

THE REWS-RECORD

8 PAGES THIS WEEK

MARSHALL, N. C., THURSDAY, AUGUST 20, 1959

10c PER COPY

NTS START SCHOOL TUES.;

Madison Man Is Shot, Another Is Held In Jail

Condition In Hospital;

MARS HILL - A Madison County man was shot twice and critically wounded Sunday night near here by a man who, minutes before, was chatting with him.

Hospital in Asheville was Leslie Ponder, 54, of Mars Hill RFD 2. He was shot once in the stomach and once in the chest. The wounded man is a distant cousin to Madison County Sheriff E. Y. Ponder, who arrested the assail-

Held in Madison County jail is James Cox, 21, of Mars Hill RFD 1. The sheriff said he was preparing charges against Cox, but was awaiting the outcome of the wounded man's condition.

Sheriff Ponder said the shooting took place at the home of Leroy Snyder, also of Mars Hill RED 1, about 8:15 p. m.

The sheriff related this sequence of events:

Cox, Leslie Ponder and James and Kenneth Jarvis, also of RFD porch of the Snyder home talk-

The Jarvis men said they missminutes when Cox came around Hill College. the corner of the house waving a .32 calibre revolver and threatening to shoot the other three

The Jarvises fled and heard five shots fired. Then James Jarvis came back around the house and yanked the pistol away ASC Community Election from Cox and found Ponder wounded.

Sheriff Pender said that Cox (Continued on Page Two)

Edgecombe County Farm Tour To Lunch Here

The Edgecombe County Farm Tuesday, August 25. The Marshall Home Demonstration Club members plan to serve them at 12 o'clock in the Marshall school lunchroom. The tour group is scheduled to leave Marshall at 12:45. They are enroute to the University of Tennessee campus.

Mars Hill Club Will Scan Past

The Mars Hill Woman's Club will meet tonight (Thurs) at 8 o'clock in the cafeteria of the high school for a program enttiled "Curtain Call."

Mrs. E. C. Coates, Mrs. O. E. Sams and Mrs. J. V. Howell have parts on the program which will span the years of the club's history. Henry Clay Edwards, Miss Bex Ramsey and Mrs. Leila Hodge will offer musical accompaniment. Hostesses will include Mrs. W Otis Duck, Mrs. Fred Sams, Miss Barbara Stewart, Miss Ann Mauney and Miss Ramsey.

County Home Demonstration Council To Meet

The Gounty Home Demonstra-tion Council will meet Thursday night, August 27, in the French Broad Electric Building in Mar-shall. Mrs. E. O. Burnette, preident, will call the group to or-er at 7:30. The main business is be planing for Achievement by and completing the county

Marshall Principal

Leslie Ponder, 54, in Fair Cox Held

Taken to Memorial Mission

BOBBY EDWARDS, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Edwards, of of the Marshall school. He suc-served as principal for 9 years. Mr. Edwards is a native of Madison County. He graduated from Mars Hill High School, Mars Hill College and High Point 1, were standing about the front College. He completed graduate work at East Tennessee Teachers College and for the past 12 years has been assistant football, based Cox for about five to eight ketball and track coach at Mars ceeds Bernard S. Brigman, who

Miss Louise Joyce and they have one daughter. They will reside at Mars Hill for the present.

October 1

One of the principal duties of the 16 ASC Community Election

nity Committeemen for the comto this policy, according to Ralph

W. Ramsey, ASC county office manager, and that is a provision that farmers within each community have the privilege of petitioning additional names added to the slate of nominees as named by their community election board.

At least 10 eligible voters must sign the petition in order to make nominations by petitions and each

Boards Make Nominations

community from which the farm- things. Now, according to re-

ers will elect their ASC Commu- reliable sources, Hickey's Fork ing year. There is one exception snakes - or did before last Wednesday:

(Continued on Page Two) lous snakes killed in one day.

Take Offices On 12 Poisonous

LIONS CLUB TO HAVE PICNIC NEXT MONDAY

Prospective Members And Families Are Also Invited

The Marshall Lions Club will sponsor a cook-out on the Island bers, prospective members and their families invited.

Lion H. E. Bolinger, in charge of arrangements, urges everyone to be on the Island at 6:30 o'clock. "We are looking forward to a big time and fine fellowship and food." Lion Howard Barnwell, president, said.

Local Men Safe: Leave Earthquake Area Last Sunday

Much anxiety was shown here Mars Hill, is the new principal this week following the news of the earthquake in Montana. Reason: Two Marshall men were in this area.

Word was received by phone Wednesday, however, that Ted McKinney and Wade Treadway left the Hebgen Dam area on the Madison River Sunday. At the time of the earthquake which took many lives, the two local men were several hundred miles north of the devastated area.

The two men are on a fishing He is married to the former trip in Montana and other areas.

> The price of liberty is vigilance -always payable in advance,

Snakes Killed On

Hickey's Fork produces some also has plenty of poisonous

Raymond Shelton and Delpha

(Maw) Kendall were mowing

weeds when they found and killed

Patterson killed two large cooper-

That made a total of 12 poisor

heads and seven small ones,

cooperhead nearby.

Quenton Norton and Lewis

two large rattle snakes.

Hickey's Fork

CONSERVATION RESERVE SIGNUP TO START AUG. 24

Farmers who wish to put crop-land in the Soil Bank's 1960 Conservation Reserve must ask the basic annual rate per-acre for the offered land, Noville Hawkins, chalence CON. RESERVE next Monday night with all mem- kins, chairman of the Madison County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committee, said today. The period for filing such requests is from August ment in Madison County under 24 through September 10. No such requests will be accepted after September 10. In setting the basic annual percounty committee will take into consideration the productivity of ited to the local fair rental value gram. of the land based on the crop harvested from it during the past 5 years. When all the eligible the 1960 Conservation Reserve of cropland on the farm is offered for the Conservation Reserve, the erage $16.00 per acre. (Continued To Page Two)

WEST FOUND AFTER SUICIDE: BANK LOOTIN CAR based on crops he the past 5 years.

Weaverville Family; Rites Friday

37, of Weaverville, who robbed the Biltmore branch of Wachovia Bank and Trust Co. last Friday, shot himself to death near Weaverville Wednesday morning.

West had ended his life by simultaneously pulling the triggers on two 38-cribre pistols held to his temples. The weapons were the same guns with which pulled the holdups.

Recovered in the trunk West's car was $5,393 taken from A rural mail carrier, William J. Baley, of West Asheville, and West, a Clemson College graduate and World War II veteran, had undergone treatment for mental illness in hospitals in Greenville, S. C., and in Asheville since last January. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m., Friday in Weaverville At Laurel Saturday Methodist Church. The Rev. W. P. Waugh and Dr. H. B. Dendy will officiate. Burial will be in travel to Laurel Saturday to play

West Memorial Park. The deceased, a member of a postponed recently. Jimmie Shelton killed a large assisted in many real estate sales. League this season.

COUNTY RATE

The basic rate of rental paythe 1960 Conservation Reserve of the Soil Bank will average $18.50 an acre, Ralph W. Ramsey, county office manager, Agricultural acre rate for land offered, the Stabilization and Conservation, announced today. This is the same as the basic payment rate the land and the rate will be lim- in the county under the 1959 pro-

The basic rate of rental payment in North Carolina under the Soil Bank Program will av-

For individual farmers, a peracre rate will be set for the particular land to be placed in the Conservation Reserve taking into consideration the productivity of the land and limiting it to the local fair rental value of the land based on crops harvested during

The 1960 Conservation Reserve program contains special incen-Was Member Of Prominent tives for farmers to place all their eligible land in the program for at least 5 years and a priority system for accepting Conservation Reserve Contract applications. Husky Troy William West Jr., Eligible land, in general, is crop-(Continued To Page Two) week and the plant is shut down Both girls are sophomores at until Monday, August 24.

> Pacific Mills Employees Now On Vacation

4-H DELEGATES SPONSORED BY MARSHALL FIRMS

Madison County's 4-H Leadership Delegates are being sponsored this year by five Marshall and A & P Food Store gave $7.00 were Marshall Department Store Sprinkle-Shelton Wholesale Company - $5.00.

are attending the Fifth Western District 4-H Leadership Conference at Swannanoa 4-H Camp this Mars Hill," Mr. Anderson said. week. They left Marshall at 10:30 Monday morning and will has been set for August 24, the return home about lunchtime Madison County Board favors Saturday.

two senior 4-H Club girls from ing Marshall and Walnut, and, each of the fifteen western counties are sharing ideas and gaining inspiration for leadership in their port for duty Monday, August 24, home communities. The Madison County delegates represent their classrooms Tuesday, August three schools and four different 25. communities. Norris, the son of Edward Gentry of Hayes Run, will be a freshman at Marshall High School. David is the son of Mrs. J. P. Robinson of Mars Hill and is a freshman at Mars Hill High School. Andrea is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Duckett of Luck. Deanna is Employees of Pacific Mills of the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. DISTRICT ROADS Hot Springs are on vaccation this H. Kirsupatrick of Spring Creek.

(Continued To Page Six) the bank-actually $53 more than United Fund Meeting Boards is to name a slate of 10 farmers within their respective crops, large fish and many other the body shortly after 10 a. m. West Ashevitle, and formerly of Marshall, discovered the body shortly after 10 a. m. West Ashevitle, and formerly of Marshall, discovered the body shortly after 10 a. m. West Ashevitle, and formerly of Marshall, discovered the body shortly after 10 a. m. West Ashevitle, and formerly of Marshall, discovered the body shortly after 10 a. m. West Ashevitle, and formerly of Marshall, discovered the body shortly after 10 a. m. West Ashevitle, and formerly of Marshall, discovered the body shortly after 10 a. m.

Laurel - Walnut In Make-Up Game

The Walnut baseball team will a "make-up" game which was prominent Weaverville family, is The game will be the final conwell known in this area, having test in the Madison County

Directors, Public Urged To Attend Meet At

Courthouse

County United Fund will probably be decided at an important meeting next Thursday night, Road. Grading, draining and sur-August 27, at the courthouse beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock," Dr. H. E. Bolinger, president, announced.

Every person interested in this method of helping numerous causes is urged to be present. If you do not understand United ized and the I-beam bridge and Fund and its merits, you should approaches over the French be at the meeting to hear the Broad River on old NC 213 and program discussed.

"UF has been highly success ful in the years it has operated and it is hoped that sufficient in terest will be shown to warrant its continuance," Dr. Bolinger said

Harold Rector Is Still Critical After Acid Burns

Harold Rector, formerly Harold Rector, formerly of Marshall, remains in a Plint, Michigan, hospital in critical condition following an accident last week at the General Motors plant where he was employed.

Mr. Rector was neverely burned with sulphuric acid.

His condition is slightly improved, it was reported this more

Back At Work

Board To Assign Walnut Students Tuesday Night

Supt. Fred Anderson said this morning that the Madison County Board of Education has not received any definite reply from the State Board of Education relative to consolidating Marshall and firms. Belk-Broome Company Walnut High Schools. "We did receive in this morning's mail, each for the two boys, Norris August 20, 1959, a report from Gentry and David Robinson. The the Study Commission sent in to two girls, Andrea Duckett and Madison County by the State Deanna Kirkpatrick, received Board of Education July 22, 1959. equal amounts. Their sponsors This report and recommendation will be discussed and we hope - $5.00; Home Electric & Furni- acted upon by the State Board of ture Company - $4.00 and Education Thursday, September 3, 1959. The report is in effect a long range plan urging consoli-The Madison County 4-H'ers dation and suggesting reassignment of pupils for all of the high schools in Madison County except

Since the opening date of school sticking by that opening date for Two senior 4-H Club boys and all schools in the county, includtherefore, schools will open as scheduled. All teachers will reand all students will report to

> The Madison County Board of (Continued To Page Four)

IMPROVEMENTS ARE MADE ON 16

Asheville - Improvements on 16 county roads in the Thirteenth Highway Division were completed during the past month, according to Division Engineer W. M. Cor-

These Madison County roads were resurfaced with bituminous seal: 1 mile of NC 214; 9.2 miles of NC 208; 19 miles of US 25 and 70, from Hot Springs to Ivy . River Bridge; 1 mile Big Branch Road; 2.6 miles Grapevine Road; 3 miles old 213, from Marshall, 3 miles west; 1.4 mile Little Pine "The future of the Madison Road; 0.35 mile Marshall Cemetery Road; 3.1 miles Guntertown Road; and 8.4 miles Big Laurel facing was completed on .90 mile Bull Creek Road and 0.4 mile Peachtree Road.

Also in Madison, 0.4 mile of the Puncheon Camp Road and 0.5 mile McKinney Branch Road were graded, drained and stabilthe ramp to the high school at Marshall were completed. /

Couple Hurt In Collision Of Car. Truck On Tuesday

A Montgomery, Ala, couple was injured Tuesday afternoon when their auto collided with a tractor-trailer on U. S. 25-near Hot Springs, State High-Patrolman A. L. Feldman ported.

A LEGION Train Trip Sunday from Greeneville,

are shown in right