HEARD AND SEEN
By "POP"

The regular Heard and Seen Column can really be found on Page 3 of this issue, concerning the Band trip to Duke last weekend. I haven't heard or seen much since then. Since this is true, I'm going to complete this column this week with three little "funnies":

The new count-down at Cape Canaveral seems to be 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1-Damn!

A certain first-grade student has been doing real well in school but recently came home in tears. The first grade had just had its first examination — an eye examination.

Bawled the student: "A lot of kids beat me! Some had 20-40 and some had 20-80 . . . an' (snub) all I got was 20-20!"

A certain mother was showing her 3-year-old daughter a book of prayer a few nights ago.

One prayer was accompanied by an angel child, complete with halo around head.

"Gosh, Mommy," said the little girl, "he can spin a hula hoop around his HEAD!"
