AGAINST CANCER

London — Methylene blue, a widely used dye for staining bacteria to make them show up well under the microscope, can cure fast-growing cancers in small animals, R. T. Pursell, a veterinarian from New South Wales, has reported in the British scientific journal Nature.

ALL A MISTAKE

Ocean City, N. J. — Louis Palmer, automobile agency owner, was expecting a check for $3,500 from General Motors, Inc. When it arrived, Palmer was surprised to see the amount. The check was made out for $3,500,000. After taking lingering looks at a fortune, Palmer returned it to the company.

SELFISH COCKER

Clinton, Okla. — When the cocker next door saw L. T. Bruce's grandson arrive with his small beagle pup for a visit with his grandfather, the dog promptly gathered up his playthings, including two rubber balls, two rubber mice and a leather watch band, and laid down on top of them. Selfish dog!

Mrs. Sarah Robinson Passes On Sunday; Funeral Tuesday
