The victory put the Buncombe eleven even with the Midwest which is composed of players from Madison, Haywood, Henderson, Transylvania, and McDowell counties. In the first game last year, the Midwest defeated Buncombe 13-6 — ironically the same score by which they lost Thursday.

Lee Edwards' Claude Gibson rolled across the goal line to score Buncombe's first marker during the second period. Vernon Caston, also of Lee Edwards, kicked the extra point.

Buncombe took the second half kickoff and promptly marched 77 yards to pay dirt. Morgan Foster and Gibson, both of Lee Edwards, Gravette, of Owen, and Lee Farmer of Enka, alternated carrying the ball to the Midwest seven in ten plays. Gravette handed off to Ronald Redmon of Owen on the seven and Redmon blasted off tackle for the second marker. The try for the extra point was blocked by Milam Wall of Mars Hill.

Later in the third stanza, the Midwest retaliated when Wall returned the kickoff from the 22 to the 44 to begin a touchdown drive. Wall, Johnny Rogers and Bob McCracken of Clyde carried the ball to the Buncombe eight. Quarterback McCracken pitched out to Waynesville's Carroll Hooper, who swept around end for the marker. Charles Sproules of Hendersonville, kicked wide on the try for the extra point.

The game then turned into a

CHURCH WOMEN STUDY JAPAN IN JOINT MEET

Approximately 85 women from Mars Hill, Weaverville First, Calvary, Calvary and Little Ivy Baptist Churches in a recent joint meeting studied "Japan Advances," taught by Mrs. Baker James Cauthen, wife of the executive secretary of the Foreign Mission Board.

A special feature of the program was a testimony given by Mrs. Yasuo Ohnishi and slides shown by her husband. They exhibited costumes and curios of native Japan. The Ohnishis are students at Mars Hill College following a two years' leave of absence grant by the Shell Oil Company of Sendai, Japan.

The program continued with singing of "O God We Pray For All Mankind." During the evening Miss Jo Ann Weber, a student at Mars Hill College, sang "Beautiful Japan." She was accompanied by Miss Doris Cole, also a student at the college.

Mrs. Cauthen illustrated her discussion with slides of her travel giving evidence of the great strides that are being taken in denominational work in Japan.

Between the study sessions the group enjoyed a covered dish supper. Continuing the Japanese theme, Japanese lanterns and umbrellas were used as table decorations.

Miss Frances Snelson is Mission Study Chairman for the Mars Hill Woman's Missionary Union.

Vancouver, Canada — James T. Maltese, 23, fell asleep in his car, which ran off the road, plunged down a 70-foot embankment and over a three-foot wall. When found, he was still sound asleep and unharmed.
