

HE NEWS-RECORD

NO. 24

12 PAGES THIS WEEK

MARSHALL, N. C., THURSDAY, JUNE 11, 1959

10c PER COPY

PRICE: $2.50 A YEAR IN COUNT $4.00 A YEAR OUTSIDE COUNT

June Bargain Days To Be Held Here This Week-End

The News-Record * * * * * * * * * * *

EDITOR'S NOTE: The follow ing items were published in THE NEWS-RECORD Thursday, July 8, 1954

Marshall Alderman Lands 23-Lb. Catfish

L. B. Ramsey, popular Marshall businessman and alderman, decided to "forget" his business and official duties for a few minutes last Friday and go fishing. He grabbed a rod and reel and a No. 4 hook and decided to relax for a death of Fowler Shelton. Colefew minutes. Relax? Anything man Hensley was sentenced to 16-

It wasn't long until Liston had landed a great big 23-pound cat-

Construction Started At Mars Hill College

Work on two new Mars Hill College buildings has been started, and completion date is set August, 1955.

Cost of the buildings, a 75,000volume library and a men's dormitory to house 126 students, totals $557,632.

Rev. James Hyde Retires From Active Ministry

The Rev. James L. Hyde, pas-tor of the Alexander (Pennsylva-nia) Presbyterian Church for the past seven years, retired from ac-tive ministry July 1, it has been

The minister, a former pastor at Walnut, who preached his final sermon last Sunday, was honored with his sister, Miss Anna Hyde, at a farewell party in the Alexander church last Friday evening. On his retirement, the two to Carlisle Spr

Return From Camp

Johnny Corbett and Luther Nix members of Marshall Troop 2, Boy Scouts of America, returned Sunday from Camp Daniel Boone near Brevard, where they have been in camp for the past two

Memorial Park Swimming Pool Opens To Public

Long before the Marshall Memorial Park swimming pool was opened at 12:30 last Saturday afternoon, many crowded into the community building and stood waiting in swimming trunks and suits for the initial announcement that the "pool is now open." Shortly before 12:30, Hubert Edwards. manger of the park, had the snack bar filled with delicious candies, sandwiches, pies, cakes, and cold drinks, much to the delight of everyone. At 12:15, Glenn Painter and Douglas Adams took their posts atop the life savers' stands and at 12:30 the opening whistle blew.

*LOOKING Court Adjourns After * Two Weeks Of Trials

Judge James C. Farthing Presides; Judgments Rendered

The two-weeks' term of superior court for the trial of criminal cases was adjourned last Friday. Judge James C. Farthing, of Lenoir, presided with Robert Swain as solicitor.

The two major cases - Auz King and Hensley murder caseswere published in last week's issue. King was sentenced to 10-18 years for manslaughter in the 20 years for second degree murder and his son, Tommy, was sentenced from 14-18 years for manslaughter in the death of Hugh Shelton. Both men tendered their pleas last Thursday morning after Solicitor Swain, who was assisted by Joseph B. Huff, had completed State's evidence.

The manslaughter case of Louis Edward Norwood was continued. Other cases where judgments were rendered include the follow-

Virgie Edwards Boone, abandonment, 6 months imprisonment in woman's division State Prison

Department. Geter Hensley, charged with with violation of probation, 12 months on roads.

George Bruce Wilson, driving drunk, three years suspended sen tence and costs.

Troy Wells, assault with deadly weapon, five-year suspended sentence and costs.

KANIPE IS NEW GOVERNOR OF LION DISTRICT

Earl Robinson And Howard Barnwell Attend Convention

Hubert L. Kanipe of 106 Kingsgate Rd., Asheville, a charter member and first president of the Haw Creek Lions Club, Tuesday nual meeting of North Carolina Lions at New Bern. He succeeds F. E. Shull of Canton.

Marshall and Hot Springs are in this district. Kanipe, who had served previously as deputy district governor of Region 3, District 31A, was opposed for election by Joe E. Crum of Cullowhee, Lawrence Stoker served as his campaign

A native of Old Fort, Kanipe has been employed by Morgan Brothers, Inc., for the past 25 years, and in 1938 was married to Miss Mildred Bernice Thomas of Abingdon, Va. He was gradu-ated from Duke University in

The more than 1,000 Lions at

New Superintendent

FRED ANDERSON, Madison County's new school superintendent who begins his duties on July 1. Mr. Anderson succeeds William W.

MARSHALL TAX

driving drunk, was given 4 monass on the roads. This sentence to run concurrently with sentence he is now serving in Buncombe Country of the serving in Buncombe Country of the current $1.20 rate beginning July 1, 1959. due to a 20c increase in the Debt Service Fund, it was explained.

Draft Board Office To Be Closed From June 15 To June 22

Mrs. Myrtle Morgan, draft board clerk, announced here this week that the draft board office will be closed June 15 through June 22. Mrs. Morgan will be on Many Surprised At Charred vacation during this week, it was

American Legion Elects Officers Here Thursday

Officers for the Davis-Sexton was elected governor of North Post 317 of American Legion Carolina District 31A at the an-, were elected here Thursday night; in the Legion Hall.

Elected were; Commander, C. Dodson; vice commander, Don West; Adjutant, Roy Reeves; Finance Officer, Arthur Ladford; Service Officer, John Ward Jr.;

Albert Rector was named parking lot manager and Adolphus Cook was named as house manage

Social Security Representative Is Changed Here

It was announced this week the sorge Leinwall, popular Socie scurity representative who he

More Than 5,000 Copies This Week

PURPOSE IS TO ACQUAINT NON-SUBSCRIBERS WITH PAPER

Special Offer To New Subscribers In Madison And Buncombe Counties To Be Offered By The News-Record This Week-End

In order to acquaint everyone in Madison and Buncombe Counties with The News-Record, this issue is being sent to all subscribers and non-subscrib-

If you are not a subscriber to The News-Record, you may take advantage of a special offer being made during June Bargain Days this week-end.

Remember, this special offer is effective only during June 11, 12, and 13. Come into The News-Record office or clip out coupon, enclose check, money order or cash and receive The News-Record every week for one year.

SPECIAL OFFER:

ONE YEAR FOR ONLY

$2.00

6 MONTHS FOR ONLY $1.00 (In Madison and Buncombe Counties ONLY)

Please send The News-Record to following address in Madison or Buncombe County for one year:

Marshall Baptist Church Fire

Framing As Church Is Razed

Enclosed find $_

By JIM STORY

Some of the older people of which almost destroyed the Marshall Baptist Church in the winter of 1912 but still others were amazed to find out that there had

The incident came to light dur- roy, whose home was beside the ing the past few weeks as the church (now Mrs. Carl Stnart's), present church is being razed pre- smelled smoke and realized the paratory to erecting a new church church was on fire. He rushed to and an engraved tray. building on the same site. It was the back of his home and when indeed surprising to most everyhe went outside, so intense were of hearing the Boys Choir from wheat allotment for this year one when the roof was removed the flames that they singed his Gaston County and the Hillandale 296,356 acres and is based on and Sergeant-of-Arms, Marvin a few days ago to discover that eyebrows. He turned in the fire Girls Chorus from Durham Counmost of the framework was char- alarm and about that time Dr. ty. red with many large supports Weaver happened along and also practically burned in two.

ing the church, scratched his head and told this writer that he was a miraculous job in saving as surprised as anyone when he building from being totally saw all the burned wood in the stroyed and at the same time attic. "It's a wonder the church kept the McEiroy home from has atood this long," he remarked burning. It is said that Bob Ca-He said he soon discovered that the framing behind the facing of J. C. "Cub" Sprinkle was one of the baptistry was burned but he the volunteer firemen. During didn't think the whole top was the fire someone let the full force.

we found out some authentic information while others we questioned threw in a few things that they'd heard about the fire.

A little history of the church reveals that it was built in 1903 Marshall vividly recall the fire and dedicated in 1906. Everything went along smoothy until the winter of 1912 - January 28th, to be exact.

It was on the night of January ever been a fire at the church. 28, 1912 that Judge P. A. McElsaw the church ablaze.

Earl Robinson, in charge of raz- The fire department, with limof the senter from the hose strike.

Cub smack in the face and it knocked him through one of the windows of the church.

When the flames were finally extinguished, it was found that the

VALUE MAXIMUM, Advertisers Offer Hundreds NEWS MINIMUM IN THIS ISSUE

tion by printing the paper a Friday and Saturday. news coverage.

the scarcity of news in the of June Bargain Days. issue but will resume full coverage next week.

We are actually sacrificing news in order that every person can read and di- than the former event. gest the amazing values throughout the paper.

Only "must" copy is published this week.

THREE ATTEND IN RALEIGH

Three Madison County people left Tuesday, June 9, to attend Farm Home Week on the State College campus in Raleigh. Mrs. George Shupe, Mrs. E. O. Burnette and Marion Wilson registered at the William Neal Reynolds Coliseum during the afternoon Following the formal opening at 7:30 they went to a reception hor oring Dr. and Mrs. Carey H. Bos-

Each morning started with devotions in Danforth Chapel, for merly called the College YMCA. On Wednesday morning Mrs. George Shupe took part in "Lead-Mrs. Burnette and Marion Wilson had a difficult time deciding which classes to attend. They will participate in two other classes or Thursday morning.

The afternoon sessions include "The Way To Charm and Beauty," "Hats We Made, On Parade," a tour to Chapel Hill and Duke University, and tea at the home of ers. According to H. D. Godfre President and Mrs. William Friday at Chapel Hill.

gram Wednesday, June 10, was of ble vote will set the support rat special interest to the Madison at 75 percent of parity on the 196 County delegation. Mrs. E. O. crop while an unfavorable vot Burnett was honored as 1958 will drop support to 50 perces Leadership Achievement Award of parity. winner. She received an orchid

Another special treat was that

Friday, June 12 will be a highlight history making day for home monstration women. At the 35rd annual meeting of the State Federation of Home Demonstration installed as recording ascretary.
"We'll have more to tell you later about our trip," says Marior
Wilson, home economics agent.

Of Values In This Issue

Never before in the history of Marshall have so many bargains from so many places of business been offered. Throughout this In order to meet the re- 12-page edition can be found hunquests of the merchants who dreds of money-saving bargains are cooperating with this which will be offered to the pubnewspaper in its special edi- lic this week-end - Thursday, day earlier than usual, it is Read each advertisement carenecessary to omit the usual fully and you will be amazed at the low prices Marshall's mer-Readers will, instead, find chants are offering. It's a "once that the issue is practically in a lifetime" event and thoussolid with advertisements ands of people are expected to offering outstanding values crowd into the Marshall stores this week-end. We regret this week-end to take advantage

The last time a similar event was held in Marshall was Marshall Bargain Days last year, and the merchants have even better values

Below is published a list of firms which are cooperating with this event:

Belk-Broome Co. Marshall Department Store McKinney's Penland & Dorn National 5&10c Store Dixie Grocery

Model Grocery French Broad Chevrolet Co. Coal, Feed & Lumber Co. O. C. Rector Hardware Roberts Pharmacy Moore's Pharmacy Home Electric & Furniture Co. Wild's Radio Service Chandler Hardware P. R. Elam Farm Supply Co. Redmon & Worley Motor Co. Houston Brothers

Service Motor Sales, Inc. All Season Heating Co. Builders Supply Co. F. B. Electric Membership Coop Citizens Bank The Bank of French Broa

er and Officer Training" in the Ballroom of the College Union. TO VOTE ON 1960

The main issue at stake in the referendum of wheat farmer scheduled for July 23 will be th parity level at which the crop wi be supported for complying fare State Administrative Officer f ay at Chapel Hill.

The Honors and Awards ProConservation Committee, a favor.

The wheat allotment for Nor Carolina for 1960 is 295,879 see This compares with our State wheat allotment for this year acres. The same 55 millio allotment prevailed this year that is the minimum fixed by (Continued on Last Page