with a Written Warranty.

Son' William

and state

East End Service Station West End Service Station Stines' Gulf Service Guthrie's Service Station

MARSHALL, N. C.

HOT SPRINGS, N. C.

Woody's Gulf Service