Keep us, ch God, from pettiness; t us be large in thought, in word,

Let us be done with fault-findmg and leave off self-seeking. May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face and meet ea without self-pity and without prejudice. May we be never hasty in judgment and always generous. Let us take time for all things; make us to grow calm, serene, gentle

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, strightforward and unafraid. Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differ-ences, that in the big things of over the week-end and they too life we are as one.

And may we strive to touch and to know the great, common human heart of us all, and, oh Lord God, let us førget not te be kind!
