Local Student Attends Leadership Seminar In Mass.

Miss Dana Wilds, student at Berea College in Kentucky, is attending the Martha's Vineyard Leadership Seminar this summer. Miss Wilds is the daughter of Mrs. Cora Wilds of Marshall.

Each year the Student Christian Movement in New England sponsors a Leadership Training Seminar in Edgartown on Martha's Vineyard Island, Massachusetts which began this year on June 24 and lasts until September 4. Student leaders in college campus Christian Associations all over the United States attend this Seminar with the purpose of (1) stimulating personal Christian growth in order to strengthen leadership, (2) gaining training in Christian student-work techniques, and (3) seeking relevance of our Christian faith to campus, community, national and world problems.

The geographical spread of students attending the seminar is nationwide in both representation of states and colleges. There are students here from Maine to California, literally. There are thirty-three students here from 32 colleges in twenty-five states. Two students are from overseas - one from Germany and one from Jordan.
