Mr. Bascombe Lamar Lunsford of Leicester, was in Marshall Tuesday. He recently put on one of his usual shows in Virginia Beach.

Miss Sally Lee Roberts Weds William H. Lashley Jr.

Miss Sally Lee Roberts of Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loy P. Roberts of Marshall, became the bride of William H. Lashley Jr., of Royal Pines Friday evening, August 17, 1956 in the Marshall Presbyterian Church with the Rev. L. Richard Mellin, pastor, officiating.

Mrs. Craig Rudisill Jr., of Marshall, organist, and Henry Clay Edwards of Mars Hill, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Mr. Edwards sang "Oh Promise Me" and "Through The Years." Mrs. Rudisill played "I Love You Truly," "Ah Sweet Mystery of Life," "Indian Love Call," and "Clair de Lune." The traditional wedding marches were used.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lashley of Royal Pines.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of bombazine silk over rose point lace, with portrait neckline. The bouffant skirt of the lace had an apron overskirt of the silk applied with the lace designs, and ended in a chapel train. She wore a coronet of luster pearls and a veil of illusion, and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Joyce McKinney, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Teresa Barwell of Spartanburg, S. C., cousin of the bride, and Miss Sara Jane Tilson of Marshall. All attendants wore dresses of pink, blue, and white. The bride wore a blue crystaletta and net, styled with shrug jackets, bouffant skirts of net and crystaletta, and small shirred hats starred with iridescent sequins. They carried pink and blue California daisies.

Denise Rudisill of Marshall was flower girl. She wore a dress of pink crystaletta and net, and a bouquet of pink paspalis. Morris Roberts of Marshall, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

The Rev. James Bruce Frye of Horse Shoe was best man. Ushers were Steve Roberts of Marshall, brother of the bride, Raoul Jones of Asheville, and George Laquist of Swannanoa.

A reception followed in the social hall of the church. Those assisting were Mrs. Cleophus Rector, Mrs. S. B. Roberts, Mrs. L. Richard Mellin, Mrs. Carl Stuart, Mrs. John McElroy, Mrs. Hugh Fisher, Mrs. Jack Ramsey, Mrs. Fred O. Tilson, Mrs. W. T. McKinney, Mrs. Carl Bowman, Mrs. C. D. Bowman, Mrs. Hilliard Teague and Mrs. Sam Rudisill.

Prominent members of the group are from the Mars Hill section and are said to have won honors and distinction.
