ON THE HILL AT PACIFIC MILL

We are really having some beautiful Indian summer weather now after the passing of Hurricane Helene. We wonder why they name the hurricanes after women? We've heard that one lady called the Weather Bureau in and said that some men just as turbulent as some men. However, there could be some argument both ways, we suppose.
 This week brought us into squirrel season and there have been a lot of squirrels killed around here, or at least shot at. We heard that Jerome Pickler and Roy Ammons caused two men to crawl out of the woods on their hands and knees last week-end while squirrel hunting. We understand that they filled the woods with shots. We don't believe that they brought any back though. Maybe we should start a contest to find out who is the best squirrel hunter here at Pacific Mills.

 We regret to hear that Maxine Wills and Jean McCarter will be out for quite a while, due to illness.

ness. We would like to tell both of them that we hope they recuperate fast.

We are glad to have Doris Thomas back after her recent illness. Charles Sawyer had last Saturday night off. It seems a shame that Shirley Ruth couldn't be off, too, but she had to work. Jean McCarter had some bad luck last week with some of her livestock. A cow and a calf ate nitrate of soda and died. Sorry to hear of this, Jean.

Jane King got sick on the job and had to leave last week and is still out. We understand from Joe that her tonsils were giving her trouble. e says she is better now.

Clyde Gregory's and Charlie Duckett's squirrel hunting trip last week cost them a dollar each. Was it worth it, boys?

Zela Steelman traded car's last week, and she also found a bill for $700 in it. She had hardly gotten her hands on the money before it was claimed by the loser.

Emmett and Patsy Norton are the proud parents of a baby daughter. Emmett was formerly employed by Burlington Mills but is now attending East Tennessee College.

Those from the plant who attended the birthday party for Aunt Alice Owen on Sunday were Vanda Cook, Cathene Franklin and Nellie Franklin. Although 73 years old, Aunt Alice had prepared a delicious dinner and had 20 guests. She received many gifts and everybody enjoyed the party.

Mabel Gentry made a hurried trip to Marshall Saturday, getting the old Ford shaped up for crossing the mountains this winter. Let's hope that this winter is not as rough as last.

Inez Roberts has moved from Hot Springs to Laurel near Catherine Franklin. We understand that Inez has gone back to the hospital and we are sorry to hear this. We hope she gets over her trouble quickly.

Allen Roberts, small son of Pansy Roberts, bruised his ribs while at school Thursday. We are sorry to hear this, Pansy.

Adrienne Woody was seen out roaming the country this week-end. Did you have a good time out riding through the mountains, Adrienne?

Elsie Bullman had the day off last Saturday. Lloyd Stamey's and Floyd Gregory's squirrelitis is better now after they both had the day off Saturday.

We have only heard from one of the reporters that we asked to hold serve last week. She did a mighty good job. Don't forget, you folks, that if you have any newsworthy items to turn them in to Nellie Franklin, Helen Allen or Jean Roberts.

Money can't buy a bit of love, but it can buy lots of sympathy.
