Exchange Vows

Waynesville, Dec. 20 — Miss Peggy Ann Plemmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Plemmons of Hot Springs RFD 1, and Charles B. Justice Jr., also of Hot Springs RFD 1, were married Saturday at 1 p. m., in the home of the bride.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Doyle Miller of Franklin, cousin of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Justice is a graduate of Spring Creek High School and is employed as bookkeeper at Masie Furniture Co.

Mr. Justice, also a graduate of Spring Creek High School, served two years in the U. S. Army and is employed at American Enka Co.

Mrs. Nancy Goforth
Dies In Washington;
Native Of County

Mrs. Nancy Carol Goforth, 23, a native of Marshall, who resided in Washington, D. C., died Wednesday, December 19, 1956, in a Washington hospital after a short illness.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p. m., in Caney Fork Baptist Church. The Rev. Luke Griffin and the Rev. Jeter Sherlin officiated. Burial was in the Dry Pond Cemetery.

Surviving are the husband, William H. Goforth; a daughter, Joyce and a son, William D., both of the home; and mother, Gladys Meadows, of Marshall.

Mrs. Goforth was a member of Caney Fork Baptist Church. The body was taken to the home of J. J. Goforth until service time.

Bowman-Rector Funeral Home was in charge.

BALL CITY

A large crowd attended the Christmas program at Ball City Saturday night. Everyone enjoyed the program.

Mrs. Alton Price and children spent the weekend with her relatives in Marietta, S. C.

Charles and Dean Coward are visiting their sister, Mrs. Daniel Fisher, of Hazelwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Fish and family were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wells Sunday evening.

Agnes Mathus spent a few days with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mathus, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery Allen and family were Christmas shopping in Waynesville Saturday.

We are glad to have Mr. C. B. Justice back at home after spending several days in the hospital. Uncle Marion Coward is still in the hospital, but we hope he will soon be able to come home.

Misses Jo Ann Allen and Agnes Mathus were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Moore and family attended the Christmas program at the Flats of Spring Creek Sunday night.
