phell Presides

trial of Aux King of Hot Springs; Gay Rice, 62 Flar Pond; Clyde Cook and Frey Chandler, both of Mar-RFD 3, was continued un-ne Pebruary term of court on Monday.

ting and Rice are charged to the murder of Fowler Shel-tie, of the Laurel section on Oct. 29. Chandler and Cook were arrested later and are charged in Connection with the same case.

Tudge Hugh B. Campbell, of Charlotte, is presiding at the term and he took part of Mon-day's court time to swear in coun-ty officials elected November 4.

Included in cases heard this week are the following:

Clarence Massey was charged on eight counts, including failure to make auto title, assault on female, no operator's license, driversely. drunk, reckless driving, carrying concealed weapons, ADW on female and damage to public property. The State took a not pros on all charges except failure to make auto title, ADW on female and damage to public prop-

On the first count, the judgment was that he pay $140 and out; second count, $300 fine and cost and on third count, $50 an Fore, DD; Grady Olen Ed-wards, NOL; James Breeden, NOL; Charlie J. Chandler, Larceny; Jeter Buckner, VPL, Speed-(Continued on Last Page)

BRIGMAN NAMED CHAIRMAN OF

Returns To Mars Hill

Resume Practice Next Tuesday Following A Two-Year Absence

Dr. Charles H. Powell, after a two-years' absence, will resume his practice at the Community Medical Center at Mars Hill next Tuesday, where he will be asso-ciated with his brother, Dr. Er-nest Powell, and Dr. W. Otta

ferson delphi

ship a pital i

It w plans a larging

Center

The American Red Cross Bis mobile will visit Marshall on I day of next week, December day of next week, December 12 according to Dr. W. A. Sama Blood Program Chairman. It will be set up at the American Legion Hall, Upper Bridge Street, from 12 noon to 5:80 p. m.

Everyone is urged to go out and give blood on December 12.

Approximately 100 donors are expected.

ROR PRIZES TO BE SATURDAY

Merchants Of Marshall, Hot Springs Expect Huge Crowds

People who have registered in Marshall and Hot Springs during the past few weeks are expected to travel to these two towns come

Saturday afternoon.

In Marshall, a drawing will be held at the courthouse at three o'clock when someons will win a beautiful television set, valued at

At Hot Springs, those who have registered will perhaps be present at four o'clock when a dinette set, a set of encyclopedia, a carving knife set, a salad how! and a box of candy will be awarded the win-

Springs Robbery In 19

Incident Results In Deat Of Carson Lawson; Others Named

A South Carolina convict has cleared up a three-year-old Madison County burglary, Sheriff E. Y. Ponder said Wednesday,
He said Charles P. (Rocky) Rothsphild, 34, admitted to him at Columbia, S. C. Friday the robbery of Carson Lawson, of near Hot Springs, the night of Sept. 28, 1055, and implicated two other men.

other men. The sheriff said Lawson, then in his early 60's, died of a heart attack during or right after the robbery as he and three other persons lay bound at his home in persons lay bound at his home in the Sautin community.

Rothschild is the same man whose confession last July saved another man from execution.

Lawson's death added murder to the warrants issued against Rothschild and the two others, identified as Fruent C Kimes 35, of Hlightful, Ark, and George A. Gazner, 38, of Cairo, Ill., the sheriff said.

He said the warrants issued almost the charged and will fine charged and will be charged and will fine charged and will be charged a as charged such with first of burgiary and armed ro Ponder said relatives report bout $40,000 was missing the rubbery. Witnesses said saw the montake two $10

COMMISSIONERS

The recently re-elected board of county commissioners, composed of Wayne Brigman, Dewey Wallin and Rex Allen, met Monday morning in the courthouse and re-organied.

On motion of Rex Allen and seconded by Dewey Wallin, Wayne renamed county attorney; Ted R. m., last Thursday, while he was Russell was reappointed super-cleaning a 22 rifle. wisor and purchasing agent and Sheriff E. Y. Ponder said Met-Mrs. Erma Sprinkle was re-ap-pointed assistant tax supervisor was struck in the right chest by and clerical assistant.

Fathe Accidentally Shot

Lewis Metcalf of the Spillcorn Brigman was elected chairman community (Marshall RFD 4) nounced that Joseph B. Huff was shooting in his home at 12:30 p. for the changeover.

While Cleaning Rifle dential sections and the old liver lives low in the residential sections countles are ex- which displays the best over dential sections and the old Tixtions would be discarded.

D. M. Robinson announced that eon and awards ceremony.

a power stoppage would be in ef- Over 100 organized rural com- attractive door decoration and a There will also be floats, ponies is a patient in Memorial Mission fect Friday afternoon in Mars munities in 15 counties reaching $5,00 prize is being offered to the and horses in the parade and se the board. is a patient in Memorial Mission fect Friday afternoon in Mars munities in 15 counties reaching $5,00 prize is being offered to the and horses in the parade and The commissioners also an-Hospital following an accidental Hill from 3:00 to 3:30 o'clock from Burke on the east through home with the most original dec-Santa Claus will make his ap-(Continued to Last Page) pected to be on hand for the lunch- decoration. There will be a $5.00 the Mars Hill and Marshall High prize to the home with the most School Bands will participate. (Continued on Last Page) pearance, in Mars Hill.

BREAKS CASE

HONOR ROLL

The News-Record Citizens Bank Ciandler Hardware Candler Hardward Service Motor Sales
Bank of French Broad
National Scalos Store
Coal, Feed & Lumber Co.
Frisby's Gulf Service
Whitehurst Insurance Agent

MARSHALL

Marshall Post Office
East End Service Stati
Edwards Cleaners
Sprinkle-Shelton Wholesale
Board of Education
SCHOOLS (Parally)

New Farm Tobacco Allotment Requirements Are Cited

The regulations governing the tobacco acreage allotment and marketing quots program provides that not more than one-fourth of one percent of the annual national quots may be used in establishing tobacco allotments on new farms which meet all the eligibility requirements. County ASC Office Manager Raigh W. Rarnery says that the changes midde by Congress in the law and topolations partelning to establish Walnut at Laurel. Marshall at Mars Hill. Spring Creek at Hot Springs.

THE NEW BRIDGE over the Ivy River not Marshall is all but complete. It's being built I connection with the new by-pass around Machall. Blasting along the by-pass right-of-war is under way up ahead of the bridge, where of quipment can be seen. The new bridge will be